SCPC SEASON 1 RECORD and REVIEW

"Let's Create an Online Magazine for Solitaire Coaches

Coaches, let's do this! Let's create a monthly/bi-monthly newsletter/magazine about our solitaire leagues and make it printable online. I love reading about the different leagues thriving across America and just having a fold-up magazine/bi weekly or monthly with pictures and game action could be a lot of fun. It's really not that difficult if guys get their stories in and we get RooMorgans (sorry Ed) to be the editor or someone like that.

Guys like Dogwood, Ravenna Al, Batman, and the many others who tell of their stories bring so much energy to the game. Having photos of game action and stories like that would be fun.

What do some of v'all think?

Reg"

This was the post by Reginald Rutledge from the Solitaire Section of the MFCA Forum that started it all. From this post evolved several other posts suggesting names and a poll from which the name "Solitaire Illustrated" was chosen, which is one of the names Reggie suggested.

Several other posts were put up asking for suggestions for content for the magazine. Hopefully most of you have been happy and pleased with the content that has been provided through this publication.

One main purpose of creating this magazine was to provide coverage and updates of the "Solitaire Coaches Points Challenge". The first season of the SCPC was a major success with over 20 coaches participating, over 240 teams registered and over 570 games entered.

This "Special Edition" of "Solitaire Illustrated" is a record and review of the entire first season of the SCPC with a week by week record of the games entered, a reprint of the "SCPC Weekly Updates" written by Derrick Gross, and a league by league, team by team win – loss and points total record taken form the entry data bases.

I want to thank all the coaches who participated in the SCPC and took the time to write game summaries and post stats and pics about their games on the MFCA Forum. It was great to watch the individual league seasons progress and to read the updates from everyone. Without this information this publication would not be possible.

But most of all thanks to the MFCA and the MFCA Board of Directors for continuing to provide the MFCA website and the MFCA Community Forum. It is only through this valuable resource that makes it possible to share this information with the rest of the MFCA and to bring the Solitaire Leagues of the MFCA and the people who play in a solitaire format the recognition that they so much deserve.

Solitaire Leagues of the MFCA Solitaire Coaches Points Challenge Official Rules and Regulations

The Solitaire Leagues of the MFCA's Solitaire Coaches Points Challenge (SCPC) is a points-based ranking system developed by the SCPC Rules Committee by which teams owned and coached by MFCA members may register their solitaire league and team game results into a national data base and earn points towards becoming the SCPC "National Champion"

1. Office of the Commissioner

The Commissioner of the SCPC shall be a member of the MFCA's Board of Directors (BOD) appointed and approved by a majority vote of the BOD. Duties of the Commissioner will be to oversee the overall operation of the SCPC, appoint members of the SCPC Rules Committee and moderate meetings of the SCPC Rules Committee. The Commissioner will make rulings regarding questions and interpretations of the SCPC Rules and Regulations.

2. SCPC Rules Committee

The Rules Committee shall be comprised of at least 3 members of the MFCA, appointed by the Commissioner and approved by a majority vote of the BOD. One member of the Rules Committee will serve as Chairman and will aid and assist the Commissioner in the operation of the SCPC. Members of the Rules Committee must be MFCA members in good standing (membership dues maintained and paid up-to-date). Duties of the Rules Committee will be to develop the initial Rules and Regulations of the SCPC, review and recommend changes to the Rules and Regulations annually and aid and assist the Commissioner and Rules Committee Chairman in the operation of the SCPC.

3. Participation

To participate in the SCPC, solitaire owners/coaches must be members of the MFCA in good standing (membership dues maintained and paid up-to-date). Solitaire owner/coaches may register any number of teams used in their solitaire play. Registration is completed by entering game result information on the Official SCPS Game Registration Form (http://miniaturefootball.org/mfcasl/enter-scpc-game-info-here/).

4. Divisions

Through information gathered by the Rules committee, it has been determined that solitaire play is conducted in several distinct styles and use of certain equipment. Using this information we have established the following divisions:

- Division 1. 3.3g Limited (Players figure and base weighing less than or up to 3.3 grams with little or no base tweaking.)
- Division 2. 3.3g Tweaked (Players figure and base weighing less than or up to 3.3 grams with heavily tweaked bases.)
- Division 3. 4.0g Inclusive (Players figure and base weighing up to 4.0 grams with heavily tweaked or little or no tweaked bases.)
- Division 4. Unlimited (Players figure and base- with no weight or tweaking limits.)

During the game registration process coaches will be asked to assign their teams to one of the above divisions.

5. The SCPC Points System

The following point system has been established and will be used to rank teams according to the number of games played, offensive and defensive performance, game scenario, and strength of schedule. Teams will be ranked based upon total SCPC points earned.

1. Games Played

1 point awarded for each game played (up to a maximum of 10 games).

2. Offensive and Defensive performance

Offensive p	oints scored	Defensive points allowed
0 – 3	0 points	25 +	0 points
4 – 10	1 point	24 – 18	1 point
11 – 17	2 points	17 – 11	2 points
18 – 24	3 points	10 – 4	3 points
25 +	4 points	0 - 3	4 points

3. Game Scenario Bonus Points (GSBP)

The winning team receives bonus points based on the following game scenario criteria:

The winning team and losing team are owned by the same person and coached by the same person.	0 points
The winning team and losing team are owned by the same person but someone else coached the game.	1 point
The winning team and losing team have different owners and the winning team's owner coached the game.	2 points
	_ poto
The winning team and losing team have different owners and the game was coached by someone else.	3 points
The winning team and losing team have different owners and the game was coached by the losing team's owner.	4 noints
The willing team and losing team have different owners and the game was coached by the losing team sowner.	T POILIS

4. Strength of Schedule

A. Division Bonus Points (DBP)

Teams playing and defeating teams in a higher division will receive Division Bonus points based as follows:

- 3.3g Limited team defeats a 3.3g Tweaked team = 1 points
- 3.3g Limited team defeats a 4.0g Inclusive team = 2 points
- 3.3g Limited team defeats a Unlimited team = 3 points
- 3.3g Tweaked team defeats a 4.0g Inclusive team = 1 points
- 3.3g Tweaked team defeats a Unlimited team = 2 points
- 4.0g Inclusive teams defeats a Unlimited team = 1 points

Teams playing and defeating teams in the same or a lower division do not receive Division Bonus Points.

B. Quality Win Bonus Points (QWBP)

At the end of the season, teams will be awarded 2 points for every win that an opponent they defeated won during the season.

5. SCPC Regular Season and Post Season

A. Regular Season

Season One of the Solitaire Coaches Points Challenge will begin Oct. 1, 2012 and end on June 30, 2013. Qualifying games must be played during this time period and game result information entered on or before June 30, 2013. It is recommended that game information be entered as soon as possible after the completion of a qualifying game to allow the Rules Committee adequate time to update the data base and to give participating coaches the opportunity to follow the progress of their teams throughout the season.

Season Two and subsequent seasons will begin on Sept. 1 and end on June 30 of that year. This is to allow the Rules Committee to review the past season and make any changes needed to the Rules and Regulations for the following season.

B. Post Season

On July 4th of each season, final point totals will be posted. The top team in each division will be announced and given the first opportunity to participate in one of four post season bowl games, the Solitaire Coaches Bowl Championship Series (SCBSC).

Teams that have completed and won 6 or more games are eligible to participate in one of the four bowl games. Being bowl eligible does not guarantee a bowl bid.

Bowl Game participants will be selected by the SCPC Rules Committee matched up in such a manner to promote fair, evenly matched, competitive and entertaining games as possible and such that they have the potential to effect the final rankings. Location, rule set to be used and actual coaches of the game must be mutually agreed upon and approved by the SCPC Rules Committee.

Bowl Games must be played in the month leading up to or at the Annual MFCA Convention in August of each year.

All bowl games will be scored using the SCPC Points system. Upon completion of all bowl games, rankings will be recalculated and the number one team will be named the SCPC Champion.

6. Sponsorship

It is the desire of the SCPC Rules Committee to have sponsorship for its SCBCS Bowl Games. Any company or person wishing to sponsor a Bowl Game should contact the SCPC Commissioner or Rules Committee. Sponsorship may include but not be limited to providing a bowl game trophy and/or other prizes approved by the SCPC Rules Committee.

7. Code of Conduct

It is the goal of the SCPC to provide a competitive, fun and entertaining form of participation for those MFCA members who classify themselves as "Solitaire Coaches" To maintain and insure the MFCA's motto of "Unity, Integrity and Fellowship" the MFCA's Code of Conduct will be enforced.

Any person or persons found to be or suspected of conspiring to enter false information in regards to SCPC game information and participation will be subject to MFCA membership suspensions and possible membership bans according to the MFCA's Code of Conduct as contained in the MFCA's Bylaws. (http://miniaturefootball.org/about-the-mfca/bylaws/).

Solitaire Coaches Points Challenge Update for week 8 Sunday, November 18 through Saturday, November 24, 2012 (Thanksgiving Week)

Egypt Ra / Al Dunham

NY Jets Charles Angell

Wow! What a week! Thanks to Mike Veliky and his North Jersey Legends Miniature Football League the SCPC grew by 32 teams last week. Mike entered 17 total games all played during November. Thank you for jumping in Mike. The SCPC just got a whole lot better and more exciting.

Our Canadian friend Shane Hoopfer (Hoop27) is now in as well as the Postal League has its first game in the Challenge. The Canadian Ducts defeated the Northern Lights in three overtimes. Week seven of MOFL action should bring more teams and coaches on board.

Overall week eight of the SCPC consisted of 26 games: A new single week record.

After eight weeks the Challenge has had 73 total games registered and now brags 89 teams and 10 coaches. Mike Veliky now leads the participating team's race with 32. Rumor has it he can double that number......Dunham and Angell both have 16, but I believe Charles's new tournament will bring some more teams into the mix.

Speaking of Charles Angel and his C A Panther 22 Tournament, the LA Rams are the first 'Championship' winning team in SCPC play. They defeated the Jets 16 – 13 in the title game and have the most wins in SCPC play so far, four. With a tournament win on their resume the Bowl Committee will take notice.

An interesting development is the number of teams in each division. Of the 89 total SCPC teams all but nine are 3.3 Limited. Where are all the solitaire tweakers? 3.3 Tweaked has three teams, 4.0 Inclusive has 4, and Unlimited has just 2. There will likely be more 3.3 Tweaked as the new and improved Helmet Row Show gets rolling, and the Postal League getting back on line will bring in more 4.0 teams. Does anyone else play Unlimited or is Reg truly 'solitaire' with his UWD system.

The final useless yet fun stat for the week is a look at what teams are represented most often in the SCPC. Four teams are entered by three different owners. The Bills, Cowboys, Jets, and Browns are each registered by LeMay, Veliky, and Angell. Houston has three teams, but Leviky's is the Texans while LeMay and Angell play with the Oilers. Kansas City brags three teams as well, but only two are the Chiefs owned by Veliky and LeMay. Some odd bunch known as the Super Sumos is on board from Dunham's WMLMF.

