Official Rules and Regulations

The Solitaire Leagues of the MFCA's Solitaire Coaches Points Challenge (SCPC) is a points-based ranking system developed by the SCPC Rules Committee by which teams owned and coached by MFCA members may register their solitaire league and team game results into a national data base and earn points towards becoming the SCPC "National Champion"

1. Office of the Commissioner

The Commissioner of the SCPC shall be a member of the MFCA's Board of Directors (BOD) appointed and approved by a majority vote of the BOD. Duties of the Commissioner will be to oversee the overall operation of the SCPC, appoint members of the SCPC Rules Committee and moderate meetings of the SCPC Rules Committee. The Commissioner will make rulings regarding questions and interpretations of the SCPC Rules and Regulations.

2. SCPC Rules Committee

The Rules Committee shall be comprised of at least 3 members of the MFCA, appointed by the Commissioner and approved by a majority vote of the BOD. One member of the Rules Committee will serve as Chairman and will aid and assist the Commissioner in the operation of the SCPC. Members of the Rules Committee must be MFCA members in good standing (membership dues maintained and paid up-to-date). Duties of the Rules Committee will be to develop the initial Rules and Regulations of the SCPC, review and recommend changes to the Rules and Regulations annually and aid and assist the Commissioner and Rules Committee Chairman in the operation of the SCPC.

3. Participation

To participate in the SCPC, solitaire owners/coaches must be members of the MFCA in good standing (membership dues maintained and paid up-to-date). Solitaire owner/coaches may register any number of teams used in their solitaire play. Registration is completed by entering game result information on the Official SCPS Game Registration Form (<http://miniaturefootball.org/mfcasl/enter-scpc-game-info-here/>).

4. Divisions

Through information gathered by the Rules committee, it has been determined that solitaire play is conducted in several distinct styles and use of certain equipment. Using this information we have established the following divisions:

Division 1. Box Stock (Players – figure and base “as is out of the box”, no weight added, minimal or no base tweaking, may have small details added such as face mask and / or chin straps that do not significantly add weight to the figure.

Division 2. 3.3g Inclusive (Players – figure and base weighing up to 3.3 grams with heavily tweaked or minimally tweaked bases for speed, strength and / or direction.

Division 3. 4.0g Inclusive (Players – figure and base weighing up to 4.0 grams with heavily tweaked or minimally tweaked bases for speed, strength and / or direction.

Division 4. Unlimited (Players – figure and base- with no weight or tweaking limits.)

During the game registration process coaches will be asked to assign their teams to one of the above divisions. Please contact the Commissioner or a member of the SCPC Rules Committee if unsure which division to assign a team to.

5. The SCPC Points System

The following point system has been established and will be used to rank teams according to the number of games played, offensive and defensive performance, game scenario, and strength of schedule. Teams will be ranked based upon total SCPC points earned.

1. Games Played

1 point awarded for each game played (up to a maximum of 10 games).

2. Offensive and Defensive performance

Offensive points scored

0 - 3	0 points
4 - 10	1 point
11 - 17	2 points
18 - 24	3 points
25 +	4 points

Defensive points allowed

25 +	0 points
24 - 18	1 point
17 - 11	2 points
10 - 4	3 points
0 - 3	4 points

3. Game Scenario Bonus Points (GSBP)

The winning team receives bonus points based on the following game scenario criteria:

The winning team and losing team are owned by the same person and coached by the same person.	0 points
The winning team and losing team are owned by the same person but someone else coached the game.	1 point
The winning team and losing team have different owners and the winning team's owner coached the game.	2 points
The winning team and losing team have different owners and the game was coached by someone else.	3 points
The winning team and losing team have different owners and the game was coached by the losing team's owner.	4 points

4. Strength of Schedule

A. Division Bonus Points (DBP)

Teams playing and defeating teams in a higher division will receive Division Bonus points based as follows:

3.3g Box Stock team defeats a 3.3g Inclusive team = 1 points

3.3g Box Stock team defeats a 4.0g Inclusive team = 2 points

3.3g Box Stock team defeats a Unlimited team = 3 points

3.3g Inclusive team defeats a 4.0g Inclusive team = 1 points

3.3g Inclusive team defeats a Unlimited team = 2 points

4.0g Inclusive teams defeats a Unlimited team = 1 points

Teams playing and defeating teams in the same or a lower division do not receive Division Bonus Points.

B. Quality Win Bonus Points (QWBP)

At the end of the season, teams will be awarded 2 points for every win that an opponent they defeated won during the season.

5. SCPC Regular Season and Post Season

A. Regular Season

Season One of the Solitaire Coaches Points Challenge will begin Oct. 1, 2012 and end on June 30, 2013. Qualifying games must be played during this time period and game result information entered on or before June 30, 2013. It is recommended that game information be entered as soon as possible after the completion of a qualifying game to allow the Rules Committee adequate time to update the data base and to give participating coaches the opportunity to follow the progress of their teams throughout the season.

Season Two and subsequent seasons will begin on Sept. 1 and end on June 30 of that year. This is to allow the Rules Committee to review the past season and make any changes needed to the Rules and Regulations for the following season.

B. Post Season

On July 4th of each season, final point totals will be posted. The top team in each division will be announced and given the first opportunity to participate in one of four post season bowl games, the Solitaire Coaches Bowl Championship Series (SCBSC).

Teams that have completed and won 6 or more games are eligible to participate in one of the four bowl games. Being bowl eligible does not guarantee a bowl bid.

Bowl Game participants will be selected by the SCPC Rules Committee matched up in such a manner to promote fair, evenly matched, competitive and entertaining games as possible and such that they have the potential to effect the final rankings. Location, rule set to be used and actual coaches of the game must be mutually agreed upon and approved by the SCPC Rules Committee.

Bowl Games must be played in the month leading up to or at the Annual MFCA Convention in August of each year.

All bowl games will be scored using the SCPC Points system. Upon completion of all bowl games, rankings will be recalculated and the number one team will be named the SCPC Champion.

6. Sponsorship

It is the desire of the SCPC Rules Committee to have sponsorship for its SCBCS Bowl Games. Any company or person wishing to sponsor a Bowl Game should contact the SCPC Commissioner or Rules Committee. Sponsorship may include but not be limited to providing a bowl game trophy and/or other prizes approved by the SCPC Rules Committee.

7. Code of Conduct

It is the goal of the SCPC to provide a competitive, fun and entertaining form of participation for those MFCA members who classify themselves as "Solitaire Coaches" To maintain and insure the MFCA's motto of "Unity, Integrity and Fellowship" the MFCA's Code of Conduct will be enforced.

Any person or persons found to be or suspected of conspiring to enter false information in regards to SCPC game information and participation will be subject to MFCA membership suspensions and possible membership bans according to the MFCA's Code of Conduct as contained in the MFCA's Bylaws. (<http://miniaturefootball.org/about-the-mfca/bylaws/>)

Amendment 1. Rollover Rule

Owner/Coach's who have teams that did not complete more than 5 games in a season have the option to "rollover" games to the next subsequent season. This will allow Owner/Coach's with a larger number of teams to complete a full "ten game season" for their teams over the period of 2 "SCPC Seasons". Owner/Coach's must declare their intent to take advantage of this "Rollover Rule" prior to the beginning of the next subsequent season. Games can only be rolled over once to the next subsequent season.

SCPC Season II Weeks 1 & 2 Update

Season II of the SCPC is underway, but off to a bit of a slow start. That's okay though. Season I didn't begin until October 1st, so we're ahead of last seasons pace by default. Fall is a busy time of year. Things will pick-up.

All games entered so far, eight, are from Al's new WMLML season and Roo's ongoing ECFA action. Both coaches have entered four games all of which are detailed on their respective threads.

Keep an eye on the action as more coaches and games get going in the coming weeks.

SCPC Season II Week 3 Update

A few more games came in this week; a couple each from Al and Ed and one from north of the Border. Coach Heward's Hamilton Tiger Cats defeated Coach Martin's San Antonio Texans 21 - 7. Welcome to the SCPC coaches. Your our first participants from outside the US. AWESOME!

SCPC Season II Week 5 Update

We are already into week six of the second season of SCPC action. The fall is very busy, so things get off to a bit of a slow start, especially for me. We have 28 games entered now, and it looks like a few teams have played more than one. All the games so far have come from Dunham, Morgans, McLaughlin, Heward, and Martin. Way to go guys. You've got the jump on the rest of us.

I'm setting a target date for November 1st for the first official rankings to be released. It's a little anti-climatic until we have more teams and games. Now there are just a whole bunch of ties between teams with just one game.

That also gives me some more time to work on an improved game reporting and rankings system.

SCPC Season II Week 6 Update

Good morning everyone. Let me start by thanking you all for your patience with me. The fall is such a busy time of year I just don't have time to keep up with everything. I'm shooting for a few weeks from now, Nov. 1st, to get the games all organized and get the first rankings out.

Setting up an automated system is much more involved than I thought it would be. Time to work on that is hard to come by as well, but I'll get there eventually.

Eleven new games were entered this week with Chris LeMay getting into the mix. We are now at 6 coaches and 39 games for season II, and we're only six weeks in.

Season II is going to be awesome. Hang in there, and I'll get things going strong in Nov.

SCPC Season II Week 7 Update

Good morning.

Week seven of SCPC Season II action consisted of seven new games pushing our total for the first seven weeks to 46 games.

The best news of the week is that I was finally able to sit down with my buddy, who is the tech guy at my school, to roll up our sleeves and look at the technical side of running the SCPC. We put together some exciting plans that will streamline the process of keeping track of the hundreds of teams and games that took part last season. With season II setting up to be even bigger this will be a great benefit allowing the committee and I to spend less time recording results and crunching numbers manually, and more time promoting the SCPC.

From the participant perspective the new plans, once implemented, will make entering game results, seeing your individual teams' status, and the overall rankings a one click, real time process.

I'm pretty excited! It's going to take some time to get everything set up and there will likely be some growing pains and a learning curve, but it's going to be awesome.

For now, keep doing what you're doing as far as playing and reporting games. Depending on the timeline for launching a new system I may or may not have to put up rankings the old way. I'm still shooting for a Nov. 1st weekend 'First Ranking'.

7 Months & 2 Weeks Remaining

Better late than never, week eleven finally brings the first official rankings for SCPC Season II.

SCPC Points Season II can be viewed through the SCPC section of the MFCA home page. Here is a direct link to view the rankings.
<http://miniaturefootball.org/scpc/view-all/>

This first meaningful weekly update of season II will focus on the new SCPC web pages. I've managed to recruit the tech guy at my school, Corey, to get things all set up nice and fancy for us. Corey has even taken an interest in playing some MF so maybe we'll have a new member/coach soon.

For now keep entering SCPC game results just as you always have. Eventually you will be able to enter games directly into our new database system, but we're not there yet. I'll do that for the time being. Until we switch game reporting methods the master list with all games for season II is the same list from season I. It contains all SCPC games for both seasons. You can view this from the MFCA home page under SCPC, but cannot edit it.

Once I take your game results and enter them in the database your teams points for that game, total points, and ranking are automatically updated and immediately viewable on the SCPC Points Season II page.

Once on the SCPC Points Season II page you can see how all SCPC teams are doing. You can click on any team to be taken to that team's team view page. On the team view page you will see all games and results for that team, and a breakdown of the points for each game. Also listed on the team view page is the team's owner, total points, current rank, division, and home league (not all info is entered yet). In the future Corey will be rolling out other features on the team view page such as a team logo, photo gallery, and possibly other cool stuff.

As always, please check your team's information, game results, points, and ranking. If you see any errors let me know right away. Our entire system is automated now so there shouldn't be many errors. The most frequent problem will likely be game results getting reported /entered incorrectly. Any other sort of error that is found should not occur again once fixed. This system is really slick; very professional. Corey is doing amazing stuff.

Take some time and play around, take a tour. We're pretty excited about our upgrades.

As of right now all but two of the 75 season II games are entered into the database. The two that are not are pending additional information from the owner/coach and/or a decision from the rules committee.

Our current top ranked team belongs to SCPC new comer in Season II, Andy McLaughlin and his 2012 Atlanta Falcons with a record of 3-1 and 24 points. Ed Morgans, Al Dunham, and Chris LeMay all have at least one team within just a few points of the top. One game can tip the scales at this early stage in the challenge.

Thank you to everyone who is taking part and helping out, especially Corey and his amazing tech skills. Let's all encourage at least one other solitaire coach to join in. The SCPC is going to be bigger and better in season II.

One last note. The season I trophies are now complete and can be seen on the forum. Nice job Chris! Who wants to win one in Season II?

SCPC Weekly Update

Week 12

Sunday, October 17 thru Saturday, October 23, 2013

SCPC Season II Official Stats:

10 new games this week

12 new teams this week

1 new owner/coaches this week

85 total games, 94 different teams, 10 owners/coaches

0 teams eliminated from bowl contention

0 bowl eligible teams (six or more wins)

0 five win teams still alive

1 four win team still alive

7 Months & 1 Week Remaining

Alright, it sure is fun to be back in the saddle tracking the SCPC weekly. The new database updates the points and rankings in real time as I enter game results, so you can always see where your teams are ranked. More new features to the SCPC Points Season II web page, and the individual 'Team View' pages will be coming soon.

Week 12 was an active week with ten new games, twelve new teams, one new owner/coach, and our first four win team. A huge Welcome Back to Brian Wittkop Sr. who had had some health issues, but is now back up and running his Northern Michigan Electric Football League. Andy McLaughlin's 2012 Atlanta Falcons are the current number one team in the land, and are our first four win team of Season II. I think Andy needed to set the record straight following Atlanta's loss the Saints on Thursday night. His 2012 Falcons have now beat the 2012 Saints twice in Dirty Bird Electric Football Action.

Andy also entered the first ever tie game in SCPC history. Wow, it's hard to believe that in nearly 700 games combined in Seasons I & II we have never had a tie game before. Chris LeMay had a few, but played them out for SCPC purposes even though his league does allow ties. Thanks to Andy, Chris no longer has to do that. Corey made a few quick adjustments to the database and walla! We have tie game results. In a tie game both teams get only a point for playing the game, and their points scored/points allowed bonuses. All other bonuses go to the winning team which neither team in a tie was.

Al Dunham's Midwest Mennonites handed the Arctic Tundra a 42 - 28 loss. The win moved the Mennonites to 3-0 in SCPC play. They were the number one team all week. Until The Revenge of the Falcons II was entered by Andy.

ECFA had a cat fight this week. The Kentucky Wildcats moved to 2-0 with a 21-10 win over the Kansas State Wildcats.

Brian Wittkop is playing a Pac-10 schedule. In non-conference play, a SCPC Season I BCS team that finished number four in Season I, the Michigan Wolverines, defeated the Stanford Cardinal 28 - 3.