Now for the rankings!

The rankings page is sorted first by SCPC points, then number of wins, followed by losses. Rankings are numbered based on those three criteria. Tied teams are then listed based on previous rank and finally alphabetically.

The top spot still belongs to Owen's Skulls playing an independent schedule against his dad's teams. He has devised an interesting tournament format to play. The Skulls are currently taking on the Purdue Boilermakers. Maybe Santa will bring him some more teams of his own so those Skulls don't get GSBP with every win.

In the number two spot is LeMay's Oakland Raiders. Despite just two wins the Raiders have had three hard fought losses earning them enough points to hang on near the top. They are a long ways from the six wins needed to be bowl eligible though, and will take a beating in the end on QWBP if they don't put some W's up. LeMay's Packers are the only other team with five games played. They sit at # 5.

Fittingly, the number three and four spots go to Angell's Championship game participants. The Jets are at 4 and his champion Rams are at 3. If these two teams play in Charles's next tournament they will knock at the door of #1.

LeMay still owns the rest of the top ten with the Cowboys, Chiefs, and Jets at the six, seven, and eight spots. Dunham is still in the top ten with his Cows at number 9. LeMay's Browns complete the top ten.

The highest debut this week is Veliky's Browns with a 2-0 record and 12 points at number 16.

LeMay's Americans are the bottom feeders again, but I believe they are up next in his unique 'vs' tournament.

Note the four teams at the bottom of the list with no data. Two games were entered, but the scores showed up as dates due to a formatting problem in the spread sheet. Mike will get me the scores and I will update those with next week's games.

The full rankings with all 89 teams can be seen through the link at the bottom or on the MFCA home page under SCPC.

Some interesting trends are developing. We have a total of 28 one loss teams with three, four, or five points each. No one loss team has been able to score six SCPC points in a single game. On the one win side of the coin we have 14 teams with five, six, or seven points. 15 one win one loss teams have 9, 10, or 11 points. Looking at those numbers it seems that a six point game is middle ground. More than six points from a single game is good, less is not so good.

The biggest one game total is from Derrick's Gophers with a 10 point game thanks to GSBP when they defeated Owen's Skulls with Owen coaching the game. Those GSBP may loom huge down the stretch, and don't forget that in the end every defeated opponent win earns an additional two point QWB. Those highly ranked teams with few wins will not stay there.

For even more information on the SCPC see the premier issue of Solitaire Illustrated.

Check back next Sunday for the latest rankings and another SCPC summary.

Housekeeping note: On the SCPC Tracking Spreadsheet – this is where you see the rankings – each team has its own page. You can see your teams' results by clicking on their tab. To keep things more manageable the tabs will have just the team name. Repeat names will also have the owner's first and last initial. Please check your teams' page and let me know if you see any errors.

Also, I may enter some game results throughout the week. Doing 26 games all at once sucked, but it was still fun. I will only enter results though. The rankings will not be redone until next Sunday.

Thank you to all the Challenge participants and Chris for the great publicity in SI. What will week nine bring? More teams? More owners/coaches? A new number one? Our first bowl eligible team?

I can't wait!

Solitaire Coaches Points Challenge
Update for week 9
Sneak Peak week 10
Sunday, November 25 through Saturday, December 1, 2012

All games, standings, points, and rankings are now updated through Saturday, December 1st.

Following a HUGE Thanksgiving week in the SCPC, coaches slowed down in week 9. That does not mean that the SCPC was quite though. Although only three games were played and entered during the week the NJLMFL, operated by Mike Veliky, entered a total of 34 games. Most had been played in October. Mike is all caught up and current with his SB55 teams and games in the SCPC.

There were 37 total new game results posted this week, giving us 32 new teams. Two of those teams came from Bryan Nutt and his 120 team college tournament. Welcome aboard Beenutt!

Mike had one game from the current week as did Chris LeMay. LeMay's game was the sixth entered for his VS. League's Green Bay Packers. The win pushed them past the Skulls and back into the number one position.

The Hartford Renegades are now the NJLMFL's highest ranked team at number six, and the Browns from the same league are at number ten. The NJLMFL also has the highest debut of the week with the Giants at number 30. Way to go Mike!

Bryan Nutt's Oklahoma State Cowboys enter the SCPC at number 79 where there is a huge log jam of one win teams. Hopefully we'll see a lot more from Beenutt's 120 team tournament.

Remember, as games are played teams earn points win or lose, so teams just entering will not be ranked very highly. Strength of schedule - Quality Win Bonus Points - will be tallied at the end of the year. Each team will earn 2 QWBP's for each game an opponent they defeated wins (once per opponent).

Today has already been a busy day getting week 10 off to a great start. C A Panther Electric Football is going again with two games entered today. Charles's new classic team's tournament sounds very exciting.

The SCPC is also excited to welcome week ten's first new owner Ray Sugg. Ray's 'Dream Season' tournament is sure to shake up the standings in the coming weeks as his is the first league that will have teams playing in different SCPC divisions going head-to-head. The Dream Season entered four games today.

Keep in mind that game results entered today go on the new week. The current updated rankings take into account just games entered through Saturday. Charles's new games, and Ray's first four will be part of the week ten update.

As always, please check all the information for your teams, and the rankings, for errors. Entering so many games requires a lot of time, back and forth, copy and paste, and number crunching - not complaining - so I'm bound to make some mistakes. Please let me know when you see one.

Ray and Bryan, please post or PM me the league name, Dream Season and Beenutt's 120 for example, you want your teams listed with.

Counting both Ray and Bryan we now have 11 team owners in the SCPC!

Thank you to everyone who is participating or just following along. The more owners, leagues, teams, and games we get involved the better this will be.

I hope the SCPC provides some extra entertainment and excitement in your league.

Finally, keep in mind that Chris needs material for the second 'Holiday' edition of Solitaire Illustrated. Send him a bio of you and/or your league or tournament, and some pictures. There will be lots of SCPC info included as well.

Check out the new rankings and watch the new games come in all week from the SCPC on the homepage. If anyone is interested in helping get the SCPC section on the home page set up better please help out. It's on my list, but I don't know when I'll get to it - I'd like play some games of my own too LOL!

Solitaire Coaches' Points Challenge Update Week 10

Sunday December 2 - Saturday December 8, 2012

It was another exciting week in the world of solitaire miniature football and that equates into another exciting week in the SCPC.

Ray Sugg is on the board as this week's only new owner/coach. Ray's Dream Season Electric Football League is a very exciting 32 team round robin/tournament format that will bring games pitting opponents from different SCPC divisions against one another. So far, no division bonuses have been earned. In two games 4.0 inclusive teams defeated a 3.3 limited opponent. Ray's 1999 Jaguars, 1986 Giants, and 2003 Patriots all got six SCPC points in their first wins, but his 1970 Baltimore Colts are his highest debuting team at #77 with a seven SCPC point win, 21 - 7 over the 1999 Titans. Welcome aboard Ray. Here is a link to the Ray's Dream Season 2012 thread. Other Dream Season posts report on actual game action.

The SCPC now has twelve owner/coaches participating eight of whom entered games this week. Twenty-four new games were entered in week ten bringing 26 new teams on board. Our overall totals are pretty impressive: 12 owner/coaches 143 teams 135 games. It also seems that the Cowboys are not only America's Team, but Solitaire Owners' team as well with six different Cowboy teams on board. LeMay's Cowboys sit at number 4 and Veliky's are at 10.

Al Dunham's WMLMF now is home to the highest scoring SCPC game thus far. His London Union Jacks took out the San Francisco Flaming Fairies 56 - 49. What a game for Al's fantasy owners, and it moved the Jacks up twenty-five spots to number 32 while the Fairies jumped 32 spots to number 40 in the new rankings. .

The NFLGTSL, Reginald Rutledge, entered a classic matchup between the 1985 Chicago Bears and the 1967 Green Bay Packers. Much to the thrill of all Packer haters the Monsters of the Midway, powered by Reg's CWD System, took it to the Packers 35 - 3. The Bears become the first SCPC team to get all 4 'points scored' and 'points allowed' in a single game and the Packers are the first to get zero! The poor Packers get a single point for showing up.. With the win the Bears are the week's biggest movers, jumping forty-six places to number 24 while the Packers debut at the very bottom of the rankings, # 143.

As previously mentioned the Cowboys out of Mike Veliky's NJLMFL sit at number 10 with a mark of 3 - 0. Their second consecutive shutout win moved them up thirteen places, but the Vicksburg Cannons are the NJLMFL's highest ranked club. The Cannons sit at # 6 with a 4 - 0 record. Whoever wins this tournament is sure to be ranked very highly.

Chris LeMay's Vs. Tournament also had a high scoring affair this week with his aforementioned Dallas Cowboys defeating the WFL's Florida Blazers 51 - 30. Those Cowboys are sitting at # 3 while the Blazers, the WFL's last hope with the Americans down at the 135th spot, sit at # 22 despite their 1 - 2 record.

My Nine-Man League completed a game this week. The Camp 53 Shays took it to the Plum Creek Pioneers. Like the '85 Bears the Shays maxed out with 8 points for scoring making them the highest debut of the week at # 72. The Pioneers are one spot above the bottom feeding Packers.

Finally, Charles Angell's Los Angeles Rams, fresh off their C A Panther 22 title, open up play in the C A Panther NFL Championship Series II with a 21 - 0 thrashing of the Atlanta Falcons. The Rams, now 5 - 0, earned another 8 SCPC points for the win and jump to the top of our rankings, and look to be the frontrunner to become the first SCPC six win - bowl eligible - team.

That's it for the highlights this week. Click the link below to see the complete rankings. As always please let me know ASAP if you note any errors in my data entry. I also jazzed up the SCPC main page on the MFCA home page. To see it click on SCPC on the blue link bar at the top of the page.

What will week 11 bring?

Solitaire Coaches' Points Challenge Update Week 11 Sunday December 9 - Saturday December 16, 2012

The big change in the SCPC this week is the addition of Quality Win Bonus Points to the ongoing point totals. Every team earns two QWBP for each game a team they've defeated wins. With the number of teams we have and games being played it would have been far too massive a task to tally them all at the end of the season. So, we decided to keep them as a running total just like all other points and bonuses. It will take a while to get the formulas entered for every team but all teams that played games late this week are up to date as well as AT LEAST the new ranking's top 25 teams. Enough teams are up to date that I know the new rankings are accurate, although some teams in the middle of the rankings may move up or down slightly as QWBP continue to be tallied in the next week.