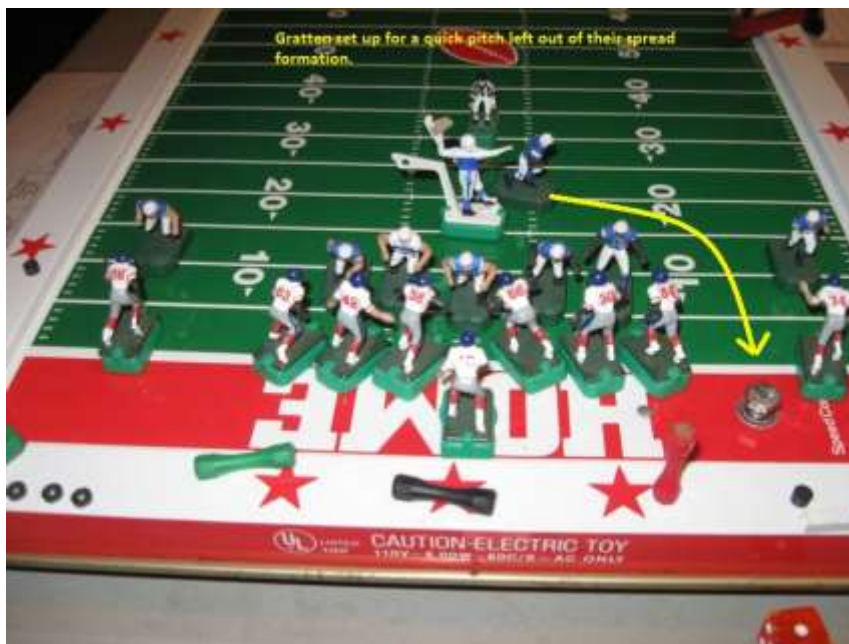

Finally, in my Nine-Man League the powerful Camp 53 Shays were taken down a notch by the Gatten Swamp Loggers in the final game on my week nine schedule. I have one more week of regular season play, and then the play-offs, in a season that has now spanned over two years.

Yup, two years. The SCPC Rules Committee noted that a number of solitaire players, like myself, take long periods of time to complete their seasons/tournaments. Only 26 of the nearly 250 teams participating in Season I made the six win requirement to be bowl eligible. In addition, several prominent solitaire players who did not participate in Season I noted that the SCPC ten game schedule was too much for them to obtain in single season. They could not get enough games in for any of their teams to be competitive.

Problem solved!

Beginning with the current Season, Season II, at the end of each SCPC season, any SCPC team that played five or fewer games will be able to 'Rollover' those games to the next season. If a team goes 4-1 in Season II they can now roll those games over to Season III, allowing that team to start the year 4-1, and continue working towards a bowl bid. The rules committee will notify coaches who are eligible to rollover, and provide details on how this will work in regard to scoring the rolled over games at the end of the Season II. The important thing for now is that this new 'Rollover' rule makes the SCPC even more accommodating to the vast array of solitaire styles and formats that make the Solitaire Leagues of the MFCA so great.

The 'Rollover' rule also means that a good number of coaches no longer have the ten game SCPC schedule as a reason for not participating. Bring your solitaire teams and leagues out of your lonely man cave and into the SCPC.

The winning touchdown in Drk's MPANMMEFSL game this week.

Happy December! We have now completed three full months of the SCPC's second season. Looking back at last year's numbers shows that we are right on pace this year.

Manaraydre got things going this week in his new Major Bowl Implications Miniature Football League, becoming Season II's eleventh owner/coach. Six of our eleven coaches entered games this week, and with Mantaraydre's teams being in the Unlimited division we now have at least two owners playing teams in each division except the 4.0 Inclusive level. We're still looking for our first Season II participant in that Division, but they will come. The SCPC coaches do a great job of promoting their leagues, teams, and games, so I won't get into game specifics this week. I will say that LeMay had a couple of interesting results though with his Americans pulling off one huge upset, and playing to a scoreless tie. Head over to the forum and check out all the week's action. The top ten as of this morning:

SCPC Weekly Update

Week 14

Sunday, December 1st thru Saturday, December 7th, 2013

SCPC Season II Official Stats:

15 new games this week

16 new teams this week

No new owner/coaches this week

117 total games, 129 different teams, 11 owners/coaches

0 teams eliminated from bowl eligibility

0 bowl eligible teams (six or more wins)

1 five win teams still alive

0 four win teams still alive

29 weeks 2 days remaining

Week 14 brought in no new coaches, but it seemed like every game brought in a new team. Some two.

The biggest game of the week was the last one entered. Andy McLaughlin's 2012 Atlanta Falcons defeated the 2013 Green Bay Packers in Dirty Bird Electric Football action. The win gave the Falcons a firmer hold on the number one spot in the rankings. They are also now our only five win team at 5-1, needing just one more win to become the first bowl eligible team in Season II.

Brain Wittkop's Northern Michigan Electric Football League played nine games. Week one of his PAC-10 schedule is now complete, and he has a good start on week two. Colorado, Washington, USC, and UCLA are all 2-0 so far in non-conference games.

Ed's College Football Association had just one game this week, but it was a thriller. LSU defeated Rice with a 20 – 10 come from behind win.

In my MPANMMEFSL the mighty Camp 53 Shays suffered their second straight loss. Wildwood held on for a 24-19 win. The Shays will be the number one seed in the upcoming playoffs. Wildwood needs some help in the last two games of week ten to get the two seed.

Manatredre's Colorado Buffalos fell to 0-2 at the hands of Tennessee in a 28-27 decision.

In Al's WMLMF the Bozo's shocked That '70s Rams Team 45-20 and New Zealand defeated Egypt.

There wasn't much action at the top of the rankings this week so we have a bit of a log jam in the top ten.

1	2012 Atlanta Falcons – AM	Andy McLaughlin	5-1-0	39
2	Kentucky Wildcats – EM	Ed Morgans	2-1-0	25
3	Midwest Mennonites – AD	Al Dunham	3-0-0	24
4	Cleveland Browns – CL	Chris LeMay	2-2-0	24
5	San Francisco Flaming Fairies – AD	Al Dunham	2-1-0	23
6	Kansas Jayhawks – EM	Ed Morgans	1-3-0	23
7	1972 Miami Dolphins – AM	Andy McLaughlin	2-0-0	22
7	Birmingham Americans – CL	Chris LeMay	2-0-1	22
9	Missouri Tigers – EM	Ed Morgans	2-1-0	22
9	Oklahoma Sooners – EM	Ed Morgans	2-1-0	22
9	That 70's Rams Team – AD	Al Dunham	2-1-0	22

As of this morning we already have four more games submitted to start the new week.

Not many pictures from this weeks games have been posted yet, so I'll share this forum link:

Solitaire Has It All

Give it a look and weigh in. Solitaire does have it all and the SCPC gives it even more.

SCPC Weekly Update

Week 15

Sunday, December 8th thru Saturday, December 14th, 2013

SCPC Season II Official Stats:

16 new games this week

11 new teams this week

No new owner/coaches this week

133 total games, 140 different teams, 11 owners/coaches

0 teams eliminated from bowl eligibility

0 bowl eligible teams (six or more wins)

1 five win team still alive

0 four win teams still alive

28 weeks 2 days remaining

A nice weekly total of 16 games was entered this week. That's one of our best weeks so far in Season II. In Season I there were a few weeks in which Mike Veliky entered that many game himself, but so far no Mike in Season II. Everybody likes Mike! Where is he? With the Christmas Holiday and New Year fast approaching we are entering the peak time of year for solitaire play. In Season I the holidays, college bowl season, and some extra days off with family and friends visiting brought about an increase in the games being reported. If Thanksgiving and the weeks following have been any indication this year will be the same. Some big name coaches from Season I have yet to start their new seasons. Veliky I already mentioned. Ray Sugg and his defending champion 1972 Miami Dolphins are on the horizon. The coaches of the Postal League have not yet got going either. Who knows what other new coaches are out there. Season II has a lot of new things yet to come.

One thing that is not new yet is the current number one team. It is still McLaughlin's 2012 Atlanta Falcons with a 4-0 record, and 39 SCPC points. The Falcons' lead was shortened significantly though. What was a 15 point advantage over Morgans' Kentucky Wildcats is now just four points over LeMay's surprising Florida Blazers.

LeMay and his Misses are both convalescing at home. From the pace Chris is entering results that lucky lady is getting to see some great MF action. The LeMay home must be a wonderful place to be this holiday season. Hope both Mr. and Mrs. LeMay heal quickly. In WLAPF action the Oilers defeated the Americans 17 - 14 and the Blazers defeated the Cowboys and the Bills by the same score. These results caused some big movement the rankings bringing three of Chris's teams into the top ten. He now has 5 of the top 10 teams in the land. Chris has a great thread in the forum detailing his current tournament. To catch-up on who's facing elimination over the holidays check it out.

Steady as always Al Dunham played his usual two games this week in the WMLMF. In game one the Third Reich defeated the Weirdwolves 36 - 27. The Cows, whose offense has been udderly non-existent, managed an unusually low scoring 14-7 win over Kansas City. All four teams are now 1-2. Al's Killer Bees sit at game ten and his Mennonites are seventh.

ECFA had just one game this week. Notre Dame defeated Pittsburgh in the first game for both teams. The game was a break from Ed's SEC action. ECFA's Kentucky Wildcats, Ed's only ranked team, slipped from number two to eight. The ECFA forum thread has been updated and explains his current project and long term solitaire plans. Amazing stuff! Check it out!

Charles Angell got a game in this week. Two new CAPEF teams, the Jets and Dolphins did battle, with the Jets winning easily 28-7. The SCPC is waiting for Charles to enter the results of his Father vs. Son Thanksgiving tournament. These games are legal for SCPC play as the teams used were all part of Charles's solitaire league. His boys doing some coaching will earn the winning teams in the tournament some extra points under the Game Scenario Bonus criteria. As always Charles has threads with some of the best pictures you'll see on the forum detailing all his game action.

Brian Wittkopp turned in the biggest week with seven games entered. Arizona defeated Iowa 20 - 10, Stanford bested Purdue 21 - 14, Hawaii won over Oklahoma State 17 - 6, UCLA beat up Wisconsin 21 - 9, Minnesota got past Oregon 24 - 17, while Michigan defeated USC 21 - 7 and Oregon 35 - 7. Brian is playing a Pac-10 season, but the Big 10 teams are doing some damage in non-conference play. Michigan is rolling at 3-0 and are now ranked number three in SCPC Season II rankings. Minnesota, whose only loss last season was to Michigan in a bowl game, always seems to find a way to win, and Purdue, the only team to beat Michigan last year had a close game as well. Michigan and Minnesota both finished 10-1 in the top ten of Season I. I'd sure like to see at least Michigan and Minnesota get a full schedule played again. It doesn't look like the left coast can compete. UCLA, Washington, and Arizona are the only undefeated teams left and Brian is only in week three.

The final two games of the week were a pair of wins for MantarayDre's Colorado Buffalos who are now 2-2 and looking to make a move. Dre is using a very unique fantasy scoring system for his new Major College Bowl Implications League. Plus, he is planning to play the full schedule for one team at a time, beginning with the Buffalos. This will ensure he has teams competing for the SCPC hardware come August. It is a very interesting system and strategy. You can read all about it on the forum.

That's it for week 15. Here's your new top ten. I added a 'Previous Rank' column here. We are working on getting this added to the master ranking page so everyone can see how much movement there is for all teams each week.

Rank	Team Name	Owner	Record	SCPCTotal	Previous Rank

SCPC Weekly Update
Week 16
Sunday, December 15th thru Saturday, December 21th, 2013

SCPC Season II Official Stats:
14 new games this week
6 new teams this week
No new owner/coaches this week
3 new Guest Coaches this week
147 total games, 146 different teams, 11 owners/coaches, 3 Guest Coaches
0 teams eliminated from bowl eligibility
0 bowl eligible teams (six or more wins)
1 five win team still alive
1 four win team still alive

The week before Christmas 2013, may just be my favorite SCPC week to date. Fourteen total games were entered this week. Six new teams entered competition, and we are very near 150 games and teams in Season II. What I'm most excited about though is that we have our first 'Guest' coaches, we have two new sponsors, and the Season I Championship trophies have been very well received..

Andy McLaughlin had what may be the game of the week when Bartkoski and Kilmer stepped in for the two struggling franchises, placing RGIII and Matty Ice both on the bench. If this was not the game of the week it certainly is one of the best forum game summaries of all time. Check it out and see all the rave reviews Andy's work is getting. Game Recap This game was won by the 1980 Falcon's. Andy's 2012 Falcons remain the number one SCPC team in this week's rankings. Way to go Andy! I absolutely love that Lego photo set-up.

In a game with a much less quality recap my Grattan Swamp Loggers won their third straight MPANMMEFSL game to finish the regular season 5-5. They are now 2-0 in SCPC Season II play and ranked # 50. I have one regular season game to go and then a five game playoff that will wrap-up my first full solitaire season in just a little over two years..... Here's my forum thread.

In the sixth round of LeMay's WLAPF tournament the Green Bay Packers defeated the Houston Oilers 34-17. It was the Birmingham Americans over the Buffalo Bills 20 - 6, and the Oakland Raiders pounded the Florida Blazers 35-7. This sets-up the Championship round with the Packers, Raiders, Americans, and Blazers competing for the title. Here is Chris's excellent forum thread for this tournament. Be sure to check out his very nicely done tournament bracket. Chris is dominating the SCPC top ten right now with his final four teams and two eliminated teams all in the top ten. I'd have to think the winner of this final round will sit atop the SCPC soon.

Charles Angel provided us with a C_A_Panther EF first with the results of his Angel Family Thanksgiving Tournament this week. Charles was not originally aware that games like these, played head-to-head with his boys coaching teams from his solitaire league, were eligible for the SCPC. They are though. Charles entered all four of them this week, but they were actually played on Thanksgiving weekend. Charles' Rams came out on top defeating both the Boston Patriots, coached by Seth, and the Pittsburgh Steelers, coached by Logan. When the Patriots met the Steelers Seth came out on top defeating brother Logan 22-7. I thought there was a thread with this action on the forum, but I couldn't find it this morning. With the big wins Charles' Rams are now the #11 team in our rankings. Welcome to the SCPC as 'guest' coaches Seth and Logan.

Brian Wittkop turned in another five games this week from his Pac-10 NMEFL seasons. Hawaii defeated UNC 20-13, Colorado won 21-7 over Arkansas, and ASU beat PSU 13-10. Our third guest coach ran the show for the final two NMEFL games this week. Brian's grandson, Morgan Wittkop, coached the Stanford Cardinal to a pair of wins. First Morgan led the Cardinal to a 23-14 victory over the Miami Hurricanes followed by a 27-14 beating of VaTech. Welcome aboard Morgan. Your coaching put Grandpa's Stanford team in the # 17 spot this week. Check out all the NMEFL action here at Brian's web site.

That's all the action for week 16.

In other SCPC news there are some great pics on the forum of last years Champions with their hardware and several posts with big news regarding SCPC SCBCS games for Season II. Here are the links:

So, why was this last week possibly my favorite SCPC week ever? Guest coaches, trophies, and sponsors. The emergence of guest coaches, the celebration of Season I trophies, and two new sponsors are all signs that the SCPC is having its intended effect on MF, is becoming part of the MF/EF landscape, and is continuing to grow. Not bad for one week!

Now, all I want for Christmas is play some solitaire MF. Merry Christmas.

The Dirty Bird Electric Football League features various Atalanta Falcons teams and great Lego photo ops!

Goooooooooooo morning solitaire fans! Welcome to the week 17 SCPC update on the final Sunday in 2013, December 29th. The SCPC hopes everyone had a fabulous Christmas. Clearly, six individuals had a great holiday as they were able to play some solitaire MF. Plus, they entered their game results in the SCPC. The results of this week's sixteen contests gave us the biggest shake-up in the standings so far in Season II. We have our first bowl eligible team and have five others knocking on the door. We are within a month of the halfway point in Season II and the post-season is just beginning to take shape. Finally, we have a new number one team. After a number of weeks at the top Andy McLaughlin's Dirty Birds of 2012 have been knocked out of the number one spot in the rankings. The owner of the new number one team not only has the number one team, but is dominating the top ten as completely as anyone ever has. He is a total and complete 'fanatic'!

Mantaraydre's Christmas wish came true when his Colorado Buffalos defeated the Aztecs of San Diego State 28-0. The win got the Buffs to a winning mark at after dropping their first two games of the year. Colorado is now 3-2 and just outside the top ten at number eleven. Dre posted a report card for the Buffalos so we can all see how his unique scoring system is playing out. Now you can fill in the SCPC Rank section Dre. Go Buffs!

Andy McLaughlin's Dirty Birds are no longer number 1, but I'm sure he'll have them back on the gridiron soon. In Dirty Bird EFL holiday action the 1970 San Francisco 49ers drop two games. They lost to the 1970 Rams 17-14 and the 1973 Vikings 21-17. Here is Andy's totally awesome game post for the Rams vs. 49ers. I just love the opening shots Andy does for each game. What does your Viking look like?

I'm pretty excited to have finally completed the regular season in MPANMEFSL. In the final game the Plum Creek Pioneers took care of business against the Caldwell Busties 28-6. Playoffs start today I hope.

Brian Wittkop's NMEFL had one result this week. The Colorado Buffalos doubled up Georgia 26-13. Brian's Buffalos are now 4-0, closing in on the top ten, and are just two wins away from bowl eligibility. Just a reminder to be checking the forum for the results of Brian's annual Floral Bowl later this week. I believe Brian has played this game to start the new year for over thirty years now. That's awesome!

Al used the holidays to more than double up his usual two games and reported five this week. The Toxic Waste defeated the Bozos 35-32. Simpson went nuts and some idiot put him on his fantasy bench. The Moon Sharks defeated their fellow Munich team, the Third Reich, 45-42. Orr Bitz went nuts and some idiot put him on his fantasy bench. The Cows took out the upstart Fire Lizards 42-35. Stan finally had a decent game and got the Cow offense going. At least some idiot didn't bench Stan too. The Zombies jacked up the Union Jacks 42-35 and the Cadavers sent the Cherokee home on a trail of tears 24-18. The Cadavers are now 4-0 and in the top ten at number nine. Great stuff Al. Could I make a few mid-week line-up changes? All Al's WMLMF action, game and fantasy results, is on the forum.

The fantasy man of the week, the king of Christmas solitaire, a complete efffanatic, Chris LeMay wrapped up his awesome WLAPF AB I Tournament. Some older game results were Florida 12 Memphis 9, Raiders 17 Packers 7, and Blazers 17 Bills 14. In the AFL/WFL Championship game the Raiders pummeled Birmingham 35 - 7. In the NFL/WFL Championship game the Packers got past the Blazers 35-28. In the American Bowl Championship the Raiders 'Just Won Baby' over the Packers 29-21. With the championship for the Raiders take over the number one ranking in the SCPC. Oakland is 5-1-2 and has a whopping twenty-five point lead on the number two Blazers. The Blazers however, at 6-2-1 and are the SCPC Season II's first bowl eligible team. Chris now has six of the top ten teams. The question now is, with his broken arm healed up enough to go back to work, his tournament done, and gridiron games dancing in his head, what's next for the efffanatic?

That's a wrap on week seventeen. The first week of 2014 is guaranteed to bring something new.

Here's the week's top ten.

Week 18

Sunday, December 29th thru Saturday, January 4th, 2014

SCPC Season II Official Stats:

14 new games this week

8 new teams this week

No new owner/coaches this week

No new Guest Coaches this week

177 total games, 157 different teams, 11 owners/coaches, 3 Guest Coaches

0 teams eliminated from bowl eligibility

? four win team still alive

25 weeks 2 days remaining

Let's begin this week in the Northern Michigan Electric Football League where the most dominant teams from last season's Big Ten schedule continued their dominance. Minnesota handled Cal 24 – 7 and Michigan blanked Arizona 30 – 0. The only West Coast winner this week was Hawaii 21 – 17 over Colorado. Hawaii sits at # 23 in the rankings with a 4-0 record. Michigan with the same record of 4 – 0, thanks to their huge margins of victory and quality win bonus points (they are beating good teams) is at # 4.

In the Dirty Bird Electric Football League the 1972 Monsters of the Midway defeated Green Bay's 2013 club 21 – 7 and the 2013 Philadelphia Eagles were one better than the 2012 Saints, 15-14. None of those teams are factoring into the higher rankings yet. Andy's former # 1, the 2012 Atlanta Falcons have not played in a while, and have slipped down to # 7.

C A Panther Electric Football had a blowout game bigger than Michigan's win over Arizona in the NMEFL. Green Bay destroyed Atlanta 38 – 0. The CAPEF Bears got another Monster of the Midway win too 31 – 24 over the Giants. The Packers are now 4 – 0 and cracked the top ten at # 10 this week.

In Minnesota's Park Avenue Nine-Man Miniature Electric Football Solitaire League play-off action the Bears of Northome defeated the team from Caldwell 9 – 3. The Bears are MPANMMEFSL's highest ranked team right now at # 44.

That's three wins this week for 'Bears' teams!

ECFA action this week saw new comer to SCPC Season II Texas A & M defeated fellow new member Boston College 31 – 23. A third newby, Alabama defeated Mississippi 17 – 10. New teams don't rank very high initially. Ed's top team is the # 20 Kentucky Wildcats.

After wrapping up the World League of American Professional Football American Bowl I Tournament Chris LeMay had a consolation match-up in which the Birmingham Americans defeated the Florida Blazers 34 – 31. Ironically, the two teams previously played to a scoreless tie. In a SCPC first Chris put together a team of all starts from his World League teams. The WFL All-Stars took on the WLAPF AB Champion Oakland Raiders. The Raiders proved themselves yet again, winning over the All-Stars 28 – 21. Great idea Chris. The Raiders are at # 1 for a second consecutive week. Chris owns six of the SCPC's top ten teams. In addition, Oakland is the SCPC Season II's first bowl eligible team*.

*Due some data entry errors last week some of Chris's teams had incorrect standings and rankings last week. Everything is fixed up now. Sorry Chris.*

The Western Michigan League of Miniature Football rolled on with the Pacific Sharks winners over Egypt 38 – 35 and the Arctic Tundra defeating Kansas City 31 – 6. The Mennonites are Al's top team at # 8. His Cadavers are at # 10. The Tundra are sitting at # 12, but they as well fell prey to a data entry error. When corrected the Tundra will receive one additional point which will bump them into the top ten sliding the Cadavers down. Sorry Al.

Here's the week's top twelve exclusive of the Tundra correction.

On The Move: Pacific Sharks (AD) # 14, Hawaii Rainbows (BW) # 23

I apologize for the update being late this week. The data errors were a bit of a bugge to fix, and now that Christmas break is over life got real again;O)

The Northern Michigan Electric Football League wrapped up week four with five games this week. UCLA blanked K State 20 – 0, USC ended the Irish's luck 31 – 17, the Ducks were ten better than the Scarlet Knights 24 – 14, ASU defeated Ole Miss 21 – 13, and Washington won over FSU 26 – 14. UCLA, Washington*, Colorado, and Hawaii are all 4-0 now. UCLA entered the top ten at # 9, Colorado is #20, Hawaii # 23, and Washington # 33, but the top ranked NMEFL team is still Michigan, also 4 – 0, at # 4. The Pac-10 should enter conference play in week 5, but Brian Wittkop announced that Michigan will continue playing as well. The Wolverines were an upset loss away from going undefeated last year. Their loss to Purdue likely cost them a shot at the SCPC National Title.

*Brain, check the Washington page. I only have three games recorded for them. What game is missing?

The Major Bowl Implications Electric Football League's Colorado Buffalos ran their record to 4 – 2 with a big win over Ole Miss, 39 – 6. The win moved the Buffalos into the top ten at # 8. Up next in MBIEFL action is Colorado vs. USC.

After wrapping up the league championship in American Bowl I, the Oakland Raiders defeated the WFL All-Stars in the first of a three game All-Star Series. This week they took down the NFL All-Stars 25 – 15, and played to a 34 – 34 tie with the AFL All-Stars. The Raiders remain the # 1 team in the land at 7 – 1 – 3. The eleventh game does not add SCPC points to the Raiders' total of 98, which is forty more than the second ranked team. How long will the Raiders hold the top spot? Unless Chris plays a bunch of games with the teams Oakland defeated, earning them more QWB points it's not a matter of if, but when they will be passed up.

One of the favorites to catch LeMay's Raiders will be whoever becomes the champion of Dream Season II. Last year the Dream Season champ was also the SCPC Champion. Ray Sugg's Chamion 1972 Miami Dolphins haven't taken the field yet, but Dream Season II is underway. The 1969 Chiefs defeated the 1970 Colts 28 – 7 and the 1976 Oakland Raiders won over the 1968 New York Jets 21 – 14. Maybe the Raiders will catch the Raiders. It sure will be fun following along to see how the top Dream Season teams do in SCPC Season II. Welcome back Ray.

Former # 1, the Dirty Bird Electric Football League's 2012 Atlanta Falcons, got back on the field this week. They defeated the 2013 Carolina Panthers 27 – 14. The win keeps the Falcons at # 7, but their 6 – 1 record makes them the second bowl eligible team.

C A Panther Electric Football had one game this week. The Bills defeated the Jets 21 – 17. The Bills are now 2 – 0.

The first round of play-offs wrapped up in Minnesota's Park Avenue Nine-Man Miniature Electric Football Solitaire League with a 10 – 9 win for the Grattan Swamp Loggers over the Wildwood Woodsmen. Grattan is now 3 – 0 in SCPC games. They have won four consecutive games overall.

Here's the week's top ten.

Chris LeMay's Raiders have a huge lead on the rest of the pack. A number of undefeated teams are well below them. This is simply because of the number of games they have played, and the number of games the teams they defeated have played and won. Teams from leagues that play schedules, and whose owners play multiple games each week, tend to jump out early as they get more QWB points. Teams from tournaments catch-up as their QWB points don't come until the end of the tournament when they play other teams with multiple wins. Teams like Dre's Buffalos and Andy's Falcons will have a smaller total initially because the teams they are playing have mostly only played one game. As other teams play more games teams like these will start earning QWB points and close the gap on # 1. Don't let the rankings fool you. There are some really good teams slowly climbing the ranks. LeMay's Raiders won't stay on top all season.

Who's going to catch them?

Dream Season II is underway.

SCPC Weekly Update

Week 20

Sunday, January 12th thru Saturday, January 18th, 2014

SCPC Season II Official Stats:

13 new games this week

5 new teams this week

No new owner/coaches this week

No new Guest Coaches this week

203 total games, 173 different teams, 12 owners/coaches, 3 Guest Coaches

0 teams eliminated from bowl eligibility
 2 bowl eligible teams (six or more wins)
 3 five win team still alive
 9 four win team still alive
 23 weeks 2 days remaining

On the weekend before TudorCon14 the SCPC had another week with thirteen new games. Thirteen seems to be our favorite number. This week's games pushed the challenge past the 200 game mark in Season II. We're a little bit behind last year's pace. In Season I we hit 200 games on January 4th. We hit 300 on January 29th. The missing games are those of Mike Velikey and his awesome North Jersey Legends league. Where are you Mike?

Week twenty of Season II had some big occurrences on the electric gridiron.

Brian Wittkop and his NMELF are a mainstay week in and week out so far this season. He turned another seven game week. Six were played this week and included USC over Stanford 21 – 17, UCLA over Hawaii in a battle of undefeated teams 28 – 21, and Washington beating Arizona 21 – 10. Washington had a win over Tennessee that was not recorded a few weeks ago that is now accounted for. Colorado remained undefeated with a 20 – 14 win over ASU, and Cal took care of the Ducks 17 – 14. In the upset of the week the mighty Wolverines fell to the Hoosiers 28 – 24. Just like last year, a seemingly invincible Michigan team looks over a team from the Hoosier state. Last year it was Purdue. With the loss Michigan jumps up to # 2 in the rankings It will be hard for them to stay there now though. They may not see many more QWB points this season as the rest of their games will have to be played against teams who are not playing a full schedule this year. Is that accurate Brain? Who knows though. Maybe a one loss team can sneak into the BCS. It has happened you know;O) Brian's Pac-10 teams are steadily climbing too with three now in the top ten. UCLA, Washington, and Colorado, all undefeated at 5-0, sit in the # 8, # 9, and # 10 spots. All three will look to move closer to the top and become bowl eligible with another win.

Another game that was missed a few weeks ago was out of ECFA. Alabama defeated Vanderbilt 31 – 10. Ed has been quit lately as has LeMay. I'm sure they are both sooooo busy packing for TudorCon as they both are attending. Maybe we'll get some SCPC 'challenge' games out of these guys at the convention. (SUBTLE HINT)

Dream Season II had just one game this week, but it was a big one as the defending SCPC National Champion 1972 Miami Dolphins got off on the right foot in Season II with a 21 – 10 win over the 1975 Steelers. The champs have a long view to the top of the heap from their debut ranking at # 96, but we know from last season that whoever lives the dream in a Ray Sugg Dream Season can also dream big in the SCPC. '

WMLMF action this week saw Lynn's Weirdwoves sting the bees 42 – 28. That 70's Rams Team spanked the Fairies, and they liked it, 42 – 35, and the Sasquatch took a big step in defeating the Mennonites soundly 52 – 26. No WMLMF teams have climbed back into the top ten, but Al has squads at numbers 11, 12, 15, 16, 18, and 20. With the size of Al's league his teams don't race to the top, but rest assured the best WMLMF teams will factor in next summer.