Let's start this week's review off in Al Dunham's Western Michigan League of Miniature Football where three games were played. The Toxic Waste defeated the Munich Third Reich 45 - 14, the New Zealand Zombies took down the Battlin' Bozos of Battle Creek 35 - 14, and the Canadian Sasquatch had no problem on the frozen Arctic Tundra winning 45 - 28. The WMLMF's highest ranking team is still the 3 - 0 "That '70s Rams" team at number 16 in our rankings.

Next let's move out to Charles Angell's C A Panther Electric Football's NFL Championship Series II tournament. The first round is now complete, and next week we'll see division finals action. Three games this week in the series saw the Colts best the 49ers 28 - 10, the Eagles defeated the Redskins 13 - 10, and the Cowboys took out the Saints 28 - 14. A correction was made to Charles's game between the Packers and the Bears from 12-2. The game results were reversed on the rankings; it is fixed now. CAPEF has the top ranked team for the second week in a row with the LA Rams remaining the SCPC highest point earner so far, and they are still alive in the current tournament, so unseating them may be difficult if they keep winning.

Ray Sugg's Dream Season has burst onto the solitaire and SCPC scene. With a wide range of teams from Ray's various solitaire leagues the Dream Season pits teams from different SCPC divisions against one another. In fact, the 1966 Green Bay Packers, one of this week's highest debuting teams at number 74, is also the first team to earn a division bonus. Playing in the 4.0 Inclusive Division the Packers took out the 1985 Chicago Bears who play in the Unlimited division. In other Dream Season action the 1975 Steelers beat the 2000 Ravens, the 1988 Bengals defeated the 1986 Browns, and the 1991 Lions took out the 1973 Vikings. I absolutely love this league, but there is something seriously wrong when the Packers beat the Bears and the Lions beat the Vikings in the same week. C'mon Man! Ray's individual game summaries can be seen on the following division links: AFC-North NFC-North

The North Jersey Legends Miniature Football League posted two games this week. The 49ers defeated the Reno Bandits 7 - 6, and the Columbus Crimson Knights won over Tampa Bay 14 - 10. The Knights broke the top ten in this week's rankings. The NJLMFL has two other teams in the top ten as well with the Cardinals at number 7, and the Vicksburg Cannons at five. Look for a tournament update from Mike soon. I think he's in the second round.

Our commissioner, Chris LeMay, found time away from his duties to play one game this week. The Jets won another World Bowl over the Blazers 32 - 29. There is sure to be a lot of great action coming from this AFL vs. NFL vs. WFL Championship Series Season LeMay's teams are still dominating the rankings with five of the top ten teams.

Our last stop this week is the return of Ed's College Football Association where the old SWC will play out the 1982 conference schedule. In the first game the SMU Mustangs defeated the TCU Horned Frogs 10 - 9. Good to have you officially on the board Ed.

With 14 new games in week 11 bringing in 13 new teams and one new owner/coach our overall SCPC numbers are now 151 games played involving 156 total teams, and 13 different owners/coaches. Pretty impressive, but there is always room for more.

This week's highest debut teams are the previously mentioned 1966 Packers and Charles Angell's Colts at number 74. Al's Toxic Waste had the largest jump moving up 28 places this week to number 34. Charles Angel's Packers dropped all the way from 86 to 120, but that is because of the error in their ranking last week, so it doesn't count. I just can't resist reporting anything that makes the Pack look bad! I think the biggest drop was really twelve spots by several teams.

I'll wrap up the week by breaking down our rankings by division and record. Of the 156 teams 132 of them play in the 3.3 Limited Division which is led by the top ranked Rams. Five 3.3 Tweaked teams are led by the Skulls at number 11. Fourteen teams are playing 4.0 Inclusive with the Golden Ducts leading the way. Our six Unlimited teams are bested by the 1985 Chicago Bears. The top ranked Rams have the most wins with 5. Three teams, all in the top ten, have four wins. Twelve three win teams are ranked between number 2 and 18. The most highly ranked of the nineteen two win teams is at number four with the lowest at 42. The top ranked of the many one win teams sits at number 20 and all the way up at number 48 is the best of the no win teams.

Thank you for checking in, participating, and following along with the SCPC. There will be a lot more information in the Holiday editions of SI due out in a little more than week.

As always, please check over the rankings and your teams' pages for errors. Charles found one this week that we fixed right up. With the QWBP formulas being added there is bound to be another mistake or two.

Solitaire Coaches' Points Challenge Update Week 12 Sunday December 16 - Saturday December 23, 2012

Another great week of action in many of the Solitaire Leagues of the MFCA Solitaire Coaches' Points Challenge has been tallied. The rankings are recalculated. Week twelve saw sixteen new games entered. The games involved fourteen new teams and one new owner/coach. We now have a total of 167 games played between 170 teams owned by fourteen different participants; half of whom entered results in week twelve.

Let's begin with the new kid on the block, Mantaraydre - founder of the Helmet Row Show - whose University of Miami Hurricanes defeated his University of Colorado Buffaloes 12 - 8. Both teams enter the Unlimited division of the SCPC. Dre will have much more action coming soon. Be sure to follow along. LET THE ROW SHOW ROLL!

Ray Sugg's Dream Season was busy with games in the AFC West and NFC West. The Broncos defeated the Chargers and the Raiders won over the Chiefs in the AFC. In the AFC the Cardinals beat the Seahawks and in a huge upset, earning two division bonus points, the Rams (3.3 Limited) took out the 49ers (4.0 Inclusive). These games completed week one of action in the Dream Season.

Week two opened up in the AFC East where the Dolphins bested the Patriots and the Jets defeated the Bills.

The WMLMF saw just one game this week. The Ra defeated the Sumos 42 - 35; not many defensive points are being scored up in Michigan.

The ECFA got two games in. Texas Tech survived Baylor and OSU handled Houston. Ed is getting a mix of 3.3 Tweaked and 4.0 Inclusive teams.

The NJLMFL rolled on with divisional round action that saw the Browns and Knights advance eliminating Vicksburg and Arizona.

The CAPEFL rounded out week twelve action with the Bears outing the Lions. Rumor on the forum has it that the first game of week thirteen saw the top ranked Rams go down. They may hold the top spot for one more week, but until Charles starts a new tournament they won't play again. The loss opens the door for a new number one and leaves us still waiting for our first six win bowl eligible team.

So where does all this leave us? The Rams are clinging to number one with Veliky's Knights and Browns nipping at their heels in the two and three spots. LeMay and Veliky control the top ten, but whoever wins Angell's tournament will be near the top soon. Christmas should bring in more action across the MFCA.

Remember to check out the second edition of SI tomorrow morning.

Solitaire Coaches' Points Challenge Update Week 13

Sunday December 23 - Saturday December 29, 2012

As 2012 draws to a close the SCPC is rolling, ready to continue growing in 2013. With 13 of the inaugural season's 39 weeks in the books we are ½ of the way to crowning the first ever solitaire national championship team. I'm sure I speak for the others on the rules committee when I say we never imagined the SCPC would be what it already is. Thank you to all our participants, which by the way, with the presents of our latest new owner, Mark Francis, is up to 15. Thank you also to those following along, and especially those who help make it happen. Thanks to all of you the SCPC, after adding 16 games, 3 teams, and 1 owner in week thirteen, now boasts 180 official games involving 173 different teams. Wow! Which one will win it all?

We have to start our update in the world of Charles Angell and C A Panther Electric Football where the promise of our first SCPC bowl eligible team was crushed when the upstart Colts defeated the reigning CAPEF champion, and SCPC #1, Los Angeles Rams by a score of 14 - 3. Those Colts must sure be tough! The win gains them sixteen total SCPC Points, ten from QWBP, and leaves them just outside the top 20 in our new rankings. In other CAPEF action the Eagles took out the Cowboys 14 - 10, and the Cardinals defeated the Steelers 21 - 20. The Colts, Eagles, and Cardinals now join the Bears in the final four. In two interesting quirks of our ranking system the Bears actually dropped nine spots this week and are ranked below the team they defeated last week - the Lions. This is because they did not play this week, have just two games in, and are winning ugly; typical Bears! The Rams remain #1 despite the loss due to the fact that no other top ranked teams played this week. They will likely stay there until someone else gets six games in or perhaps even longer if the Eagles keep winning. The Rams defeated the Eagles in Charles's last tournament so every time the Eagles win the Rams gain two more QWBP.

Ray Sugg's Dream Season also had a big week thirteen with two games each in the NFC East, AFC South, and NFC South. The Cowboys, Redskins, Colts, Titans, Buccaneers and Saints were all winners. The Cowboys, Colts, and Bucs all moved to 2 - 0 in Dream Season play. The Colts are the most highly ranked Dream Season team at number 34 which also makes them the most highly ranked 2 - 0 team in the SCPC. Vikings fans the world round were disappointed that the 2009 Saints vs. 1998 Falcons contest did not result in mass destruction to both of these low down, no good cheating, NFC Championship Viking beating ^&(()) &(&(!))

Determined to make his presence known in the SCPC Mantaraydre's favorite Helmet Row Show team was in action. His Colorado Buffalos bounced back from their opening loss to Miami and took it to the Volunteers of Tennessee 22 - 6. The win makes Colorado the biggest mover of the week, jumping them 86 places, up to # 69 in the rankings.

Ed's College Football Association saw the Razorbacks take on TCU and Baylor battle Houston this week. Both the Razorbacks and Bears won convincingly. Arkansas debuts in our rankings at #112, and Baylor sits at #60 after their first win of the season.

In Al Dunham's WMLMF the South Park Cows stung the Killer Bees 38 - 30, and Weirdwolf's Werewolves out did the Mennonites 21 - 7. Oddly enough, these results along with our others in week thirteen, caused the Munich Third Reich, who didn't even play, to be our biggest faller this week. The Reich dropped nineteen places to #61. The Cows are Al's only top 20 team, at #20, with five other WMLMF teams breathing down their necks in the top 30. Al's WMLMF fantasy season is also ready to hit playoff mode soon......GO MISFITS!

Our newest owner, Mark Francis, joined the SCPC by virtue of his Patriots taking a bite out of Dunham's Sharks in Mail Order Football League action. The game was coached by Chris Fields qualifying the Patriots for three GSBP with the win. Add in two QWBP since the Sharks had a previous SCPC win and the Patriots earn 11 SCPC points with the one win and are our highest debuting team of the week at #64.

To wrap up the week thirteen wrap up the NJLMFL's Buffalo Bills defeated the Denver Broncos 35 - 30. The win pulls the Bills up into the top 10 at #7. The Broncos jump into the top 20 at #15. Mike has not yet posted his recap of this one.

The complete rankings are updated. Please notify me if you see any errors. Have a Happy New Year. Let's make the first week of 2013 a big'un in the SCPC.

Solitaire Coaches' Points Challenge Update Week 14 Sunday December 30 2012 - Saturday January 5, 2013

Week fourteen of SCPC play is in the books. The week is highlighted by a new number one team, our first six win bowl eligible team, and surpassing 200 total games. The SCPC had 23 new games this week, one of our biggest weeks, pushing our total to 203.

Let's begin our review in Ray Sugg's DSEFL where completion of this excellent leagues week two schedule saw eight games played. In the AFC North the Steelers are in control with a win over the Bengals, and the Ravens defeated the Browns. In the NFC North the Packers are 2 - 0 after shutting out the Lions while the Bears stayed in the mix with a win over the Vikings. In the AFC West the Raiders are the 2 - 0 team. They defeated the Broncos while the Chiefs took care of the Chargers. Finally, in the NFC West the 49ers doubled up the Seahawks 28 - 14 and in the game of the week Kurt Warner out gunned Kurt Warner as the Warner led Rams were a touchdown better than the Warner led Cardinals. Huh? Only in a Dream Season I guess. With the DSEFL having just two weeks complete no teams are near the top yet, but as the weeks move on the top Dream Teams will surely challenge the top ten. Right now the Packers are the highest ranked Dream Team at #34. The other seven 2 - 0 DSEFL division leaders all in the top 60. The week three winners will be moving up!

Ed's College Football Association got five South West Conference games in this week. Texas debuted with a win over Rice 20 - 10 while Baylor shutout SMU 10 - 0. Texas A&M and Texas Tech both had two games with A&M defeating Tech, but losing to Houston. Tech lost to both A&M and Arkansas. According to the SCPC rankings the SWC top dog is the Baylor Bears. The Bears' 2 - 1 record lands them at #29.

Yours truly got two games completed this week. In the Helmet Row Show NSIC opener the Golden Gophers, led by Bronco Nagurski, took care of the Bemidji State Beavers 28 - 21. While in Nine-Man play the Pioneers set themselves up nicely with a shutout win over the Woodsmen. The Gophers look great in the SCPC rankings. They are the highest ranked 2 - 0 team at #27.

Two games took place in Western Michigan this week as well. The Union Jacks wasted the Toxic Waste while the '70s Rams were better than the Third Reich. With their first action in a while the Jacks, Waste, and Reich got their QWBP tallied and all moved up nicely in the rankings. The Waste and Jacks are both top 25 teams. The Rams at 4 - 0 in SCPC games are Al's top ranked team at #15.

The most exciting action this week again took place in NJLMFL and CAPEF. With these two great tournaments drawing to a close the surviving teams are racking up big points with each win.

In New Jersey the Cowboys earned their way into the final four with a narrow win over the 49ers. They will next face the upstart Knights for a trip to the SB where the winner will face the Cleveland Browns. The Browns make it to the big game with a solid 31 - 17 win over the Bills. With the wins the Cowboys sit at #9 while the Browns hold the #3 slot. The winner of this tournament just may be sitting at #1 once it's complete.

In C A Panther's world the NFL Championship Series II wrapped up. In the semi-finals the Colts defeated the Bears 20 - 14 in double OT while in the other match-up the Eagles handled the Cardinals 31 - 17. In a thrilling title game the Eagles narrowly defeated the Colts 30 - 28. The Eagles are the new #1 SCPC team. They hold a narrow one point lead over Charles's other championship winning team, the Rams. With the title win the Eagles also become the SCPC's first six win bowl eligible team. Congrats Charles. The only question is what will you do next?

To wrap up I'd like to thank the fifteen owner/coaches who have taken part so far. The SCPC now includes 177 different solitaire teams. Most of the fifteen coaches have all their teams registered now so it's time for some new blood. I know there are other solitaire players out there. Get involved! Don't miss your chance to play in a SCBCS game and win the SCPC National Championship!

Solitaire Coaches' Points Challenge Update Week 15 Sunday January 6 - Saturday January 12, 2013

Week fifteen of SCPC competition was a bit quieter than recent weeks with just twelve games entered. Among the twelve games was one new owner/coach. Tom Roesink's BYU Cougars are loaned out and participating in my Helmet Row Show Northern Sun Conference. We now stand at 216 total SCPC games played between 183 different teams, five new this week, from 16 different owner/coaches.

Chris LeMay was back on the board this week and was our most active coach completing three games. His New York Jets shutout the Packers 9 - 0. The Cowboys also posted a shutout over the Raiders 7 - 0. All four of these teams are highly ranked. Both the Packers and Raiders have losing records, but with six and seven games played they have amassed a nice point total. The Cowboys and Jets both look strong and will be a force down the stretch in the SCBCS picture. Two new teams appeared from LeMay as well. The Memphis Southmen took on the So. California Sun with the Southmen coming out on top 20 - 12. Chris has been retooling his league so he'll have to let us know if these teams are part of his AFL vs. NFL vs. WFL Championship Series or if he has something else underway. Good to see you back in action Chris.

ECFA got two games in this week. Baylor was looking like the team to beat, but Texas A&M was ten better than the Bears 24 - 14. A&M's only loss is to the high scoring Houston Cougars who won their second game in a row making them 2 -2 in SWC play. The Cougars defeated the hapless SMU Mustangs 21 - 17. Baylor remains the SWC's most highly ranked team at #21, but Houston is on the move moving up 30 spots this week to #28 while A&M is 32nd.

Week three is underway in Ray Sugg's Dream Season. The AFC East got things rolling. The 1972 Dolphins stayed true to history, even the logo, staying undefeated with a 14 - 0 downing of Buffalo. The Dolphins are the top Dream Team at #29. The Patriots pulled off the upset over the Jets with a 24 - 21 overtime win. The Patriots are the second Dream Season team to earn SCPC Division Bonus Points for defeating a team from a higher division.

In the Row Show's NSIC the earlier mentioned BYU Cougars dominated the Minnesota Duluth Bulldogs. The game marks the SCPC debut for both teams. BYU is the highest debuting team of the week at #90.

Owen got his Skulls going again. He played a game on our newly remodeled Vibrating board that is now powered by an old Gotham motor. The Skulls had their hands full but held off the UM Hurricanes 21 - 17 with a late game interception. The Skulls, 4 - 1, sit at #14 in the rankings.

The games of the week took place in the NJLMFL. First the Columbus Crimson Knights knocked off the highly decorated Dallas Cowboys in an NFC title game thriller. The win not only earned the Knights a trip to SB55, it made them the SCPC's second bowl eligible team. The win also set up a SB55 match-up with the Cleveland Browns, the winner of which would become the new SCPC #1. The Knights won SB55 35 - 28 becoming Mike's first ever expansion team to win it all. Mike will be posting a game summary soon so I won't give it all away. With the win his Knights are the SCPC's first seven win team, and they move into our top spot. The Browns are now #2, but because of QWBP the Knights are ten SCPC points better.

The SCPC is a numbers game thus teams with losing records that have played more games, like the Raiders (2 - 4 #10) and the Packers (3 - 4 #6) are highly ranked. Teams that look good in the win column, like the Dolphins (3 - 0 #29) will move past teams with fewer wins as their total games played and total SCPC Points build. As it stands teams playing in, and winning, tournament formats are building points faster than teams playing in leagues with other kinds of schedules. It will be very interesting to see how this all shakes out over time.

To give a little perspective, the top ten teams have played five, six or seven games with the exception of the Colts who have a 3 - 1 record, but one of those wins came over a five win team earning them 10 QWBP. All the teams ranked 11 - 20 have played five games. The most highly ranked three win team, Al's South Park Cows (3 - 0), sits at #24 followed closely by Sugg's Dolphins. Rounding out the top 30 are the 2 - 0 Gophers. The top ranked 1 win teams are at # 77 & 78. OSU (1 - 0 #78) moved up 25 spots this week without playing a game because their win was over a team that won a game this week giving them QWBP.

It comes down to simply playing games. Once more teams have close to the ten game maximum completed it will begin to matter much more how many of those games were won. In the end, the teams that play ten games and win most of them will be at or near the top of the rankings. How many games the teams each team has defeated win, Quality Win Bonus Points, will be the key.

My point in hashing all this over is to encourage new coaches to get involved. The fact that you are just starting does not penalize you or your teams at all. It will take them awhile to move up in the rankings, but if you get games in they will.

Thanks again to all our participants and followers. If you see any errors in the rankings please let me know.

What will week 16 bring

Solitaire Coaches' Points Challenge Update Week 16 Sunday January 13 - Saturday January 19, 2013

It was a crazy week in the SCPC. We've had busier weeks, but only because owners were entering games from previous weeks. Week 16 had more games played than any other week with 31. Only one new team was entered, but one team changed its name. The SCPC has now had 248 games entered. 184 different teams from 17 different owner/coaches are now taking part. The top five teams did not change, but their point totals did. With lots of the week's 31 games played by middle ranked teams there was quite a shakeup in that middle section of the rankings.

Let's begin in Ed's College Football Association. The Razorbacks moved to 3 - 0 with a win over Houston 20 - 13. Baylor dumped TCU 28 - 21 and Rice got its first win 17 - 14 over Texas A&M. The SWC's Baylor Bears are still the top ranked conference team in the SCPC. The Bears' 3 - 2 record puts them at #16.

Chris LeMay completed the reworking of his league and is now playing under the banner of the World League of American Professional Football. In what I believe was the inaugural game of the WLAPF the Browns spilled the Oilers 13 - 9. In other games the Colt galloped over the Bills 14 - 13, and the Raiders pillaged the lowly Blazers 14 - 10. Despite their 1 - 5 record the Blazers maintain their #22 ranking with a total of 36 SCPC points. The Browns are at #16 while the Raiders move up to #6 one spot behind Chris's top team, the Jets.

Al's high scoring WMLMF teams continued putting up points as the Ra were seven points better than the Mennonites 38 - 31 and the Cadavers froze the Tundra out 31 - 28. The 2 - 2 Cadavers moved into the top 25. "That '70's Rams" are the WMLMF's top team with a 4 - 0 SCPC record and the #19 ranking.

In Dream Season action the NFC West, after several data entry errors were fixed, is the Cowboys' division. Their 17 - 14 win over the Eagles put them in control at 3 - 0. The Redskins defeated the Giants 21 - 17. The AFC South meanwhile looks to be the Colts' division. They shut out the Texans 21 - 0 to move to 3 - 0 as well. The Jaguars needed overtime to win by three over the Titans 24 - 21. The Colts are the first Dream Team to break the top 30. Their 28 SCPC points places them at #28.

In the quite backwoods setting of Minnesota's Park Avenue Nine Man Miniature Electric Football Solitaire League the Camp 53 Shays survived their biggest test of the season, scoring on the final play of the game to get a 9 - 7 win over the Northome Bears. The Shays are #68.

Finally, Mike Veliky's NJLMFL has been very active. His SB56 tournament is underway - preview pending - and he is playing some other games with teams that bowed out of the SB55 tournament in the early rounds. In addition, Mike has developed an amazing new rules set for shorter game play that is going into use in the SB56 opening rounds of play. Check out his post for info: Idea for shorter game play. To the action. There were 19 games played North Jersey this week:

New England 7 Buffalo 0: Buffalo was 4 - 1 in the last tourney while New England was a first round out.