The Dirty Bird Electric Football League's 2012 Falcons continued their quest to get back to #1 with a 28 – 13 win over the 2012 Seahawks. The win got them back to the top five. They will need some QWB points to get back to the top though.

Here's the week's top ten.

Dropped Out: Midwest Mennonites (AD)

On the Move: Canadian Sasquatch (AD), 1972 Miami Dolphins (RS)

Chris LeMay's Raiders still have that huge lead on the rest of the pack. It will sure be interesting to see how this plays out as several owners/coaches are employing different strategies to get teams to the ten game max. Some are playing the traditional league schedule or tournament formats, while others have adopted unique formats that allow single teams to play out their ten games more quickly.

How will it all play out?

For all of you going to TudorCon14 have a marvelous, wonderful, inspirational, and unforgettable time. In other words, 'I can't go and you all suck! I'm so jealous it hurts me to even think about it!' With that in mind please post to the forum all weekend with updates on the action, reviews of the exciting new products, and possibly even a little pity for us non-attendees.

Greisy to Warfield to start the Dreampete for Miami.

The big weekend has come and, as I type, almost went. I'm sure a grand time was had by all at TudorCon14, and I can't wait to hear all about it, learn about Tudor's new products, and find out what will be next from Tudor. Very exciting!

In the SCPC results this week you can certainly tell who is not in Philly. Us poor shlubs may be at home, but we played some MEF all right. Six of the week twenty-two's sixteen games were completed on the 24th and 25th. One of them, a win by Dre's Colorado team, was played at the convention against Chris LeMay's alma mater the LCHS Wildcats. Overall it was a great week of solitaire MEF.

The pace of NMEFL slowed slightly this week.. Brian reported four games. <http://nmeffl.webs.com/> USC defeated Oregon 24 – 7, UCLA was better than Stanford 23 – 16, Colorado took care of conference whipping boy Cal 27 – 20, and a Rainbow was seen over Arizona 24 – 16. UCLA, now bowl eligible at 6 – 0, crept up to the number 3 ranking. They are now just four points behind fellow NMEFL powerhouse from the Big House, Michigan. Colorado is also now bowl eligible at 6 – 0 and cracked the top ten in this week's ranking. Brain also has the number 11 (USC), 13 (Washington), 14 (Hawaii), and 20 (Stanford) teams. Cal at number 42 is now 1 – 4 and better get some game or they will become the first team eliminated from bowl contention in SCPC Season II. Great stuff Brian!

Dream Season II had just one dream this week. The 1989 49ers couldn't recreate the dream finish known as 'The Catch' as they fell to the 1977 'Hail Mary' dream finish club, the 1977 Dallas Cowboys, 24 – 21.

CAPanther Electric Football country experienced some foul weather this week giving Charles some extra time off from work. He apparently enjoyed the respite playing eight solitaire MEF games. The first four were the culmination of the Legends Tournament. The next four were the beginning of the Legends II Tournament. The Chargers earned a spot in the final four of the Legends tournament with a 21 – 10 win over Houston. The Bills put an end to the Chargers' season in the semi-final 28 – 14. The Packers and Bears played in the other semi-final. Green Bay advanced to face Buffalo in the final with a 24 – 21 win over Chicago. In the Legends Tournament Championship Game the Packers doubled up the Bills 28 – 14. The Legends II Tournament has a very cool set up in which the actual rankings from 1968 are being used to set the match-ups. Each division will crown a winner via a bottom to top system. Games started with the bottom two teams in the Capital Division. Washington defeated Philadelphia 17 – 14. Washington advanced to face division runner-up New York. The Giants won 21 – 17 earning them the right to play Dallas for a spot in the next round. Dallas's defense was too strong as they defeated the Giants 14 – 3. In the opening Coastal Division game the 49ers defeated Atlanta 27 – 21 in overtime. All that CAPEF action created some movement in the rankings. The Legends Champion Packers are sitting at #7, and are now 6 – 0 and bowl eligible. The Bills are also top twenty at number sixteen and Charles's Rams are 3 – 0 after winning the Angle Family Holiday Tournament back in December. All three teams, the Packers, Bills, and Rams, are in the Legends II Tournament and will be moving up the rankings quickly if they can advance. Awesome tournament concept Charles!

Dirty Bird Electric Football just keeps cranking out Atlanta Falcons wins. This week it was the 1972 version of the Dirty Birds besting the 1987 St. Louis Cardinals 21 – 13. The 2012 Falcons are ranked # 6 with a 7 – 1 record. The win was the second for the '72 team who, along with the '80 team, are now 2 – 0. I believe there is a Dirty Bird conspiracy forming in the South. They are going to attempt to take over the entire SCPC with Dirty Birds in every bowl game.

MPANMMEFSL played the first of it's semi-final playoff games. The Northome Bears defeated the Plum Creek Pioneers 12 – 6. Northome is now 3 – 1 in SCPC Season II play, 7 – 5 overall, and will face the winner of Grattan vs. Camp 53 in the final.

Finally, the Major Bowl Implications Solitaire League took the show on the road to TudorCon14. Mantaraydre and Chris LeMay played a challenge game between Dre's Colorado Buffalos and LeMays alma mater LCHS Wildcats. Colorado won the game 14 – 7. Dre's Buffs are now 5 – 2 and ranked #11.

What a great week!

SCPC Weekly Update

Week 22

Sunday, January 26th thru Saturday, February 1st, 2014

SCPC Season II Official Stats:

11 new games this week

7 new teams this week

No new owner/coaches this week

No new Guest Coaches this week

230 total games, 187 different teams, 12 owners/coaches, 3 Guest Coaches

0 teams eliminated from bowl eligibility

6 bowl eligible teams (six or more wins)

4 five win team still alive

4 four win team still alive

21 weeks 2 days remaining

As the SCPC passed the halfway point of Season II, a bit of a lull hit the solitaire world. It could be that TudorCon hype caused a bit of a let down in the week following. It could be that the Super Bowl is today. Either way, despite the little lull, it's an exciting time in the world of Miniature Electric Football. With the coming and going of TudorCon there is a lot of excitement – a buzz even – in the air. When will the SCPC see the first Invisabases take to the solitaire field? When will we get to play on the new game boards? Maybe today, as part of Super Bowl festivities, we'll get off to a big start, and turn in a record setting SCPC week.

Here we go with week 22 results.

The NMEFL had a double header this week. Washington continued their winning ways, 24 – 16 over Arizona State. Michigan bounced back from a deflating loss, taking their frustrations out on Iowa, 28 – 7. The win puts Michigan one win away from gaining bowl eligibility and moves them up to the # 2 spot in the rankings. Washington is now bowl eligible at 6 – 0 and sits at # 8.

Dream Season II put some Black-and-Blue Division teams on the field this week. Lombardi's 1966 Packers took care of Parcell's 1986 Giants 10 – 7. Ditka's 1985 Bears easily defeated the Joe Gibbs coached 1982 Redskins 24 – 7.

The Legends II Tournament rolled along. The Lions joined the ranks of division champions with three big wins this week, 27 – 21 over Green Bay, 20 – 7 over Chicago, and 14 – 10 over Minnesota. The Colts also took care of the Rams 20 – 17. I believe this gives the Colts a division title as well, but I think we're missing a game here..... The losses by the Packers and Rams take a little bit of momentum away from CAPEF teams in the top ten, but the Lions debut at # 17. ATTN Charles – Looking at your forum thread it looks like you need to report the Rams over 49ers game. I don't have that one in the data base.

Dirty Bird Electric Football action saw the highly ranked 2012 Falcons get a win over the 1990 Bills 14 – 7. The win moves the Falcons to # 3 in the rankings. At 8 – 1 the Falcons get just one more SCPC game. Then it will be up to the teams they've defeated to get wins, earning them more bonus points, to try and push them over the top. http://www.miniaturefootball.com/forum/showthread.php?29104-DBEFL-2013-2014-\(Dirty-Bird-Electric-Football-League\))

Al reported two WMLMF games. London defeated Egypt 28 – 21 and Kansas City pulled off a major upset 31 – 28 over the Sasquatch. It was just the second win for both London and Kansas City. Egypt is now 0 – 5! The Sasquatch will feel that loss in both the WMLF Paranormal Division and the SCPC Rankings.

SCPC Weekly Update

Week 23

Sunday, February 2nd thru Saturday, February 8th, 2014

SCPC Season II Official Stats:

20 new games this week

18 new teams this week

1 new owner/coaches this week

No new Guest Coaches this week

250 total games, 215 different teams, 13 owners/coaches, 3 Guest Coaches

0 teams eliminated from bowl eligibility

8 bowl eligible teams (six or more wins)

2 five win team still alive

6 four win team still alive

20 weeks 2 days remaining

Week 23 in the SCPC's second season was a big one. Twenty new games this week is a Season II high, passing the previous busiest week, 13, by three games. What put this week over the top? That's easy. Mike Velikey and his North Jersey Legends Miniature Football League are back up and running. It's awesome to have you back Mike. We missed your Super Bowl tournaments, and great game write-ups on the forum. It will be fun to watch Mike's teams begin to climb up the rankings in the coming weeks.

The Legends II Tournament out of the CAPEF rolled on. The Rams defeated the 49ers 21 – 13, but went on to loss to the division champion Colts (The Rams/49ers game was played earlier, but not entered till this week.). I current games the Steelers crushed the Saints 21 – 17, but then lost to the Cardinals 28 – 17. The Cards will now face the top seeded Browns for the Century Division title. Charles's Packers are still in the top ten, but are already out of this current tournament. The Lions knocked the Packers out, and are the highest ranked CAPEF team still playing, but things are just getting rolling in the Legends II tournament. Somebody will rise up. Who?

NMEFL teams were very busy this week and are now dominating the rankings with five teams in the top ten, four of whom are in the top five. On the field this week USC defeated Hawaii 22 – 21, ASU was ten better than the Ducks 27 – 17, Colorado won over Stanford 27 – 21, UCLA took care of Arizona 24 – 10, Washington doubled up Cal 26 – 13, as did Michigan, 24 – 12 over Penn State. Michigan sits at # 2 now with UCLA, Washington, and USC right behind them in the three, four, and five spots. One of these teams will catch LeMay's top ranked Raiders. It's just a matter of time and which one. I predict the Wolverines will begin to fall as they are now seeing fewer QWBP as a result of playing other Big Ten teams who have not played very many games. Whoever comes out on top out west will be a factor in both the Unlimited Division and the National Championship chase.

Two more WMLMF games this week saw the Toxic Waste waste (too easy) the Flaming Fairies 42 – 28. The Fairies prefer spankings to being wasted, but both are nice too (risky). One of Al's most popular and consistent teams, That 70's Rams Team went into South Park and tipped the Cows over 49 – 28. Al's Rams players are great performers in his fantasy league fantasy league. Stan, the Cows' QB was top dog last year, but is really just being a complete misfit this year. That 70's Rams are now the WMLMF's top ranked team at # 15, and may be the league's best shot at SCPCBCS glory. The Cadavers are undefeated at 4 – 0, but have really played no one of consequence and will likely falter when they face the top teams. The Mennonites and Killer Bees are both teams to keep an eye on as well. *Al already has the first two games of week 24 entered.

Dirty Bird Electric Football suffered a rare and stunning loss by an Atlanta Falcons team. The 1972 Dirty Birds weren't quite dirty enough in a 33 – 27 loss to the 2012 Redskins. The '72 Falcons are now 2 – 1. The 2012 DB's are still ranked in the top ten. With just one more SCPC game available they will need the teams they've defeated to start playing and winning games to have chance in the Box Stock Division that LeMay's # 1 Raiders currently lead.

That brings us to Mike Velikey and the NJLMFL. All 3.3 Box Stock teams are now on high alert. With eight games already in it's just a matter of time until some of Mike Legends are knocking on the door of the top ten. This young man can crank out solitaire games in a hurry, and the winners of his incredible Super Bowl tournaments are always near the top of the rankings. In NJLMFL action this week it was: Baltimore 15 Houston 13, Virginia 24 Cleveland 7, Miami 31 Denver 10, New Jersey 14 Buffalo 13, San Francisco 17 Montreal 9, Arizona 13 Memphis 10, Charleston 13 Dallas 10 OT, and Daytona 9 Columbus 6. Daytona defeating Columbus is a major upset. Columbus was the defending NJLMFL Champions and finished SCPC Season I ranked # 17.

There you have it. Sorry this one is a few days late. I'll have to be on my toes to keep up now. There is a buzz in the air and I sense big things coming in the SCPC.

Here's the week's top ten.

SCPC Weekly Update

Week 24

Sunday, February 9th thru Saturday, February 15th, 2014

SCPC Season II Official Stats:

22 new games this week

8 new teams this week

0 new owner/coaches this week

No new Guest Coaches this week

272 total games, 213 different teams (Last week was a typo. Should have been 205.), 13 owners/coaches, 3 Guest Coaches

10 bowl eligible teams (six or more wins)

0 five win teams still alive

9 four win teams still alive

4 teams eliminated from bowl eligibility (five or more losses)

19 weeks 2 days remaining

Al Dunahm turned in the first games of week 24. His WMLMF is nearing the halfway point of the season as week five moves on. The Zombies sent the Cherokee Nation further down the Trail of Tears 24 – 21. Kalamazoo would have no part of a lunar landing 24 – 17 over Munich's Moon Sharks. The Bees are now 4 – 1 and are Al's top buzz at # 17. The Fire Lizards melted the Tundra 41 – 26. In what Al called 'the biggest blowout in WMLMF history' the Weirdwolves took advantage of six Mennonite turnovers en route to a 63 – 14 route. The win may have saved the Werewolf season and set the Mennonites to prayer for theirs. Both squads are now 3 – 2. The Rams still look like the team to beat, but the untested Cadavers are the only undefeated in the league.

The Legends II Tournament is nearing its crescendo. The Browns won the Century Division championship with a 28 – 21 win over the Cardinals. In the NFL semi-final round the Browns will face the Cowboys and the Colts will take on the Lions. In the AFL the Broncos defeated San Diego 30 – 24, and the Chiefs took down Cincinnati 14 – 0 setting up a head-to-head meeting between the two winners. When the two teams squared off the Broncos came out on top 20 – 17. Denver's run came to a screeching halt however at the hands of the Raiders 17 – 3. With the win the Raiders win the AFL West and advance to the AFL Championship where they will face the winner of the AFL East..

WLAPF AB II kicked off with two new World Division teams going at it. The New York Stars rang the Philadelphia Bell 21 – 17. Nice looking teams Chris.

NJLMFL is off and running in the Super Bowl tournament. Last week the Cannons defeated the Wranglers 20 – 17 and the Giants won over the Bandits 21 – 17. Mike reported that the Giant's win came on the final play of the game when Phil Simms hit Amani Toomer on a thirty-five yard game winning touchdown strike.