Giants 3 Eagles 0

Titans 10 Oilers 7: Second consecutive Tennessee win over San Antonio

Rams 13 Breakers 7

Chargers 6 Broncos 3: Broncos second round ousted Chargers in the last tourney.

Packers 13 Lions 6 Shamrocks 17 Redskins 10 Dolphins 17 Generals 0 Steelers 23 Ravens 17 Panthers 13 Saints 10 Jaguars 16 Colts 14 Vikings 16 Showboats 0 Wildcats 17 Cougars 10 49ers 19 Seahawks 3
Browns 10 Bengals 7: Browns #2 are now 6 - 1 and Bowl eligible
Showboats 17 Hornets 3: Boats first win Hornets first game ever First game played under new rules

Metros 9 Cyclones 7: Metros formerly Michigan Huskies first win under new name Chiefs 17 Raiders 14 Blues 10 Buccaneers 7

Wow! Mike played a lot of MF last week! I wish I was retired.......With all those games played the top ranked Knights picked up a number of QWBP. They hold onto the top spot, but the Browns closed the gap with their win.

Everyone in the SCPC and the MFCA wishes Charles Angell a speedy recovery from his bypass surgery. Get well soon!

Solitaire Coaches' Points Challenge Update Week 17 Sunday January 20 - Saturday January 26, 2013

Thanks to Mike Veliky and his TWENTY-SEVEN games this week the SCPC set another record with FORTY total games entered this week. Five other owners entered at least one game. Great week!

The SCPC now sets at 288 total games, 187 different teams, and 17 owners/coaches. We will conclude our fourth month of competition next week, and are nearing the midpoint of season one. The growth of the SCPC is amazing. In October 60 games were entered. November was down to 56. December jumped to 74, and now January has blown the top off with 99 and counting. Remember, the season goes through June so any and all solitaire coaches still have plenty of time to get their teams involved.

Let's start in Ray Sugg's Dream Season where it was a busy week, except by Mike's standards, with six games played. In the NFC South the Saints defeated the Panthers 17 - 14, and it was the Bucs 21 and the Falcons 14. Tampa Bay is in control of the South at 3 - 0 which has earned them 23 SCPC points and the 58th ranking. In the AFC North the Steelers won a close one over the Browns, and the Ravens did the same to the Bengals. Both games had a final score of 10 - 7. This division is like that. No game has been won by more than seven points. The Steelers are 3 - 0 and have 22 SCPC points, but the others are all right there: Ravens 17 Bengals 16 Browns 13. The Dream Season's week wrapped up in the NFC North where the '85 Bears took care of the '91 Lions 21 - 14, and the '66 Packers handled the '73 Vikings 21 - 10. The Pack is 3 - 0, 29 SCPC points, and the Dreamiest Dream Team at #34. Go-Pack-Go (It physically hurt me to type that!)

LeMay's newly formed World League of American Professional Football had two interesting games this week. The Birmingham Americans got off the schnide and won their first game, defeating the Chiefs 16 - 14. The win moved them all the way from #138 to #71. In the other World League game the Vikings took down the Cowboys 20 - 13 (Ahhhh, that felt much better). This was a huge game. The Vikings came in at 3-1, but had slipped out of the top twenty. The Cowboys were at 4-1 and in the top ten. Now both are top ten teams. The Cowboys slipped one spot #8 while the Vikings jumped back into the 9th spot.

In the ECFA Texas won over SMU 15 - 9 and Arkansas rolled Rice 30 - 17 in a game that broke several ECFA and SWC records. Arkansas is now 4 - 0 for 37 SCPC points and Ed's most highly ranked team at #21. Watch out for Texas though. With just two games in due to scheduling they have just broke the top 100, but they appear to be a force that all others will have to reckon with as the SWC and SCPC move ahead. When does Texas get a shot at the Razorbacks Ed?

In my Helmet Row Show conference the final NSIC teams played their first game. The game was played following Veliky's new short game system which I really liked. The Battle for North Dakota round 1 went the way of the boys from Fargo as they out defensed their opponents from Grand Forks. NDSU 6 UND 3 was the final score.

Al got in his usual two contests this week. The Sasquatch dumped the Sumos 35 - 28 and in an unusually low scoring affair for the WMLMF the Bozos clowned around with the Werewolves and won 21 - 7. The Bozos made a strong move in the rankings up to #63 while the Squatch sit in the 45th position. An interesting note here is that 'Weirdwolf's' Werewolves and the Kansas City Super Sumos (owned by Weirdwolf) both suck! The Sumos, 0 - 4 in SCPC games, are #107. The Werewolves are now 2 - 2 but dropped out of the top 50. If you read this Lynn, please understand that Al cheats and your teams will never do well. You really need to start your own solitaire league!

Finally, twenty-seven games in the NJLMFL is a lot of games, teams, and numbers to summarize. Mike now has two things going. His SB56 tournament is underway, and he is also playing other games with teams within their SB56 divisions. The following are the results of those games and a few notes:

Cowboys 16 Rebels 9

The Cowboys are now 5 - 2, one more win for bowl eligibility, and moved up to #3. They are just the third team to break the 60 SCPC point barrier.

Renegades 16 Dolphins 9 Titans 20 Freedom 13

Titans 4-2 #17

Packers 13 Bears 7

Vikings 20 Metros 14

Texans 26 Jaguars 20

Bobcats 7 Chargers 0

Error report: The Bobcats' first game loss to Cannons was down as a

win. Fixed

Shamrocks 20 Thunder 6

Panthers 14 Falcons 13

Warriors 13 Rams 0

Chiefs 17 Longhorns 14 Jets 17 Patriots 10

Wranglers 16 Cougars 13

49ers 20 Cardinals 17

The 49ers are now 5 - 1 and ranked 6th. The Cardinals have suffered back-to-back losses to the Knights (#1) and now the 49ers. They are 3 - 2, 37 SCPC points, #23, and have clearly played the toughest schedule of all 187 SCPC teams. Packers 16 Bears 10

Giants 20 Cowboys 17

Huge win for Giants 3 - 1, 37, moving them to #11.

Mustangs 13 Blues 6

The Mustangs' two wins are both over the Blues.

Steelers 21 Browns 20

The Browns, SB55 runner-up, hold the #2 ranking again this week

despite the upset loss..

Steelers 23 Wranglers 20

Pittsburgh with two wins this week sit at #25.

Vikings 24 Packers 23

The Vikings have won 4 straight and are now 4 - 1, 39, #16.

Giants 20 Shamrocks 14

This is the Giants 4th straight win.

Texans 17 Titans 14

Texans make the biggest jump of the week - EVER - moving from #103 to #19!

Mustangs 20 Panthers 7

The Mustangs are 3-1, 37, #22. The Panthers, 2-2 #103, have 0 QWBP.

In SB56 tournament play the following games took place this week.

Patriots 10 Trappers 7

Trappers first game - one and done!

Bengals 10 Bobcats 3 Bengals' first SCPC win Blues 10 Rebels 3

Oilers 14 Jets 3

Generals 13 Freedom 9
Generals' first SCPC win.

There you have it. Another week of SCPC action all wrapped up. Keep playing solitaire everybody. If you're not entering your games please do so. The more the merrier. There is plenty of time and room for everyone.

Veliky's Knights hold the number one spot for a third consecutive week. They didn't play, but they gained QWBP as the teams they've defeated won games. Mike now has ten of the top twenty teams. He'll slow down eventually though and the rest of us will catch-up. Those Knights are going to be tough to unseat though. You just keep on playing Mike; we're all jealous! LOL!

Solitaire Coaches' Points Challenge Update Week 18 Sunday January 27 - Saturday February 2, 2013 Super Sunday Update

SCPC Official Stats: 319 total games, 188 different teams, 17 owners/coaches.

Super Sunday is here and the SCPC is adding to the excitement! It seems I say this every update, but the SCPC just keeps growing and growing, so I'll say it again, 'Wow! What a week!' It was a bit more quiet this week with 31 games entered, but those games really shook up the standings. It's no longer big news to have a team hit 50 points, in fact, the entire top 15 has reached that plateau. Forty points is required to be in the top 25 this week. As a few teams near the ten game SCPC cap it will become more interesting to see how they fare as other teams catch up in games played, and how their owners strategize to keep their teams on top -see below for a rules clarification regarding the ten game cap. Let's get to the leagues, games, and new rankings!

LeMay's World League of American Professional Football had two contests this week. Each of his newest teams, the So. California Sun and the Memphis Southmen came up short. The Sun lost to the high flying Jets who are now 6 - 0 58 #5, and our 4th bowl eligible team. Meanwhile the Packers defeated the Southmen. The Peckers (not a typo) are now 4 - 4 52 #13; with 8 games played they are highly ranked, and hoping for two more wins to become bowl eligible.

Over in Ed's College Football Association the Texas Longhorn's high expectations took a big blow as Texas Tech held off a late rally to give the Longhorns their first loss 21 - 14. Tech is now 3 - 2 38 #30 and Texas is at 2 - 1 23 #74. SMU got their first win since week one as they defeated A&M 26 - 14. Both teams are now 2 - 3 but A&M has four more SCPC points. In a late Saturday game TCU, 2 - 3 31 #45, knocked off Houston, 2 - 4 35 #19, 31 - 23.

In Western Michigan the Fairies shored up their defenses and avoided a Bee sting with a 28 - 7 win. It was the first SCPC win for San Francisco moving them up to #82 from 124 with a 1 - 3 22 record. The Bees, also 1 - 3, have 20 points and sit at #89. In what may be the game of the year so far though the South Park Cows, led by Kenny's 4 TD's, hung a SCPC record 52 points on the Zombies. The game of the year also produced the quote of the year, "OH MY GOD, KENNY KILLED THE ZOMBIES WITH 4 TD'S! THAT B@STARD!" The Zombies who just got their QWBP tallied this week are now 2 - 2 32 #41 while the Cows remain the WMLMF's top SCPC team at 4 - 0 39 #26.

Owen's Skulls got another game in this week. They took down his Dad's UMD Bulldogs in an OT thriller 35 - 28. The Skulls returned the OT kick-off for the winning TD. Dad's Bulldogs are 0 - 2 9 #150 while the Skulls are 5 - 1 41 #21. Watch out for these Skulls as they have gotten GSBP with every win, and Owen is figuring this out and plans to play some games between the teams the Skulls are defeating in order to earn them some QWBP as well.

Two late week AFC West games were played by Ray Sugg in his Dream Season. The Broncos beat the Chiefs 17 - 14 and the Raiders won over San Diego 21 - 14. The Broncos' win earned them a two point Division Bonus as they are 3.3 Limited while the Chiefs 4.0 Inclusive. The AFC West standings are San Diego 0 - 3 7 #159, Kansas City 1 - 2 16 #110, Denver 2 - 1 20 #87, Oakland 3 - 0 25 #67.

Once again we've arrived at Mike Vileky's NJLMFL results which include 21 games this week. Results from the mini-tournament are as follows: Wildcats 21 Outlaws 3, Chiefs 14 Bobcats 7, Renegades 17 Jets 13, Warriors 24 49ers 21, Shamrocks 24 Panthers 17, Wranglers 17 Titans 13, Jets 23 Brigade 20 OT, 49ers 27 Packers 20, Vikings 31 Shamrocks 20, Ravens 21 Jaguars 17, Steelers 31 Jets 8, 49ers 27 Giants 21, Wranglers 22 Chiefs 17, Oilers 16 Generals 7, Dolphins 30 Chargers 14, Broncos 17 Colts 16, Eagles 19 Lions 6, Bills 28 Raiders 24, Rams 24 Buccaneers 10, and in the SB56 tournament the Cyclones beat the Saints 24 - 3 and the Montana Mavericks, in their first ever game, beat the Falcons 17 - 6.

So, with all that NJLMFL action who's hot and who's not? The Falcons, Saints, and Outlaws are ice cold. All three are 0 - 3 and eliminated from SB56 contention. If you want to see their ranking you'll need to scroll way down the list! The Steelers are hot. Pittsburgh has won four straight games all worth QWBP. They are 4 - 1 58 #6. Easily the top ranked four win team. The Vikings are hot, winning five in a row making them 5 - 1 52 #12. No one is hotter than the 49ers though who played three games this week. Despite a huge upset loss to El Paso the Niners bounced back with big wins over Green Bay and New York. Going 2 - 1 this week alone earned them 26 points. The San Francisco 49ers, owned by Mike Veliky, are our new #1 team at 7 - 2 86.

On a side note the Wranglers' 22 - 17 win over the Chiefs is a great example of the SCPC points system working to perfections. The Wranglers have won 3 of their last four games while the Chiefs had won 3 in a row coming into the contest with Omaha. Both teams are now 3 - 2. Omaha has earned 14 QWBP in their last two wins, while the Chiefs have a total of just 4. The Wranglers have played a much more difficult schedule, and are winning against teams with wins themselves. The Chiefs have 28 total points and are #53 while the Wranglers have 39 points and are #29.

Recently, when reporting SCPC games a few coaches have been adding a comment about the game in the score box. Please feel free to do this. It gives me material for these updates.

Finally, with the #1 49ers having played nine games, and several others with eight, I want to remind everyone that teams get a maximum of ten SCPC games. However, that does not mean a team's SCPC season is over once they hit ten. Any games they play beyond ten just don't earn them additional points. There is still an incentive for teams with ten games played to keep going as every time they beat a team with less than ten wins it keeps that team from getting QWBP and catching up. So, you owners nearing ten games with some of your teams better get out your strategy pads and do some planning.

On more reminder that all SCPC information can be found on the MFCA web site under SCPC. Plus, these weekly updates are now being posted in a SCPC blog as well. Check it out and feel free to contribute.

Keep playing solitaire, and enjoy the Super Bowl!

Solitaire Coaches' Points Challenge Update Week 19 Sunday February 4 - Saturday February 10, 2013 THE HALF WAY POINT

SCPC Official Stats:

21 games, 3 new teams, & 1 new owner/coach this week 340 total games, 191 different teams, 18 owners/coaches

For a number of weeks now I have concluded the SCPC Weekly Update with all the action in Mike Veliky's incredible NJLMFL, but this week we're going to start there. As always Mike registered some great games, interesting scenarios, and reached some SCPC milestones.

Mike's mini-season wrapped up with eleven games: Bears 21 Raiders 10, Saints 20 Seahawks 3, Dolphins 20 Raiders 10, Falcons 28 Lions 7, Thunder 17 Pirates 16, Longhorns 35 Metros 10, Renegades 27 Steelers 21 OT, Texans 26 Wranglers 21, Giants 20 Cardinals 10, Texans 35 Renegades 31, 49ers 31 Giants 14.

Here's a few comments from Mike on his mini-season and teams.

"My mini-season ended up with the 49ers winning the NFC and the Texans winning the AFC. I did play a game with the 49ers and Texans and Houston won 17-14. I wasn't sure if I should post this game or not. This was a season devoted to finding out who were my strongest and weakest teams. The reason I did this was to replace the bases on the weaker teams to make them better. My goal is to have as much parity as possible for my Super Bowl Tournaments and so far it has worked. I know I am still in the early stages of SB56 and so far I have not had one team totally dominate another. SB56 has 62 entries. Only the Delaware Destroyers and Toronto Rapids were not painted in time for this tournament. I love doing the expansion teams so I can get as many great players into my league. My league consists of players that were active since Super Bowl 1 to present. This gives me 47 years and thousands of players to pick from plus the newcomers coming in each year. I know I said I would stop at 64 teams but I do want to add a couple of more teams from Canada and the USFL so I will be going to 72 teams and then I'll see from there."

Speaking of SB56 play, Mike also got four tournament games in this week: 500's 17 Panthers 6, Blues 14 Mustangs 6, Ravens 13 Jaguars 10, Vikings 21 Mayericks 14.

After 21 more NJLMFL games Who's Hot & Who's Not?

Not:

Redskins 0 - 3 12 Seahawks 0 - 3 9 Oakland 0 - 4 16

Hot:

The Steelers were hot last week, but an overtime loss to the Renegades ended Pittsburgh's steak at five wins. The Renegades would have made the hot list, but after beating the Steelers they lost to the Texans.

Texans 5 - 1 67 - The Texans knocked off the Wranglers and Renegades this week. With five consecutive wins Houston has risen to #6. If Mike chooses to enter their Mini-Season Final win over the 49ers they will creep ever closer to the top spot.

49ers 8 - 2 107 - The 49ers became the first SCPC team to reach the ten game plateau. Fittingly, they are #1 for a second week. They can keep playing, but may not accumulate any more points based on their games. They will continue to get QWBP when the eight teams they defeated win games. San Francisco's motivation now becomes winning SB56, and keeping anyone from catching them. They can't get points for winning, but their opponents also don't get key QWBP for losing.

Vikings 6 - 1 60 - The Vikings have won six in row and are ranked #10. It took a goal line stand to hold off the upstart Mavericks. The Viking's schedule has not been the most difficult giving them fewer QWBP than other teams, but they have advanced in SB56 play and will face tougher foes soon.

The Daytona 500's also deserve mention this week winning their first ever game in a SB56 match-up with Carolina.

The most interesting game of the week may have been the Blues 14 - 6 win over the Mustangs. What's interesting is that the two teams have met three times now. The Mustangs won the first two meetings, but the Blues won the most important game advancing in the SB tournament.

In DREAM SEASON play the NFC West was in action, I believe completing week three. St. Louis defeated Seattle 28 - 21. San Francisco squeezed by Seattle 17 - 14. The Rams are undefeated, the 49ers are 2 - 1, the Cardinals have one win, and the Seahawks are winless. The undefeated division leaders in the Dream Season and their ranks are as follows: Packers 54, Colts 57, Raiders 69, Rams 70, Dolphins 75, Buccaneers 80, Cowboys 85, & Steelers 86. As the Dream Season advances it will be interesting to see which of these teams rises to the top of the rankings.

Ed's College Football Association had just one game, but it was a dandy. Baylor, led by RG3's five touchdown passes, walloped previously undefeated Arkansas 45 - 27. The two teams are the top ranked ECFA teams at numbers 15 and 23.

The SCPC is very excited to have Walt Davis on board as the newest owner/coach. In the first game on the road to Wally Bowl 3 the Dolphins handed the Chiefs a convincing decision 28 - 0. We look forward to many great WMEFL games from the Bat Cave.

In the WLAPF the Colts assured the Packers of not being bowl eligible with a 20 - 18 win. The Colts, now 2 - 2, handed the Packers their fifth loss to go with four wins. A .500 season is now the best the Packers can hope for, and that won't make you bowl eligible in the SCPC or anywhere else for that matter.

The best news in week 19 however is that C A Panther Electric Football is back in action. Charles is feeling well enough after his bypass surgery to get back to playing. Charles started off with a new team, the Oakland Raiders, handling the Broncos 28 - 7 in the first game of his Season 23. Glad you're feeling better Charles.

Veliky is dominating the Challenge at the halfway point. He owns nine of the top ten and fifteen of the top twenty teams. LeMay, Morgans, and Angell are the only other owners with top twenty teams. That can all change in a hurry though. Owen, Suggs, and Dunham are all just a few wins away, and now Batman is in the house too.

Which team will catch Veliky's 49ers? The total points bar has been set, and the race is on! The second half of the SCPC will be better than first with even more teams, more coaches, and the first ever Solitaire National Champion.

Note: I didn't get links in this week, but check out all the detailed action in the forum threads.

Solitaire Coaches' Points Challenge Update Week 20 Sunday February 10 - Saturday February 16, 2013

SCPC Official Stats:

- 13 games 3 new bowl eligible teams this week
- 353 total games, 191 different teams, 18 owners/coaches
- 9 bowl eligible teams

Charles Angell is back into the swing of things. He completed six games this week: Colts 26 Packers 20 OT, Cowboys 17 Redskins 14, Eagles 14 Vikings 0, Rams 24 Browns 14, Bills 17 Chargers 6, and Oilers 14 Jets 13. The Rams became bowl eligible with their win. They are now 6-1 68 and ranked #10. The Bills Chargers game was a rematch. The Bills have won both now. The first meeting was 17 - 7. That's consistency.

Mike Veliky rolled along with six games this week as well: Texans 17 49ers 14, Chargers 7 Bengals 6, Giants 22 Show Boats 7, Wildcats 27 Patriots 10, Dolphins 13 Renegades 7, and 500's 7 Eagles 6. The Texans 49ers game brought Mike's mini-season to a close. With the Championship win the Texans are now bowl eligible with a record of 6-1 88 ranked #2. The 49ers hold on to the top spot this week. The game was the 49ers' eleventh game so they get no points, but missed the chance to slow the Texans' climb to the top. The Texans have three games left to earn points. Their next win may put them on top. The Giants gained bowl eligibility with their win. New York is 6-3 82 #4. Mike noted that the 500's win over the Eagles was a big upset. The 500's have now won two SB56 games, are 2-0 21 #94, and are the most highly ranked 2-0 team in the Challenge. Keep an eye on this team. They may be the next Columbus Knights.

Chris LeMay's Jets, one of two undefeated bowl eligible teams, defeated the Vikings 21 - 20 to move to 7-0 73 #6.

With more bowl eligible teams each week the news of our sponsorships is very exciting. Now, not only is every SCPC team playing for the National Championship of the SCPC, there are trophies and prizes on the line. We are over halfway through our Challenge, but there is still plenty of time for any solitaire coach to get involved and see if one of their teams can win the Challenge.