ECFA got a challenge game in last week. Ed's Ol' Miss Rebels defeated LeMay's Vandt team 38 – 20. Ed reported that this was a challenge game in the forum, but I didn't catch that when entering games this morning. It is in the database as Ed's Vanderbilt team. Sorry, I'll fix it ASAP, but I still need Corey's brain to do such technical things within the database. I hope to catch-up to him this evening.

The NMEFL continued its intense pace with another six games this week that separated the men from the boys. Two of the three undefeated teams fell. UCLA stayed undefeated and moved into the lead out west and # 2 in the SCPC as a result of knocking off previously undefeated Washington 28 -20. USC took care of Colorado, who came in undefeated, 24 – 21. Cal took out Arizona. Hawaii was one better than Oregon, and young Morgan Wittkop coached Grandpa's Stanford Cardinal to a win over ASU. Michigan remained the pride of the mid-west with a blowout win over in state rival MSU. The NMEFL now has the #'s 2 (UCLA), 3 (Michigan), 4 (USC), and 5 (Colorado & Washington) teams in the land. Arizona, Arizona State, and Hawaii are all in the top twenty as well. I believe there are just two weeks remaining on the schedule. Somebody from the NMEFL is destined to take over number one soon. Who's it going to be?

Dirty Bird Electric Football put the 1989 San Francisco 49ers up against the 2012 Seattle Seahawks. The Niners prevailed 21 – 17.

Dream Season II got week two underway with the Raiders from 1976 winning over the Colts from 1970, 28 – 7.

Mantaraydre's MBIMFL got over it's TudorCon hangover and put it's Colorado Buffalos into the postseason with a 40 – 14 thumping of USC. The Buffs are now 6 – 2, leading the SCPC Unlimited Division at # 12 in the rankings. Now that they are bowl eligible their sights are set on gaining a SCPCBCS bid in the Unlimited title game next summer.

That's it. Twenty-two games this week makes a second consecutive Season II high. Things are really rolling now. What I like even more than twenty-two games is that nine coaches entered results.

There is a lot of buzz around the SCPC recently. Chris and I have both had contact with solitaire players planning to join in, hopefully in the near future. Inquiries from these coaches has sparked some great conversation about the SCPC going forward. The SCPC is getting bigger and better each and every week. It's going to keep doing just that until it is synonymous with Miniature Electric Football. The SCPC is going to be HUGE!

Here's the week's top ten.

SCPC Weekly Update

Week 25

Sunday, February 15th thru Saturday, February 22nd, 2014

SCPC Season II Official Stats:

12 new games this week

5 new teams this week

0 new owner/coaches this week

No new Guest Coaches this week

284 total games, 218 different teams, 13 owners/coaches, 3 Guest Coaches
 10 bowl eligible teams (six or more wins)
 2 five win teams still alive
 8 four win teams still alive
 4 teams eliminated from bowl eligibility (five or more losses)
 18 weeks 2 days remaining

What a crazy week! Only 12 games were reported in the 25th week of the SCPC's second season, but they were some big games that will have a lasting impact on the rankings down the stretch. We have a new #1 ranked team that actually lost for the first time this week, and there were a number of other upsets.

The NJLMFL reported two games. Oakland defeated San Antonio 24 – 20. Raiders QB Ken Stabler threw 3 touchdown passes including a 35 yard strike to Cliff Branch on the final play of the game. Los Angeles was better than Boston by a score of 14 – 6. Mike noted that the Rams' defense was dominating. If I recall correctly this is a bit of an upset as Boston typically gets a few wins before being knocked out of NFLMFL Super Bowl tournaments. It will take Mike a while to complete the early rounds of the tournament, but once he does there will be some NJLMFL teams climbing their way towards the top.

Angel's Legends II Tournament ticked along with two more games as well. The first was Buffalo 28 Houston 14. The second finished Miami 10 Boston 3. Buffalo and Miami will now face one another with the winner to play the Jets for the AFL East title. Angel's Packers are out of this tournament and dropped out of the top ten this week. Buffalo, and several other surviving teams in the Legends II tournament, are in good shape though. One of them will soon replace the Peckers (not a typo) in the top ten.

Dirty Bird Electric Football saw yet another Falcon win. This week it was the 1980 version of the Dirty Birds over the 1965 Chargers 28 – 13. The Chargers are now the league's oldest team. The 1980 Falcons are now 3 – 0. The 2012 bunch is still top dog with an 8 – 1 mark, but they've dropped to # 10 in the rankings. I wonder if Andy will ever do a Dirty Bird vs. Dirty Bird game?

MPANMEFSL wrapped up it's second semi-final. The hottest team in the league, Grattan, couldn't get their 5th consecutive win over the team with the best record in the league, Camp 53. The Shays won the game 8 – 3 and will now face the Northome Bears for the Championship of Nine-Man MEF. Northome, 3 – 1, is now in the best shape of Gross's teams to emerge as a top team in the SCPC.

NMEFL provided the most games, the most shake-up, the new # 1, and the biggest upsets in quite some time. Stanford staved off elimination from bowl eligibility by handing Washington their second straight loss 23 – 20. Hawaii, as expected, was 27 – 13 better than Cal. Michigan moved to 8 – 1 with a 31 – 21 win over Northwestern. Although not an upset by any means for Michigan to give up 21 points to anyone is surprising. If they had shut Northwestern down like they do most team the Wolverines would be # 1. As it is they are # 2 again. Colorado defeated Arizona 28 – 14. The Bufts rebounded from their only loss of the season to USC and now are in the top five, and have a shot at the top spot in the conference and the SCPC thanks to two huge upsets. In the first USC, the team that beat Colorado last week, fell to Arizona State. ASU, like Stanford, avoid a postseason elimination fifth loss by upsetting the Trojans 28 – 24. In the shocker of all shockers the Oregon Ducks, 2 – 6 coming in, knocked off the last undefeated team in the West. The Ducks scored 27 points and held the powerful UCLA offense to 21. The loss by UCLA opens the door for either Michigan or Colorado. Despite the loss the Bruins are the new # 1 team in the land. Along with Michigan, # 2, they are the first teams to reach triple digits in SCPC points. With just one game remaining for each of Wittkop's Left Coast teams, and Michigan, we'll soon know how high the bar for # 1 will be set.

Here's the top ten:

In other SCPC related news Al Dunham is banging the drum for the start of a second Postal League Season. So far only four teams are signed up. The Postal League is a lot of fun! It will run much more smoothly this year. Consider jumping in. If things go as planned all Postal League teams will get a ten game schedule in before the end of the SCPC regular season.

The survey that is being conducted is being well received. So far we have 40 responses. Some interesting things are coming out. The results will be shared once we let it run a little longer to get any more responses out there. The clear, and largest problem, in the world of Solitaire MEF is that LeMay is a boob, and along with his minions: Gross, Dunham, and Morgans, LeMay is attempting a takeover of the free world.

SCPC Weekly Update

Week 26

Sunday, February 22nd thru Saturday, March 1st, 2014

SCPC Season II Official Stats:

12 new games this week

4 new teams this week

1 new owner/coaches this week

No new Guest Coaches this week

296 total games, 223 different teams, 14 owners/coaches, 3 Guest Coaches

12 bowl eligible teams (six or more wins)

1 five win teams still alive

8 four win teams still alive

4 teams eliminated from bowl eligibility (five or more losses)

17 weeks 2 days remaining

The last week of February was not the busiest week of SCPC action ever, but it was a significant week. Three 'headline' worthy occurrences took place. The first you may have noted in the SCPC Stats section above. The second you probably noticed right away if you've been on the rankings page in the last day or so. The third you'll note the next time you go to the rankings page. Otherwise just keep reading and take note of the 'headlines'.

NMEFL UPSETS CONTINUE PROVIDING A NEW # 1 FOR THE SECOND CONSECUTIVE WEEK

NMEFL action provided several upsets for the second consecutive week. Our youngest coach, Morgan, guided Grandpa's Stanford Cardinal to another win. The Cardinal moved to 6 – 4 and bowl eligibility with a 24 – 17 win over Cal. The bonus points the Cardinal have received for wins with Morgan playing the game have earned them a top ten rank as well. Michigan survived a first half scare from Ohio State, but pulled away in the second half for a 35 – 17 win. Arizona State joined Stanford as a 6 – 4 bowl team with a win over rival Arizona 21 – 10. Hawaii moved to the lead pack at 8 – 2 with a win over Washington 26 – 14. This wasn't really an upset, but Washington has now lost three straight to end the season after a 7 – 0 start. Now for the upsets! Oregon, 3 – 6 coming in, defeated Colorado, 8 – 1 coming in, by a score of 27 – 24. The loss costs Colorado a shot at the top spot. Oregon will not see a bowl game with a 4 – 6 record, but they won two straight games over top five team to finish their season and land in the top 10 because of it. Upset number two is a big'un. USC knocked off the number one UCLA squad 28 – 21. UCLA, after starting 8 – 0, lost two games to end the season. Their rise to number one last week despite a loss was clearly undeserved. So, does that make USC's rise to number one this week unconvincing? The Season I Champions had 142 total points. The trojans sit on top with an 8 – 2 record and 123 points. The best 8 – 2 finish in Season I was 119 points. Brian's teams beat the crap out of each other down the stretch. With everybody* now with a complete ten game schedule played there won't be any more points earned. I don't see USC staying on top. Michigan could get more points if Brian plays some of the teams they defeated more thus earning the Wolverines more QWB points. What will Brian do next? *Brian, note that Cal and Arizona only have nine games, but they did play each other. We must have missed a non-conference game for them both. Check them out and let me know what you see that is missing.

ECFA completed Project Game # 78, Season V, Game 3 in which Auburn defeated Tennessee 10 – 7. Ed's leagues are really quite amazing. Check out these new threads on the forum for his EPFA '73 and EPFA '74 projects.

Charles Angel's Legends II Tournament moved one step closer to crowning a champion. Buffalo defeated Miami 14 – 6. The Bills are now one game from SCPC bowl eligibility, and are creeping closer and closer to the top ten.

Dirty Bird Electric Football gave the Falcons a rest again this week putting the '65 Chargers back out. The Bolts were not up to the task again, they lost last week, as the '72 Redskins defeated them 31 – 28. Andy's Falcons teams, '72, '80, & '12 are all in good shape for the home stretch, but there is a sleeper or two in his ranks if he chooses to push them to ten games.

WMLMF results this week were the Third Reich 31 over the Pacific Sharks 28, and the Battlin' Bozos of Battle Creek 28 the Cleveland Cadavers 28. Cleveland was the last undefeated team to go down in Al's league. Who's been saying for weeks they weren't for real? Oh, that would be me. Check the last two week's updates. The league title, and run at the SCPC, is now there for the taking for That '70s Rams Team.

VENICE ELECTRIC PROFESSIONAL FOOTBALL LEAGUE JOINS SCPC

The VEPFL under the direction of Frank Burgo (FrankB) joined the SCPC this week. Welcome aboard Frank. So glad to have you with us. In the inaugural game the Tampa Bay Buccaneers defeated the Houston Oilers 31 – 28. That must have been some colorful game with Creamsicles and Love Ya Blue doing battle. Here is what Frank shared about his league. The league is set up with 28 NFL Teams. The League is NOT divided into conferences, and Divisions. Teams will play a 10 game season. The top 14 teams go to the Playoffs, with the First and Second Place Teams getting a first round BYE. I play on a Scale Size Board, and use a modified version of the MPFL rules.

Here's the top ten:

SCPC RANKINGS PAGE UPDATES

If you haven't already checked out the rankings page and noted the updates do so. Ever wish you could more easily find your teams, sort the table how you'd like to see it, or compare your teams all on one screen? Now you can. The rankings page now has a filter that allows you to choose views filtered by owner, division, or home league*. Each column of the table is also clickable to reorder the contents. Plus, there is a hand search feature so you can quickly find anything you want in the rankings. Awesome! Thanks Corey.

*Some teams don't have a home league noted yet, and there is an error in a few as well. This is on the list to fix.

Two previous errors were corrected. Al's Arctic Tundra had a game score fixed. Ed played a challenge game with a team of Chris's. It is now correctly entered too.

As always please check your teams information over. There is a lot of data involved with this and there are bound to be entry errors now and then. They can all be fixed if we know about them, so let us know when you note one.

A quick note on the survey we did to close. 51 people logged on and took the survey. Thank you to everyone who did. Your input is very helpful. I will be posting a summary of the survey results on the forum part of which will be requests for those who made specific responses to contact us and provide further insights. I hope anyone who can, will share to help us improve the SCPC moving forward.

SCPC Weekly Update

Week 27

Sunday, March 2nd thru Saturday, March 8th, 2014

SCPC Season II Official Stats:

43 new games this week 30 new teams this week

1 new owner/coaches this week 1 new Guest Coaches this week

339 total games, 253 different teams, 15 owners/coaches, 4 Guest Coaches

13 bowl eligible teams (six or more wins)

0 five win teams still alive 9 four win teams still alive

4 teams eliminated from bowl eligibility (five or more losses)

16 weeks 2 days remaining

Week 27 of Season II in the SCPC was far and away the busiest week on record thus far. Back in week 17 of Season I Mike Velikey alone entered 27 games leading the way to a weekly total of 40. This week, week 27 of Season II, Mike logged 17 games. Newcomers to the SCPC Billy Campbell and his son, Isaiah, entered 15 games. Add in some of the other regulars with a few games each and we have a new SCPC record week of 43 games. Overall we are still a little more than 100 games behind Season I's pace, but we have 27 more teams entered than this time last year. That should mean we'll eventually surpass the Season I game total. We are equal to Season I in the number of participating coaches with 19. We are also equal in the number of bowl eligible teams with 13. Recall also that Season I started four weeks late. The current numbers indicate awesome growth in the SCPC. Thank you to everyone who is taking part or following along, and helping grow this adventure. Now to the solitaire action.

Charles Angel's Legends II Tournament is drawing ever nearer to it terminus. The Bills, Lions, and Browns all advanced. Buffalo defeated the NYJ 21 – 14, Cleveland took care of Dallas 28 – 21, and Detroit bested the Colts 28 – 17. With the win Buffalo becomes bowl eligible in the SCPC. They are now 6 – 1 and jumped up to number 14 in the rankings. Detroit is now 4 – 0 # 21. Cleveland is back a little further with just a 2 – 1 mark. The Championship games are now set in the Legends Tournament. Cleveland will face Detroit in the NFL and Buffalo will take on Oakland in the AFL.

The NJLMFL cranked it up this week. Mike reported “Wife is away. I can play!!!” on the 5th and boy did he play. After playing three games each on the 2nd and 3rd Mike went on a terror with the Mrs. gone. He played 5 games on the fifth, and two more on 6th and 7th. When it was all said and done it was 17 games in six days. Mike said he was all caught up now. “It took a lot of time, but it was fun”. Here are the results: Giants 21 Showboats 7, Ravens 13 Jaguars 10, Brigade 20 Steelers 7, 500's 7 Eagles 6, Titans 7 Cougars 3, Rams 24 Lions 10, Raiders 10 Sharks 7, Titans 19 Wildcats 9, Generals 13 Freedom 9, Vikings 21 Mavericks 14, Cardinals 13 Mustangs 10, 49ers 17 Redskins 9, Cannons 20 Patriots 10, Dolphins 13 Renegades 7, Pirates 23 Seahawks 10, Vikings 15 Cyclones 13, Chargers 24 Longhorns 6.

Some highlights from Mike's games:

In the 49ers win over Washington the Skins had two turnovers and Roger Craig rushed for two touchdowns. The Cannons may be a sleeper as Tanahill threw two touchdown passes. Wichita exhausted all ten of their plays in the first 2 drives to take a 13 – 3 lead. That allowed Minnesota to come back with 12 points in the second half to pull off a 15 – 13 win on a Gary Anderson field goal. Everything went wrong for Oklahoma. The Chargers' defense forced the Longhorns into bad field position all night long. This gave San Diego a short field every time they had the ball. The Longhorns also lost both of their running backs (Duane Thomas & Clinton Portis) to injuries. Ladanian Tomlinson had 2 rushing TD's in the 24 – 6 blowout. Mike has 14 teams at 2-0. One of them will eventually win this giant tournament and surely be a factor in the SCPC Championship chase.

The NMEFL is gearing up for defunct team season, but in the meantime it appears Brian is running some teams out at random, or is he? The Minnesota Gophers would allow no Irish luck in a 21 – 10 victory over Notre Dame. Iowa defeated Texas 17 – 14. Cal won, 17 – 10, over Nebraska. Arizona thumped Maryland 31 – 14, and Indiana was better than Florida 20 – 14. Wins by Cal and Arizona says something about the quality of the teams in the recently completed Pac-10 season. Both were poor teams and both won big outside the conference. Minnesota and Indiana are now both 3 – 0. Is Brian looking to make a run at an undefeated team? Indiana is the only loss on the 2nd ranked Wolverines record. This slate of games also earned Michigan four more QWB points moving them closer to the top spot. Brian is going to make it interesting.

Two new teams out of ECFA squared off. Florida defeated LSU 31 – 17. Ed's gearing up some big action in the Big House soon. That's going to be impressive.

The weekly Dirty Bird Electric Football game had a couple of newcomers as well. The 1972 Browns defeating the 1970 Giants 21 – 17.

Finally, the big news of the week. The Parisian Buzz Electric Football League has been playing games since September. They are now ready for the postseason, and have entered all the games in the SCPC. Billy Campbell and his son, Isaiah, run a six team league with teams competing in the SCPC 3.3 Box Stock division. Their top dog right now is the Philadelphia Eagles checking in at # 28. I believe Billy and Isaiah plan to do their play-off and then start another season. I'm sure we'll be seeing some Parisian Buzz pushing the top ten soon. Here are the results they posted.

Games Coached by Billy:

Broncos 23 Eagles 22
Broncos 20 49ers 20
Chiefs 10 Rams 6
Eagles 24 49ers 16
Rams 22 Redskins 20
Eagles 14 Chiefs 0

Games Coached or Won by Isaiah:

49ers 16 Chiefs 14
49ers 24 Rams 16*
Chiefs 22 Redskins 16
Redskins 38 Eagles 24
Broncos 14 Chiefs 6
Rams 16 Broncos 8
Redskins 12 49ers 0
Broncos 8 Redskins 6
Eagles 20 Rams 8

That was quite a week, but it didn't create any movement in the top ten. As mentioned, Michigan crept closer to the top spot, and Arizona State and Washington flip flopped.

SCPC Weekly Update

Week 28

Sunday, March 9th thru Saturday, March 15th, 2014

SCPC Season II Official Stats:

20 new games this week 13 new teams this week

1 new owner/coaches this week No new Guest Coaches this week

359 total games, 266 different teams, 16 owners/coaches, 4 Guest Coaches

13 bowl eligible teams (six or more wins)

0 five win teams still alive 10 four win teams still alive

5 teams eliminated from bowl eligibility (five or more losses)

15 weeks 2 days remaining

Week 28. Let's start things off in the Legends II Tournament where the Cinderella story of the Detroit Lions ended as all such scenarios do the the Lions in any league. It was just a fantasy. The Cleveland Browns ended the Lions' run. With the win the Browns advance to the Legends' Championship to face the winner of the AFL title game between Oakland and Buffalo. The Lions sit at number 19 and now have to wait along with Charles's 11th ranked Packers for a new tournament. The Browns will go into the title game with a 3 – 1 record ranked # 40. Oakland, 2 – 1 # 65 won't move to far even with a championship run. Buffalo is in the best shape at 6 – 1 # 14. A couple more wins for Buffalo would land them solidly in the top ten.

The NMEFL continued play with Big Ten teams taking non-conference opponents. All winners were from the Big Ten. Illinois defeated Miami Fl. Purdue defeated Florida State, Wisconsin defeated Ol' Miss, Northwestern defeated Vanderbilt, and Penn State defeated Navy. Two of the winners, Penn State and Northwestern, fell earlier in the year to Michigan. These two results earned Michigan four more QWB points moving them to within two of the top spot. If the right NMEFL teams take the field and win next week we'll have a new number one team in the land.

ECFA had a pair of contests this week. Gators can beat up Bulldogs was the lesson in game one with Florida soundly defeating Mississippi State 38 – 17. Game two showed that a bunch of mad Bulldogs from Mississippi should not be trifled with. Even by another pack of Bulldogs from Georgia. Mississippi State bounced back to nip Georgia 30 – 27. Ed has a bunch of teams in the SCPC, but as of now none with more than three games or above # 60.

Mike's NJLMFL played two games as well. El Paso and Orlando played the final game of round 2 in the Super Bowl Tournament. El Paso won 24 – 14. Next up will be the Wild Card round of sixteen teams with games being 3 Possession/30 Plays. The first of these Wild Card games went to the Minnesota Vikings over the Charleston Pirates 30 – 17. Chuck Foreman rushed for two touchdowns and Tommy Kramer threw for another. Charleston's Lawrence Tynes broke the NJLMFL record with a 68 yard FG.

The Dream Season put the defending champs back on the field last week. The '72 Dolphins are still undefeated after a 24 – 7 thumping of the Jets. In addition the '86 Giants defeated the '82 Redskins 28 – 21, and the '89 49ers got past the '66 Packers 24 – 21. The Jets and Skins join the Colts at 0 – 2 while the Dolphins match the Raiders with a 2 – 0 record. No one is setting very high in the rankings yet, but the Dream Season dreams big, so stay tuned.

My MPANMMEFSL finally crowned its champion after a two year plus season. It was a good game. All I'll say is that the Northome Bears defeated the Camp 53 Shays. I'm working on photo montage of the game. The win puts the Bears at 4 – 1, # 43 in the rankings. The Nine-man league won't fire up again this season, but maybe the Bears will play a challenge game or two.

The Dirty Bird Electric Football of the week featured the 1970 Philadelphia Eagles and the 2011 New York Giants. The Eagles proved themselves the better 28 – 24. Phil is now 1 – 1. The loss was the first game for G-men.

Two WMLMF games took place. Egypt was 43 – 35 better than the Cherokee Nation, and the Faries pranced all over the Cadavers 34 – 7.

Finally, and best of all, welcome to the SCPC David Foster and the Big – 8. Dave runs eleven teams: Missouri, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, Iowa, Iowa St. Kansas, Kansas St. Nebraska, Notre Dame, Illinois, and Arkansas. Multi-stop is his style of play. The teams are 1978 rosters with a few exceptions. A round robin schedule is used. This is the third season for the Big-8. The first two seasons were part of the Helmet Row Show – one of the inspirations for the SCPC. In action this week Kansas St. defeated Kansas 21 – 7. Oklahoma shutout Illinois 28 – 0, and Nebraska blanked Iowa by the same score.

Here's the top ten with the only movement once again being Wittkop's teams jostling based on QWB points. There some team creeping ever closer though..

SCPC Weekly Update

Week 29

Sunday, March 16th thru Saturday, March 22nd, 2014

SCPC Season II Official Stats:

17 new games this week 4 new teams this week

No new owner/coaches this week No new Guest Coaches this week

376 total games, 270 different teams, 16 owners/coaches, 4 Guest Coaches

13 bowl eligible teams (six or more wins)

0 five win teams still alive 12 four win teams still alive

5 teams eliminated from bowl eligibility (five or more losses)

14 weeks 2 days remaining

NMEFL action this week was all Big Ten as Michigan St. Minnesota, Wisconsin, and Penn St. were all winners. The Spartans defeated Alabama 17 – 14. The Golden Gophers defeated Virginia Tech 24 – 10. The Badgers got by Rutgers 19 – 16, and the Nittany Lions were a point better than Maryland 14 – 13. Minnesota is the best of the group with a 4 – 0 record good for 41 points and the # 33 ranking. Michigan is the big winner this week though. The wins by Penn St. and Michigan St, both teams Michigan defeated, give the Wolverines an additional four Quality Win Bonus Points. The four points is enough to propel Michigan to the top of our rankings. How long will they stay there? How many more QWB points can Wittkop get them? It took 142 points to win it last year. I see Michigan top five again, but I'm not sure with one loss they can stay on top even with additional points. Time will answer all questions.

Big – 8 action, in this their second week of SCPC participation, totaled six games. Oklahoma won twice defeating Notre Dame 28 – 7 & Iowa St. 28 – 14. Iowa State went 1 – 1. Prior to the Oklahoma loss the Cyclones defeated Arkansas 14 – 7. Nebraska handed Arkansas their second loss of the week 21 – 0. Oklahoma State got by Iowa 6 – 0. Finally, Kansas State handed Notre Dame a second loss 21 – 0. Nebraska, Oklahoma, Kansas State, and Oklahoma State are all 2 – 0 and already ranked in the top 100. Look for a Big 8 team out of this group to begin to climb the rankings and contend.

NJLMFL action continued the wildcard round this week. The first two games I believe were games previously played and not entered. In those San Diego defeated Cincinnati 7 – 6 and El Paso won over Green Bay 10 – 7. In Sweet Sixteen Wildcard games this week Tennessee handled Vicksburg 24 – 6. Mike reported that this was a game where the Titans defense really dominated. "The Titans have a good defense and a pretty good offense." said Mike, "They will be tough to beat.". San Diego also advanced to the round of eight 45 – 27 over the New Jersey Generals. Here Mike mentioned that some adjustments he and I made to our short game system to reward defensive performance are actually boosting the scoring of games. The Chargers, he added, have a great running attack. Tomlinson, Muncie, and even Fouts had rushing touchdowns in this game. The Chargers and Titans join the Vikings at 3 – 0 and qualified for the quarter final round of eight teams. The Titans are the most highly ranked of the trio at number 63.

ECFA action got back into the SEC this week. Auburn made a statement in pouncing Kentucky 31 – 7. Auburn joins Florida and Alabama at 2 – 0 in SCPC games. Iowa State is 3 – 0. Kentucky, 2 – 2, is still Ed's top ranked team though at number 56.

WMLMF action was all Sharks this week. The Sharks from the Pacific won a shootout over London 42 – 28 while the Sharks from Munich surprised the Mennonites 31 – 20. The Pacific version of the Sharks are now 4 – 2 and are Al's second most highly ranked team at 19, just a few points behind the 3 – 3 Fairies.

There's the action for week 29. For the first time in several week we had no games from the Dream Season, Dirty Birds, or Legends. That should mean another big week next week if these guys get back on their game. A number of coaches are aligning their teams well for the final run. Wittkop still has a strangle hold on the top ten. For now.....

SCPC Weekly Update

Week 30

Sunday, March 23rd thru Saturday, March 29th, 2014

SCPC Season II Official Stats:

14 new games this week 7 new teams this week

1 new owner/coaches this week No new Guest Coaches this week

390 total games, 277 different teams, 17 owners/coaches, 4 Guest Coaches

13 bowl eligible teams (six or more wins)

1 five win team still alive 12 four win teams still alive

5 teams eliminated from bowl eligibility (five or more losses)

13 weeks 2 days remaining

Week 30's action in Season II of the SCPC was unique. There were fourteen games entered during the week. That is about average I suppose. What was unique was that the fourteen games involved nine different coaches. I take this as yet another great sign of growth for the SCPC. We've had many weeks with more than fourteen games. We've had weeks where a single coach entered more than fourteen games. We haven't had very many weeks that involved nine coaches however. The number of games reported each week is stabilizing more and more because there are more coaches playing consistently and that is AWESOME!

Let's start in Northern Michigan where Brain Wittkop's teams from the NMEFL's Big Ten continue to play games. Each game, giving more and more points to his Pac-10 teams and Michigan whom have all played their allotment of ten SCPC contests. With each Big Ten win Michigan and the Pac-10 teams earn more QWB points. As they earn more points they increase the strength of their stranglehold on the top ten. This week Nebraska defeated Texas A&M 21 – 14, and Michigan State took down Notre Dame 28 – 17. The win was Nebraska's first of the year. It gave Colorado and Cal each two QWBP. The win by MSU evened their season mark at 2 – 2 and gave number three UCLA and top ranked Michigan each two more QWBP. Whether by design or happenstance Brian's strategy is going to make it tough for anyone to topple Michigan. There are some teams out there that can do it, but no one is getting enough games right now to identify themselves as a clear cut threat.

The VEFL played a classic matchup this week. The Dallas Cowboys pummeled the Green Bay Packers 31 – 7. It was the first game for both clubs.

Big – 8 action had a huge blow out, one of the biggest in SCPC history, in Missouri embarrassing Illinois 52 – 3. Nebraska and Kansas State played a thriller in which the Huskers prevailed 41 – 35. The win puts Nebraska at 3 – 0, pushing them up to the number fifty-nine spot in the rankings. The Huskers are the early favorite in the Big 8 and could be one of those teams fighting to emerge as a threat to the Wittkop dynasty.

ECFA is back to the consistency that has made it's thread one of the cornerstones of the MFCA Forum. This week Georgia up ended Mississippi 24 – 10 and LSU stole on from Tennessee 23 – 21. Mississippi, despite the loss, is now Ed's most highly ranked team with their 3 – 2 record earning them 27 SCPC Points and the number fifty-six rank.

The DBEFL was back this week making up for an off week the week prior with two games. The 1972 Dolphins just don't loose in any league. They defeated the 1998 Broncos 14 – 13. The 2012 Seahawks blanked the 2013 Lions 21 – 0. The Dolphins join the 1980 Falcons at 3 – 0, but have a much higher point total with 33 placing them at number 49.