Be sure to check out all the game photos and descriptions in the forum's solitaire section.

Solitaire Coaches' Points Challenge Update Week 21 Sunday February 17 - Saturday February 23, 2013

SCPC Official Stats:

18 games, 1 new team this week

371 total games, 192 different teams, 18 owners/coaches 9 bowl eligible teams

It was a strange week in the SCPC. It seemed to be a week of, for the most part, bad teams playing bad teams. Thirteen games were entered when I went to bed Saturday night. When I got up Sunday morning five more games had come in. Of the 26 teams taking part in the first 13 games only 9 had winning records after the results were entered. The 13 winning teams from those games have a combined record of 31 - 29. The 29 losses came at the hands of 27 different teams all of whom earned at least two QWBP based on the outcomes. As a result, there wasn't much movement in the rankings, especially at the top. I added in the five games that came in late Saturday night this morning. There were a few more top tier teams involved but not much more movement was created in the rankings.

Early on it was looking like a quieter week so I had planned to go into some more detail on each game/team and their movement in the rankings this week. Now that there are eighteen games again I'm going to do it anyway. Sorry if it gets a little long.

Seven NJLMFL games were reported this week.

The Orlando Thunder defeated the Tampa Bay Buccaneers 7 - 6. Orlando now sits at 2-2 23 #95. That's a jump of 32 spots. Tampa Bay is 2-4 35 #50, up six spots. The Buccaneers had a chance at the end but choked. The win by Orlando awarded two QWBP to El Paso and Boston. Boston who did not play a game this week dropped three spots from #39 to #42 despite earning two additional QWBP. El Paso won a game of their own so their status is updated later.

Omaha defeated Indianapolis 12 - 10. Omaha, 4-3 49, won with a 52 yard field goal as time expired. The points earned in the win move Omaha up four spots to #24. Indianapolis is now 2-4 41 moving up five to #36.. Baltimore, Pittsburgh, and Houston all earn two QWBP as a result of Omaha's win. Houston, #2, and Pittsburgh, #11, hold their place in the rankings while Baltimore drops two places to #44.

Reno nearly doubled up Washington 17 - 9 in earning their first ever home win.. Reno now has 3 wins 1 loss and 26 points while Washington is 0-4 16. Reno jumps twenty places to #78. Washington moves up eleven to #125. The win by Reno gave top ranked San Francisco two additional points.

Oakland 1-4 23 moved up twenty-two places to #99 with a 10 - 7 win over Portland. The loss moved Portland to 1-2 14 yet boosted them twenty-one spots to #133. The Oakland win gave the four teams they've lost to two QWBP each. Virginia #129 moved up three spots, Kansas City held at #54, Buffalo held at #13, and Miami moved up one spot to #16

Montreal defeated Chicago 30 - 16. This is the most points Mike has had so far playing in his short game rule format. Montreal moves to 2-4 35 and up thirty places to #52 while Chicago gets a boost of just three places to #96 with their 2-3 record and 23 SCPC points. The Metros previously lost to Cleveland, Hartford, Minnesota, and Oklahoma. Cleveland #5 and Minnesota #12 held their ground. Hartford jumped over LeMay's Jets into the #6 spot.

Oklahoma combined their two QWBP from the Montreal win with a win of their own over Dakota. The Longhorns sacked the Outlaw quarterback five times in the win. The week's results move Oklahoma to 3-2 35 up twelve places to #49. Dakota, now 0-4 15, did move up nineteen places but are still way down at #133. Vicksburg and Kansas City gain two QWBP thanks to the Longhorn win. As previously mentioned the Chiefs held their #54 place in this week's rankings. Vicksburg, 4-1 40, also hold their ground at #37.

Like Oklahoma El Paso combined two QWBP from another game (Orlando over Tampa Bay) with a win of their own over Green Bay 10 - 7. The Warriors are looking strong with a 4-1 54 status that moved them up nine spots into the top twenty at #18. Green Bay, 2-4 35, moved up six to #51. Dallas defeated El Paso way back in October and used the two bonus points they receive from the Warrior win to hold their #8 ranking.

ECFA recorded two games in week 21.

Houston kept their high powered offense going and handed Texas a second loss 28 - 25. QB Andre Ware was a big factor on all four Cougar TDs. Houston avoided being eliminated from bowl contention with the win. They are now 3-4 46 and move up from #45 to #28. Texas is a very disappointing 2-2 30, but they did move up from #84 to #65. Houston's four losses have come at the hands of Oklahoma State, Texas Christian, Arkansas, and Baylor. With their two QWBP TCU dropped from #53 to #56, OSU moved up two places from 138 to 136, and Arkansas is up one to #25. Baylor's status is updated below.

Texas and Houston's new rankings were also both helped with a pair of QWBP's as a result of Southern Methodist University's doubling up Rice 28 - 14. The win evens SMU's standing at 3-3 41 which is good for a jump from #48 to #35. Rice drops to 1-5 25 and moves up four spots to #88.

Baylor earned QWBP from both the Houston and SMU wins and remain ECFA's top team with a 4-2 57. The Bears are up six spots and sit at #14.

The DREAM SEASON brought us the best match-ups of week 21 as the second round of round robin play got underway.

Miami stayed undefeated with a 24-21 win over previously unbeaten Baltimore (Colts). Miami, 4-0 37, moves up thirty spots from #74 to #44. Baltimore, 3-1 36, jumps five spots to #55. Since Miami has not lost to anyone, no one, except them, gets any QWBP from this game.

Denver took out the other team from Baltimore, the Ravens, 17 - 14. Denver is now 3-1 29 while Baltimore is in trouble at 2-2 22. The Broncos are #69. The Ravens are #101.

Denver's single loss is to the Raiders who need the QWBP they get from Denver after losing to lower division team. Oakland, from the Unlimited Division lost to Pittsburgh from the 4.0 Inclusive Division 17 - 14. Pittsburgh is undefeated at 4-0 and with the help of the DBP for the win over an Unlimited team now have 34 SCPC points which is good for the #53 rank. Oakland, 3-1 32, is right behind them at #58.

New England destroyed Jacksonville 35 - 7 in the fourth and final Dream Season game this week. New England is 3-1 31 #60 and Jacksonville falls to 2-2 18 #112. Miami got QWBP since they are the only team to defeat the Patriots so far.

CAPEF had one week 21 contest.

Kansas City defeated Miami 21 - 17. The Chiefs rise to 2-1 17 and jump twenty places to #119. The loss was Miami's first SCPC contest. They debut at #183. Despite getting two QWBP as a result of the Chief's win the Jets drop two places to #45.

Al reported three WMLMF games.

Kalamazoo kept Kansas City out of the win column by a one point margin. The Killer Bees get an additional two Game Scenario Bonus Points since the Sumos are owned by Weirdwolf, and are now 2-3 27. They rose twenty-four places to #76. The Super Sumos, 0-5 21, are #107. Killer Bee losses have been to London 3-1 29 down four #68, South Park 4-0 43 up five to #30, and San Francisco 1-3 24 down three to #93.

New Zealand put the chill on the Arctic 38 - 14. The Zombies reach 3-2 41 with the win and rise to thirteen to #34. The Tundra are just 1-4 28 and drop one spot to #74. The Werewolves and the Cows benefit from the Zombie win with QWBP. The Werewolves jump up seven to #71. The Cows got their second pair of QWBP from this win and as mentioned are #30.

The Mennonites defeated the Third Reich 28 - 17. The good guys are now 2-3 28 #72 up from the 105 spot. The bad guys are a well-deserved 1-4 26, up two to #83. Three Mile Island, Weirdwolve's, and Egypt all get QWBP from the game. The Wolves are again #71. Egypt is #67; down four. The Waste are also down four at #75.

The MOFL had the final results of the week.

The Pacific Sharks shut out the Possum Lake Lodge Golden Ducts 13 - 0. The Sharks, 2-1 26, earned three Game Scenario Bonus Points with the win, and jumped all the way from #146 to #81 while the Ducts, 1-1 12, only went up nine to #143. The large jump by the Sharks is partly due to the fact that they also received an additional four GSBP that had been miscalculated from a previous game - oops. The Shark's loss was to New England. The two QWBP they earn from the game move them up to #135.

Well, I again apologize for this week's update being a half a week late and also for it being so long. I wanted to show how much one game can impact the rankings. Maybe I'm weird, but I find it fascinating.

Solitaire Coaches' Points Challenge Update Week 22 Sunday February 14 - Saturday March 2, 2013

SCPC Official Stats: 14 games and 1 new team this week 382 total games, 193 different teams, 18 owners/coaches 9 bowl eligible teams

With just fourteen games entered in the SCPC this week it was another opportunity for me to be more detailed in my update. Each of the fourteen games is summarized below in the order they were reported. Game summaries are followed by a chart that details each team that earned points during the week and how their ranking was affected.

Based on the outcome of this week's fourteen games, an amazing 50 teams gained points. Of the 193 SCPC only 42 kept the same ranking from last week; all of which are near either the top or bottom of the rankings. All that from just fourteen games and here they are.

In Mantaraydre's Helmet Row Show the Colorado Buffalos defeated the newly registered Arkansas Razorbacks 14 - 0. Colorado earned 7 points with the win and are now 2-1 18. Arkansas got just 3 points for a 0-1 3 mark. Miami gets two QWBP from the game as well.

In Chris LeMay's World League of American Professional Football the Oilers won over the Chiefs 19 - 10. The Oilers are now 3-1 39 with their only loss to Cleveland. The Chiefs are one loss away from being eliminated from postseason eligibility at 3-4 51.

In Ray Sugg's Dream Season the undefeated 1977 Dallas Cowboys met the also undefeated 2002 Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Despite playing up two divisions the Bucs came away still undefeated by a final of 24 - 21. Dallas drops to 3-1 27 while the Bucs go to 4-0 36.

The once defeated 1985 Chicago Bears faced the also once defeated 1989 San Francisco 49ers in a second Dream Season contest. The heavier Bears (Unlimited) pulled out a 21 - 14 win over the 49ers (4.0 Inclusive). San Francisco's Dream Season is in jeopardy at 2-2 23 while Chicago has rebounded from their week 1 loss to Green Bay to be at 3-1 27. The Bears should be getting another shot at the Packers soon.

The action now turns to Mike Velikey's North Jersey Legends Miniature Football League where the Charleston Pirates took care of business against the Seattle Seahawks. Mike noted that 'My Seahawks suck!', and he surely was correct since the Pirates now are at a not so impressive 2-3 29 while the Seahawks are at a near SCPC low of 0-4 12. The Orlando Thunder benefit from the Pirate win but not as much as the Arizona Cardinals who have defeated Charleston twice. The Pirate win gives Arizona four QWBP.