The MPANMMEFSL champion Northome Bears played an exhibition vs. the ONFL's Black Bulls. The Bulls are owned by our newest Season II Coach, Owen. Following a short game format the Bears had little trouble with the Bulls 12 – 3. They are now 5 – 1 and on the brink of becoming my first bowl eligible team. They will continue playing ONFL teams coached by Owen. I also hope to get my older son on board.

NJLMFL wild card games continued. Here are the results and Mike's comments on each.

Baltimore Ravens 24 Virginia Brigade 13

Teddy Bridgewater made his NJLMFL debut for Virginia and the tough Ravens defense had him confused all game. Joe Flacco threw for 2 TDs to Todd Heap and Jaamal Lewis and Ray Rice had an 11 yd TD run for the Ravens. Baltimore is the highest seed remaining in the AFC. They will host the Miami/Oakland winner in the Divisional Round and Tennessee will play the Chargers in San Diego.

Rams 17 Cardinals 13

Great defensive game. Cardinals dominated early. Rams DB LeRoy Irvin had a INT on the first play of the second half. Down 10-0 the Rams rallied for 17 second half points. The deciding play was a 30 yard TD pass from Jim Everett to Flipper Anderson.

Both winners join Minnesota, Tennessee, and San Diego at 3 – 0 a top the NJLMFL. Someone from this group is sure to challenge Wittkop's teams.

The WMLMF's sixth week moved on with the South Park Cows wasting the Toxic Waste 34 – 14 (that pun never gets old) and the Harry Canadians with big feet stepping on the Fire Lizards, but not getting burned, as the final score was the Squatch 35 the Lizards 21. Both games bode well for the Misfits whom had Stan, Ho, Simpson, and Baker all playing. Go MISFITS! The preceding comment was a shameless promotion of my WMLMF fantasy team. So to make it right I'll say that if you don't follow Al's league and fantasy league you're really missing out on great fun.

That's it. Here's the top ten

SCPC Weekly Update

Week 31

Sunday, March 30th thru Saturday, April 5th, 2014

SCPC Season II Official Stats:

14 new games this week 2 new teams this week

No new owner/coaches this week 1 new Guest Coach this week

405 total games, 279 different teams, 17 owners/coaches, 5 Guest Coaches

13 bowl eligible teams (six or more wins)

1 five win team still alive 12 four win teams still alive

5 teams eliminated from bowl eligibility (five or more losses)

12 weeks 2 days remaining

For the second straight week fourteen games results were entered into the SCPC. Also for the second straight week nine different coaches were involved in those fourteen games. Season II has now eclipsed the 400 game mark, and is also closing in on 300 teams. We are still a little behind this point last year in total games, but are ahead in teams and coaches participating. If things continue we'll surpass Season I in all areas by the end of Season II. Exciting!

NMEFL action and teams continue to lead the way. Witkopp's five games this week kept his teams in complete control of the top ten. On the field Iowa and Tennessee were led to wins by Morgan. Iowa won over LSU, 17 – 10, and Indiana was upset by Tennessee, 27 – 26. Virginia took care of Illinois 13 – 7. Ohio State easily defeated Auburn 28 – 7, and Northwestern blanked North Carolina 17 – 0. Several of Brian's top ten teams picked up QWBP based on the results of these games. Michigan, top ranked, expanded their lead to eight points. The Championship will still go through Northern Michigan, but several others are closing in as their leagues/seasons progress. Brian's strategy looks to be sound though. It will be interesting. The loss by Indiana effectively knocks them out of the running. They did give Michigan their only loss, but I just don't see them getting enough GSBP to catch-up having a loss. That does open the door for Minnesota, 4 – 0 # 35, if they can get to ten wins and pick up enough QWBP along the way.

Mike Velikey's NJLMFL Super Bowl tournament is sure to provide Witkopp's Wolverines with some company near the top in coming weeks. This week Miami defeated Oakland 24 – 21 and San Francisco got past New York 17 – 16. Here are Mike's comments.

Marino had 2 TD passes and Kiick a 20 yd TD run. The Dolphins defense created turnover late in the game to close out Oakland.

This was a great defensive battle. The Niners held the Giants to a TD and 3 FGs. The Giants led 16-14 with 2 plays left for SF. Montana hit TE Vernon Davis for 27 yards to the Giants 16. Ray Wershing kicked a 34 yard FG to win it 17-16 as time ran out. This was the best game of SB56 so far.

Miami and San Francisco pick up the sixth and seventh spots in the tournaments final eight. Miami is no Velikey's top ranked team at # 66 with twenty-five total SCPC points. All of the final eight will be 3 – 0 giving each of the winners that advance to the final four six QWBP. Final four winners will get eight, and the championship game will produce ten. If I have it all right Mike's champion will be 6 – 0 and have earned over twenty QWBP in their last three wins. That won't get them to the top, but depending on what Mike does with them to close the SCPC season that team will be in a good place.

MPANMMEFSL vs. ONFL action continued with our new guest coach, my older son Conor, leading Owen's Blue Seals to win over Dad and his Northome Bears 17 – 3. Look for more of these father/son games in coming weeks. I also have two teams from LeMay that will be taking the SCPC Team-Go-Round Challenge.

ECFA has a new top dog. Florida mauled Vanderbilt 34 – 14 to move to 3 – 0. The Gators are now ranked # 57.

Big – 8 action from David Foster had Illinois and K-State shutting out their opponents. The Illini blanked Arkansas 10 – 0, and the Wildcats goose egged The Fighting Irish 14 – 0. In a huge game Oklahoma State won over in state rival Oklahoma 21 – 16. OSU has a share of the Big-8 lead along with Nebraska. Both are now 3 – 0 and are ranked at #'s 55 & 57. Missouri is the other undefeated team in the Big – 8, but they have played just one game.

The Dream Season got more difficult for Dallas and one step closer for Chicago. The '85 Monsters out did the '77 version of America's Team 24 – 21. Week two is now complete with the Bears joining the Raiders and the defending SCPC Champion Dolphins at 2 – 0.

The DBEFL game of the week was an easy win for New Orleans over Buffalo 21 – 7. The win by the Saints pushes the 2012 Falcons back up to # 11 spot. The 2012 Dirty Birds have two wins over the 2012 Saints. Perhaps Andy is employing some strategy here as well. With Atlanta back near the top ten and with an 8 – 1 record, could he be setting the stage for a big game?

That's it. Here's the top ten

SCPC Weekly Update

Week 32

Sunday, April 6th thru Saturday, April 12th, 2014

SCPC Season II Official Stats:

17 new games this week 5 new teams this week

No new owner/coaches this week 1 new Guest Coach this week

422 total games, 284 different teams, 17 owners/coaches, 5 Guest Coaches

13 bowl eligible teams (six or more wins)

2 five win team still alive 15 four win teams still alive

5 teams eliminated from bowl eligibility (five or more losses)

11 weeks 2 days remaining

Week 32 consisted of seventeen new games and involved seven coaches/owners. There was again no movement in the top ten, but several coaches have their leagues and teams in position to make moves in the coming weeks.

Wittkop's NMEFL PAC-10 teams still dominate the top of the charts, but some other NMEFL clubs, mainly BIG-10 teams, are pushing up the charts in an effort to join Michigan who still holds the number one spot. Four more QWB points for the Wolverines this week stretched their lead out to twelve points. The points came as a result of wins by Michigan State and Iowa. The Spartans defeated Texas A & M 21 – 3 while Iowa took care of Navy 18 – 13. In other NMEFL action Indiana got past Auburn 21 – 14. The win pushes the Hoosiers up to # 22 making them the highest ranked NMEFL team not in the PAC-10 other than the top ranked Wolverines. Ironically, Michigans one and only loss on the season came against the Hoosiers. I'll be looking for the undefeated Gophers to take the field next week.

Big – 8 action kept up a feverish pace this week. Missouri moved to 2 – 0 with a 41 – 10 pounding of Iowa. Oklahoma had a closer game, but also defeated Iowa 21 – 14. Iowa is now 1 – 3 while the Sooners are 3 – 1. Notre Dame got their first win of the year over Iowa State 14 – 7. Both teams join Iowa at 1 – 3. Illinois evened their record at 2 – 2 and dropped Kansas State to 3 – 2 with a 17 – 14 win. Finally, Nebraska made a statement with a 28 – 0 whooping of Kansas. Kansas drops to 0 – 2 while Nebraska takes control of the Big-8 at 4 – 0. The Huskers jump up to # 45. Another win could launch them into the top 30.

DBEFL action doubled it’s usual output this week. The 2003 Patriots gave the 2012 Seahawks another loss 24 – 14 and two newcomers to the SCPC, the 2002 Buccaneers and 2003 Panthers met. The Bucs prevailed 21 – 20. Andy has several undefeated teams, but with only two or three wins, and the 2012 Falcons sit just outside the top 10 at 8 – 1. It will be interesting to see how Andy plays out the season with these clubs.

Al made up for no WMLMF games being reported last week with four entries this week. The New Zealand Zombies defeated The Battlin’ Bozos of Battle Creek 30 – 26. The Munich Third Reich also narrowly won by a score of 34 – 31 over the Kalamazoo Killer Bees. In a third nail bitter Weirdwolf’s Werewolves got by a team owned by their namesake, the Kansas City Super Sumos, 30 – 28. Finally, in a very rare WMLMF defensive contest That 70’s Rams Team survived the frozen Tundra 16 – 7. Al’s teams are the largest bulk threat to the NMEFL dynasty right now. Al has 5 teams ranked between # 20 and # 30. He has another 4 teams in the top twenty. The Werewolves, along with the Sasquatch, lead the way with records of 4 – 2 and the # 14 & # 15 ranks. That 70’s Rams team is a few slots back at # 17, but have a better record at 5 – 1. A number of WMLMF teams should crack the top ten in coming weeks.

Only one NJLMFL game this week. The Elpaso Warriors captured the eighth and final spot in the semi-final round of the Super Bowl Tournament with a 20 – 13 win over Dayton. Mike reported that Jaamal Charles had a TD run leading the El Paso Warriors to victory in claim of the final spot in the NFC Divisional Round. They are the only expansion team to reach the final 8. The eight remaining team range in rank from Miami at # 68 to San Francisco at # 86, but the eight team are separated by just 4 points.

Last but not least, SCPC Team-Go-Round Challenge action got underway. Chris LeMay sent two teams north to take the challenge. LeMay’s Tennessee Oilers and Montreal Concordes took on one another first with Montreal coming out on top 34 – 20. Then the Oilers faced my Minnesota Golden Gophers. The Gophers prevailed 20 – 14. Next up, Montreal will challenge Minnesota. Another of my teams will be heading south to face a challenge from one of McLaughlin’s teams.

That’s it. Here’s the top ten

Week 33 slowed down a bit. This is most likely due to the Easter weekend and the gorgeous weather most of the country is experiencing. It's even been above freezing and sunny here in Minnesota. I know I didn't get a game done this week because I was outside a lot. Happy Easter! Here's a recap of the action.

Wittkop's NMEFL just rolls on like a freight train named desire. Ohio State took care of Georgia 28 – 10. Purdue dispatched Maryland with ease 17 – 6. In a very rare non-conference loss for the Big-10 Florida destroyed Wisconsin 28 – 7. Of course the big news lately each week is how many more QWBP do the week's results earn Michigan? Just two this week bringing the Wolverines to 139. This matches the total compiled by last year's runner-up, Ray Suggs's Green Bay Packers of 1966, and is just four shy of Ray's 1972 Miami Dolphins who won it all in Season I. It's beginning to look like a one loss team can win the National Championship. Last season Michigan also finished 9-1, but had just 133 total points good for a finish as number 4.

LeMay's WLAPF got things going again last week. Birmingham and Florida were eliminated from bowl eligibility. Birmingham dropped a pair of games losing to New York 28 – 21 and playing to a tie with Philadelphia 21 – 21. New York also defeated Florida. These upstart New York Stars are now 3 – 0. I wonder if Chris will keep them going to see how high they can climb. Does Michigan see something way way back there in their rearview mirror? A shooting star perhaps.

The Big – 8 says 'Hold on Michigan!' There may just be a few Big-8 teams between LeMay's Stars and The Big House. Missouri is one of those teams. After a record tying 63 – 14 drubbing of Arkansas the Tigers are now 3 – 0 and set at number 60. Several Big-8 teams are above Missouri only because they've played more games. The Tigers's 63 points matches the record now shared with Dunham's Werewolves and Killer Bees. All three of the other Big-8 games last week were shutouts: Kansas State 14 Iowa 0, Nebraska 28 Notre Dame 0, and Oklahoma 28 Arkansas 0. Arkansas's two losses drop them to 0 – 5 and eliminate them from postseason eligibility. Iowa and Notre Dame have just one win each. Nebraska may be the first team in Michigan's rearview mirror. The Huskers are now 5 – 0, have 50 points, and crack the top 30 at number 27 in the new rankings. They have some of the better Big-8 teams yet to come including a possible showdown with the high powered Missouri team.

Only one NJLMFL game again this week and it was a gut wrenching loss by Minnesota to the expansion El Paso Warriors 20 – 13. Mike noted that Jaamal Charles had 2 more TDs to lead the Warriors to victory in a big upset. Minnesota came back in the second half but 2 Adrian Peterson fumbles led to 2 turnovers as the Vikings handed El Paso the game. Hello Mike! Peterson fixed his fumbling problem several years ago. Fix that rare play chart to reflect this please. Oh well, I'm biased. It was a big win for El Paso who are now 4 – 0 and nearing the top 50. The winner of Mikes tournament will sit a 6 – 0. If he chooses to play that team to ten games Michigan will have another team gaining. Their rearview mirror is getting crowded.

The DBEFL game of the week was another Atlanta win. This was the 1972 Falcons beating rival San Francisco's 1989 club 28 – 7. These Falcons are now 3 – 1 on the season.

That's it. Here's the top ten which had no changes from last week.

A few housekeeping notes:

I have updated the home league information for every team. Please check for any errors. This did create a problem with the rankings page view and you can no longer see the page selection arrows at the bottom of the rankings table. Corey will fix this. In the mean time, use the sort, search, and filter options at the top of the table to find the teams you want to see. I also believe I have made all the score corrections that have been sent to me in recent weeks. Please check these as well and let me know if I screwed up anywhere.

Don't you know that you are a shooting star.....

SCPC Weekly Update

Week 35

Sunday, April 27th thru Saturday, May 3rd, 2014

SCPC Season II Official Stats:

13 new games this week. No new teams this week.

No new owner/coaches this week. No new Guest Coach this week.

463 total games, 286 different teams, 17 owners/coaches, 5 Guest Coaches

15 bowl eligible teams (six or more wins)

6 five win team still alive 17 four win teams still alive

11 teams eliminated from bowl eligibility (five or more losses and ties)

8 weeks 2 days remaining

Another successful week of SCPC action is in the books. Last week I compared our total game and team numbers to the season I totals. All comparisons show growth for the SCPC in season II. Let's look at post season eligibility. In season I we had a total of 24 teams eligible for the post-season. Only five bowl games were played though; the four division championship bowls and one challenge bowl. As noted above we have 15 bowl eligible teams as of now, and another 23 with either four or five wins. It's shaping up to be a much bigger post-season in season II. To the action.

Wittkop always gets the first game in each week. His NMEFL has to be getting close to completing a second conference schedule. The PAC-10 & Michigan wrapped up long ago and still dominate the top ten with Michigan piling up more and more QWB Points each week to stretch their now sizable lead on everyone else. Hold the phone though. Will Michigan's closest competition be another NMEFL team? This week Ohio State defeated Michigan State 28 – 14, Minnesota got by Nebraska 28 – 24, Iowa bested Penn State 24 – 10, and Wisconsin was a field goal better than Illinois, 16 – 13. Minnesota is now 5 – 0 and has risen to number 35 in the rankings. Five more games, if won, would surely put the Gophers in a place to at least make Michigan nervous.

Two more NJLMFL quarter final games this week narrowed the field again. San Diego and Tennessee held a track meet that the Chargers won 46 – 30, and the Los Angeles Rams may have become the odds on favorite to win it all with a dominating, 27 – 6 win over San Francisco. The Rams will now face El Paso in the NFC and the Chargers will see Miami in the AFC. The winners will play for the title.

Big – 8 action is really heating up. It's been Nebraska, Missouri, and Oklahoma State vying for the top spot all season. Last week OSU lost a close one to Mizzu. This week OSU helped Mizzu out big time as they shut down the Cornhuskers in a 14 – 2 win. In other action Arkansas defeated Kansas, Iowa shutout Illinois, and Notre Dame then defeated Iowa. Finally, Missouri didn't waste the opportunity OSU gave them as they obliterated Kansas State 63 – 0! Missouri and Nebraska are now in position to bring the first shake up to the top ten in many many weeks. The Wittkop stranglehold on the rankings will end if and when either team picks up another win. These two powerhouses will still face off head-to-head at some point as well. The winner will sitting right in Michigans back yard. Don't count Oklahoma State out either. Having played both Nebraska and Missouri and having just one loss means if they can run the table there could suddenly be three Big 8 teams in the top five.

The Team-Go-Round Challenge is picking up steam. This week my Minnesota Gophers walloped LeMay's Montreal squad 35 – 14. Both McLaughlin and I intend to play more games in the coming weeks. Maybe someone will emerge and challenge. Anyone else wanting a piece of the action let us know.

Speaking of McLaughlin, the DBEFL game of the week saw the 2013 Jets victorious, 17 – 7, over the 1987 St. Louis Cardinals. It's still the 2012 Falcons waiting to play their final game to get back into the top ten that are the leagues best chance at an SCPC championship. I'm thinking Andy is going to see who has the most wins at season's end and have the Dirty Birds play them in order to maximize the QWB Points opportunity for the Falcons. It's a good plan.

Andy was a late comer to season to the SCPC in Season I. In much the same fashion look for Sandfoot to get going in the coming weeks. After joining season I late Andy has been a consistent participant in season II, and could have teams factor in down the stretch. I think it will be much the same with Sandfoot. Especially with the new rollover rule in place. We're looking forward to another new face in the SCPC family.

That's it. Here's the top ten that once again has no movement. Just Michigan stretching their lead out even more. Stay tuned though. Change is on the horizon.

A few more housekeeping notes. The rankings page is fixed up now so you can again go through the pages at the bottom of the table by clicking on the options. For some reason the arrows to sort the columns are not visible, but the column sort still works. Just click on the column heading. Some how the overall final rankings from season I did not get saved. I do have the correct top ten though. Not much, if anything changed below that anyway. I'll keep looking. Either way, keep in mind the season I rankings available on the SCPC home page are the final regular season rankings not the final rankings after bowl games were entered.

The Rams became the NJLMFL team to beat after defeating San Francisco.

SCPC Weekly Update

Week 36

Sunday, May 4th thru Saturday, May 10th, 2014

SCPC Season II Official Stats:

19 new games this week. 4 new teams this week.

1 new owner/coaches this week. No new Guest Coach this week.

482 total games, 290 different teams, 18 owners/coaches, 5 Guest Coaches

17 bowl eligible teams (six or more wins)

7 five win team still alive 20 four win teams still alive
13 teams eliminated from bowl eligibility (five or more losses and ties)
7 weeks 2 days remaining

Week 36! Wow! We're almost there. An old warrior resurfaced last week, an upset in Western Michigan surprised us, another new owner/coach jumped in, and Missouri made a statement.

The Team-Go-Round Challenge had one game last week. Gary Indiana became the first team in the challenge to beat one of my northern teams when they took down NDSU 28 – 14. Andy put up another excellent game summary with awesome pictures. It's pretty cool to see one of your own teams on the forum when you had nothing to do with it. Even if they lost;O)

CAPEFL: There has been a Charles Angel sighting. His Bills advanced to face the Browns in the Super Bowl, defeating the Raiders 24 – 21 in the AFL Championship. With the win the Bills make their record 7 – 1 and sit at number twenty-four. The Browns are 3 – 1. A win may push the Bills near the top ten. That would leave them room for one final SCPC regular season game. Maybe a match-up with the 6 – 1 number twenty Packers; If they can get past Cleveland.

Brian was not the first to get a game in last week, but he already has one in this week. The NMEFL may have lost its best chance to knock out its own SCPC leading Michigan Wolverines when Northwestern upset previously undefeated Minnesota 24 – 21. Northwestern also knocked off Purdue 24 – 17. The Wildcats are now 5 – 2 number twenty-seven and Minnesota is 5 – 1 number thirty. Michigan State defeated Illinois 26 – 17. Purdue bounced back to take care of Iowa 24 – 12, and Nebraska beat up on Wisconsin 26 – 10.

WMLMF: In Western Michigan it was Munich 31 Midwest 16, Egypt 35 Battle Creek 6, and in a shocking turn of events the Sasquatch defeated That 70's Rams Team 14 – 13 in what Al reported was the hardest hitting games he could recall. Both teams, along with the Pacific Sharks are now 5 – 2. The parity in Al's league makes for exciting action, but may hurt his teams in the final rankings. The Squatch at number fourteen are now the highest ranking WMLMF team.

The Big – 8 finally did it. For the first time in many weeks we have a new team in the top ten. In game action it was Oklahoma 20 Kansas State 7, Notre Dame 21 Illinois 0, Kansas 14 Iowa 7, Oklahoma State 24 Iowa State 7, and Missouri 26 – Nebraska 7. Missouri's big win set them with a perfect 7 – 0 record and enough points to jump all the way up to number six. Oklahoma State, Nebraska, and Oklahoma all jump into the top fifteen, and look to join Missouri in the top ten soon as the Tigers look to join the top five. Way to go David. It has been great fun watching your teams rise through the rankings. Congratulations.

The NJLMFL field was once again narrowed. Last week the Rams were dubbed the team to beat. This week El Paso did just that by a score of 13 – 10. I guess now El Paso is the team to beat. They await the winner of Miami vs. San Diego.

Finally, a huge welcome to Robert Sanders and his SEFL (Shamrock Electric Football League). Robert says his league is in its humble beginnings, but the action is already great. In a unique line up of games we saw the Bears Gold defeat the Bears Black, 1988 Notre Dame defeat Chicago Black, and Chicago Gold defeat the '88 Irish. I'm not sure where Robert will go from here, but clearly Gold is a good color for the Bears. I would be remiss if I didn't comment on the Ditka photo Robert includes on his posts. You have to love that guy!

That's it. Here's the top ten that finally looks a little different than the previous week.

SCPC Weekly Update

Week 37

Sunday, May 12th thru Saturday, May 17th, 2014

SCPC Season II Official Stats:

11 new games this week. 1 new teams this week.

No new owner/coaches this week. No new Guest Coach this week.

493 total games, 291 different teams, 18 owners/coaches, 5 Guest Coaches

19 bowl eligible teams (six or more wins)

7 five win team still alive 19 four win teams still alive

17 teams eliminated from bowl eligibility (five or more losses and ties)

6 weeks 2 days remaining

Another week gone. Just six weeks and a few days left. The nice spring weather is likely most responsible for a slowdown in SCPC action. I know that's what is keeping me away. With the end of Season II looming we're bound to see some more action coming up.

Eleven new games this week.

NMEFL: Ohio State doubled up Purdue 28 – 14, Minnesota bounced back from their first loss 28 – 7 over Illinois, Iowa defeated Wisconsin 22 – 13, and Northwestern took care of Nebraska 26 – 17. Northwestern 6 – 2 and Minnesota 6 – 1 are ranked number 16 and number 20. Like everyone else, they are chasing the 9 – 1 Michigan Wolverines, whom for the first week in a while did not earn any QWB Points this week.

DBEFL: The 2002 Buccaneers handled the 2012 Saints 34 – 14. The Bucs are now 2 – 0. The Saints 1 – 4. Neither team appears to be a factor.

Team-Go-Round Challenge: With me unable to complete a game again this week Andy was left waiting for new teams, so he pitted his own two head-to-head. 'Watch U Talkin Bout Willis' put up a fight, but in the end Gary's team got gassed 31 – 28 by El Paso.

WMLMF: Al's Toxic Waste thawed the Tundra 24 – 3 and the Fairies pranced past the Zombies 38 – 31. San Francisco is now above .500 again, but still chasing the Squatch, Sharks, and Rams.

Big – 8 : Action this week was in Oklahoma where the Sooners shutout Illinois and the Cowboys shutout Kansas State. With Missouri sitting idle OSU jumps the Tigers in the rankings. Their 8 – 1 mark puts them at number four this week while Missouri remains five. Oklahoma is now 6 – 1 and rises to number fifteen.

SEFL: Lastly, the '88 Irish were better than the Bombers 10 – 7. I'm not sure who the Bombers are, but the Irish needed a win to keep pace, and they got it.

That's it. Here's the top ten with another small shift this week.

SCPC Season II Weeks 38 - 41 Update

Okay, I've entered all of Foster's games that I had to leave off due to the errors. That brings the rankings current through May 24th. Michigan is still way out in front. Stay tuned for more updates as I enter more games throughout the next few days.

Again, so sorry for the delays. I'll have it all caught up for a fantastic finish to Season II in the next 9 days.

Week 39

Week 39, ending Saturday, May 31, is now entered into the data base. Michigan is still on top, but we have a new number two and a legitimate threat to the Wolverines. David Fosters Missouri Tigers are now 9-0 with 148 total points. They trail Michigan by less than 20 points with one game to play. Depending on who it is they play 20 points in one game is doable.

Stay tuned.

Week 41

All reported games are now in the database. 41 weeks worth! Michigan put their lead on Missouri back up to eight points. It looks like Michigan is going to hold on, but there is still a week to go. Who knows.

Once again, I apologize for the technical difficulties that have probably taken away from the fun over the last four weeks. All is well now!

I'm sure there are likely a few more errors. I'll go through and double check things throughout the week. I don't think any error, at this point, will greatly affect the final rankings. At least the top, bowl eligible teams.

We have a ton of bowl eligible teams, so start thinking about bowl match-ups. Depending on bowl match-ups and results the National Championship is still up for grabs.

SCPC Season II Week 42 Update Sunday, June 29, 2014

The last full week of the SCPC's second season produced just four games. Two from McLaughlin and two from Dunham.

The Dirty Birds completed a 9 - 1 season in the DBEFL. Munich (Third Reich) put themselves in a position near the top of the WMLMF.

Not much movement occurred in the rankings. Wittkop's NMEFL, with complete 10 game schedules played for the Big 10 and PAC 10 dominate the rankings. Foster's Big 8 has the only other top ten teams.

Veliky's SB Champion Chargers are 13 and Lemay's Raiders are 14. The Dirty Birds are 16. Al's Third Reich are 19. The 20 - 30 spots are dominated by Dunham's teams. Angel has Green Bay and Buffalo at the 35 and 36 spots. Mantaraydre's Buffalos and my Bears come in 54 and 62.

There are still two days to go though. Games count through the end of June, so if you want to move a team up you have today and tomorrow to get it done.

I'll do final rankings on Tuesday morning. SCPC Bowl Match-ups will be announced over the fourth of July weekend. Any bowl eligible teams not making the BCS can make their own arrangements for bowl games. All the bowl details will be announced and explained over the weekend.

Thanks to all who participated in Season II. It has been a huge success so far!

SCPC Weekly Update

Week 42 + 2 days

Sunday, June 29th thru Monday, June 30th, 2014

Final Regular Season Update/Rankings

SCPC Season II Official Stats:

14 new games. 2 new teams.

No new owner/coach. No new Guest Coach.

572 total games, 294 different teams, 18 owners/coaches, 5 Guest Coaches

29 bowl eligible teams (six or more wins)

11 five win teams 16 four win teams

27 teams eliminated from bowl eligibility (five or more losses and ties)

Well, we did it! The regular season for Season II of the SCPC is complete. It has been quite an adventure! Aside from some technical difficulties along the way everything went very smoothly. I officially deem Season II a huge success.

Season II had six fewer total games than Season I (572/578, more teams (294/242), more participants (23/21), and the exact same number of bowl eligible teams (29/29). Crazy!

So.....with all said and done.....congratulations to Brian Wittkop and his Michigan Wolverines on their SCPC Season II Regular Season Championship. Brian's teams dominated finishing with seven teams in the top ten. Way to go Brian. Good luck in the post season.

David Foster holds the other three top ten positions with his Missouri Tigers ranked second in the nation.

Dunham, LeMay, Velikey, and McLaughlin all landed teams in the top twenty.

Mantaradre and Angell both have bowl eligible teams as well.

Check out the rankings page to see how everyone finished up.

A full season summary is pending and official SCPC Bowl Championship Series match-ups will be announced over the Fourth of July weekend.

Thanks to everyone who took part.

Stay tuned for more SCPC action.

Michigan did log a loss, but they have something much more important. All ten of their opponents played ten games giving them the best chance at amassing QWBP, which is just what they did. The Wolverines amassed 106 QWBP while number two Missouri has a respectable 90. Both teams earned max points allowed bonus in four of ten games. Missouri got max points scored bonus in all ten, while Michigan maxed out offensive production seven times. Put it all together and Michigan has a twelve point lead on Missouri.

Depending on what shakes down in bowl games the National Championship should go to one of these two. Michigan wins their bowl game and they are the champs. If Michigan loses it 'could' open the door for Missouri.

The rules committee is already discussing bowl games. Remember, there are just four BCS games. Any bowl eligible teams not in the BCS should arrange their own bowl match-ups. More details will be posted in the coming days.