Speaking of teams you have that suck Mike, what about the West Virginia Cougars now 0-5 21 after allowing the Tennessee Titans, 5-3 60, to score late and officially eliminate them from postseason eligibility? The Titans, now one game shy of the six required wins for post season, have losses to Denver, Houston, and Omaha who all receive two QWBP with the Titan win.

Ed Morgans had an interesting game in Ed's College Football Association in which the TCU Horned Frogs defeated the Texas Tech Red Raiders 20 - 13. LT ran for 132 and 2 and caught a pass for the Horned Frogs' third score. Meanwhile Bam Morris set an ECFA record with ten receptions. Wow! What really is interesting though is that both teams are now 3-3. The Frogs now have 45 total SCPC points while the Red Raiders have 44. The Frogs should be rated more highly though since their three losses have come to three of ECFA's top teams in Arkansas 4-1 50, SMU 3-3 43, and Baylor 4-2 59 all of whom get two QWBP for the TCU win. The Red Raiders' also lost to Arkansas, but they let one get away against A & M 2-3 37.

More NJLMFL action came pouring in late in the week.

The luck of the Irish came up big as the Boston Shamrocks improved to 4-3 49 with a 21-13 win over the San Jose Breakers 2-3 28. Mike reported that it was a strong game for the Shamrocks. The top ranked 49ers, and the highly ranked Giants and Vikings all earn QWBP from the Boston win.

Apparently the 49ers have the luck of the Irish as well. With all ten games played for SCPC scoring the 49ers are relying strictly on QWBP to keep their hold on the #1 ranking. An error was found in their QWBP formula in their early season win over the Shamrocks. It was incorrectly linked to the Sharks instead of the Shamrocks. The correction netted San Francisco four additional QWBP that they should have had all along.

Virginia Brigade took advantage of two Pittsburgh Steeler turnovers to pull off a huge upset by the score of 20 - 7. The win evens Virginia's record at 2-2 and picks them up eight QWBP for a total of 30 SCPC points. Pittsburgh's SB56 quest comes to an early end with an overall SCPC standing of 4-3 69. The Hartford Renegades and the New York Jets also benefit from Virginia's big win with QWBP.

The Los Angeles Rams also took advantage of two turnovers as they rolled to an easy victory over Detroit 24 - 10. The Rams improve to 3-2 38 while the Lions, at 1-5 24, are officially eliminated from postseason bowl eligibility. The Vikings and Warriors reap QWBP benefits with the Ram victory.

This is one of the most difficult games I've had to report out of all the SCPC games. Chris LeMay obviously had his board set incorrectly in order to get the Packers to destroy the Vikings 36 - 3. The Vikings, after suffering one of the worst losses in SCPC history, have now lost two in a row after winning four straight following an opening loss for a record of 4-3 56. The Packers become the second SCPC team to play out the ten game maximum, but have a mark of 5-5 74, leaving them one game shy of bowl eligibility. The Chiefs, Raiders, Cowboys, Jets, and Colts were the five teams to defeat Green Bay. All are rewarded with extra QWBP.

The Dream Season combined NFC Central-Western Division wrapped up week four in Dream Season play with a pair of late week games being reported. The front running Green Bay Packers took care of the St. Louis Rams 21 - 7. The Packers go to 4-0 44 and the Rams are now 3-1 28. Since the Packers are undefeated no other teams get QWBP from the contest.

In the second DSEFL contest the once beaten each Redskins and Saints battled for their Dream Season lives. The heavier Redskins prevailed 21 - 14. The Saints drop to 2-2 21 and will be lucky to see the next round now. Washington, now 3-1 29, await their rematch with Dallas who earns two QWBP as a result of the Washington win.

Week 22 SCPC action wraps up in the WMLMF where the Battlin' Bozos of Battle Creek were three points better than the Canadian Sasquatch, 31 - 28. Both teams are now 3-2. The Bozos have a slight edge in SCPC points after the win 35 - 31. The Rams and the Zombies have defeated the Bozos earning them each two additional QWBP.

There you have it. That's how all fourteen games were reported and how they affected each team's record and total points. Very little movement was seen in the top rankings and no more teams earned bowl eligibility again this week, but that just means that we are ever closer to huge changes. The Dream Season by Ray Sugg is a few short games away from seeing teams break the top ten and become bowl eligible. Some dream rematches should also be on tap soon. Mike Velikeys SB56 tournament will hit the next round soon too putting more top ranked teams on the electric gridiron. A few other coaches have been quite lately, but will be feeling the pressure because an idle team is a falling team in the SCPC.

Solitaire Coaches' Points Challenge Update Week 23

Sunday March 3 - Saturday March 9, 2013

SCPC Official Stats:

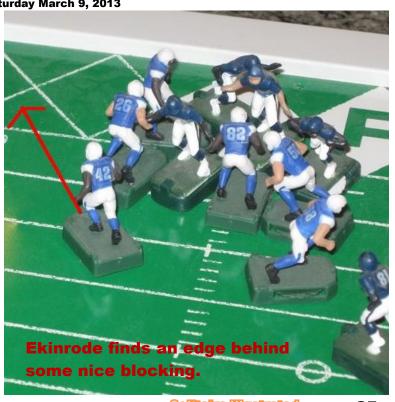

22 new games, 1 new owner/coach, & 15 new teams this week 404 total games, 208 different teams, 19 owners/coaches 9 bowl eligible teams

Here we go with another recap of a great week of SCPC solitaire action from all across the MFCA.

In the final game of the NJLMFL SB56 tournament the highly ranked Houston Texans downed the Kansas City Chiefs 20 - 3. Houston becomes the second team to break the 100 SCPC barrier. The second round of SB56 play has gotten off to a shocking start with the number 1 and number 2 seeds in each conference, all four highly ranked in the SCPC, going down to expansion teams. The defending champion Columbus Knights started the streak off with a 9 - 6 loss to the Daytona 500's. The Virginia Brigade pulled off upset number two over the Browns 24 - 7. The Dallas Cowboys fell to the Charleston Pirates 13 - 10. Upset four saw the New Jersey Generals eliminate Buffalo 14 - 13.

Mike is still dominating the top ten of the SCPC, but with the upsets he had this week the door is open for others to jump in over the next few weeks. Three of Mike's seven top ten teams are out of the tournament, a forth, #1 ranked San Francisco, has played the maximum of ten SCPC games. They can still try to beat down the competition, but will only receive additional points via QWBP. There a lot of teams poised to jump in. Read on to find out who's.

I finally completed week eight of my NINE-MAN League this week. The Grattan Swamp Loggers literally ran away from the Caldwell Busties 34 - 27. It was a full length, 80+ play game, so the game write up is taking me awhile. I'll post it on the forum when it's done..

Maybe the best SCPC news of the week is out of the NMEFL. Brian Wittkop and his Northern Michigan Electric Football League's Big Ten season bring a lot of great college teams to the SCPC. It's hard to believe we have over 200 teams registered and this is the first occurrence of great programs such as Ohio State. Among Brain's week one results are non-conference wins for Northwestern over Miami 19 - 7, lowa over Georgia 17 - 7, Ohio State over Clemson 28 - 10, Minnesota over Oklahoma State 24 - 0, Michigan State over Ole Miss 21 - 7, and Purdue over VaTech 14 - 7. The only Big Ten loss was Wisconsin going down to USC 14 - 3. This great league consists of the original Big Ten teams so we've yet to see Michigan, Illinois, and Indiana. It looks like Brian plans to play a full schedule, so even though his teams are just debuting in the SCPC rankings look for the top Big Ten teams to rise to the top of the SCPC as well. Great to have you taking part Brain.

Speaking of rising to the top of the SCPC rankings, Ray Suggs's top DREAM SEASON teams are on a quest to do just that. In fact, with week 5 of the Dream Season underway we have our first top 25 Dream Team. The 1972 Miami Dolphins stayed unbeaten and in the process handed Denver their second loss 21 - 7. The Colts bounced back from their first loss and handed the Ravens their third defeat 17 - 14. Pittsburgh kept pace with Miami by defeating the Patriots 28 - 10, and the Raiders avoid a second loss with a 14 - 3 win over Jacksonville.

Charles Angell's CAPEF had a couple of top flight teams doing battle this week. The Baltimore Colts are now one win shy of becoming bowl eligible with a 21 - 10 over powerful Philadelphia. Best wishes to you Charles for continued recovery from your recent health battles.

Finally, up in Western Michigan, Al Dunham's That 70's Rams also reach the five win plateau with a 21 - 17 win over Egypt.

We are still sitting at just nine bowl eligible teams, all from the 3.3 Limited division, but there are nine 5 win teams right on the doorstep. Five of those nine have one or no losses! They also include several teams from the 3.3 Tweaked and 4.0 Inclusive divisions. With Brain Wittkop's newly added teams playing in the Unlimited ranks we are sure to see things getting more and more interesting as the week pass.

There you have it. Short and sweet this week.

I'd like to put the call out to any and all solitaire coaches that it's not too late to join in the fun of the SCPC. We still have sixteen weeks of regular season play to go. That's plenty of time to get one of your teams bowl eligible, and with a couple bowl sponsors on board already there is going to be more at stake than just bragging rights.......

Solitaire Coaches' Points Challenge Update Week 24 Sunday March 10 - Saturday March 16, 2013

SCPC Official Stats: 13 new games & 8 new teams this week

416 total games, 216 different teams, 19 owners/coaches

9 bowl eligible teams

After 24 weeks of SCPC action we have reached a number of milestones, way more than we ever imagined when this began. Several more 'firsts' occurred this week; one of which blew me away! We are still stuck on just nine bowl eligible teams though, all in the 3.3 Limited division. However, there has been some movement near the top of the rankings, and a number of teams from the other three divisions are climbing the rankings and sitting at four and five wins. We're starting to see some new teams entering the top twenty-five, and - here's the shocker of the week - a number of coaches actually played more games than Mike Veliky this week. Never thought we'd see that. LOL! Makes me wonder what Dogwood30 is up to. Actually I know, he told me he did some painting this week.

Our newest SCPC owner/coach, Brain Wittkop, is playing NMEFL games at a Doogwood30 style pace. He completed week one of the Big Ten schedule. Washington defeated Illinois 17 - 14, Indiana handled FSU 21 - 10, and Michigan crushed Notre Dame 28 - 7. Week two is underway in the Big Ten now with Ohio State doubling up Penn State 14 - 7 and lowa pulled one out over Texas 21 - 17.

Brian now has 22 teams entered in the SCPC. Ohio State and Iowa, both at 2-0, are his front runners. They are both way down in the overall rankings, but are just a few games behind the top ranked Unlimited division teams of Ray Sugg. The Buckeyes jumped up 28 places and the Hawkeyes jumped 34. If Brian keeps playing games at this pace he'll see the top of the rankings quickly. Michigan is the top debuting team at number 165.

Just one game in Mike Veliky's NJLMFL this week. It saw the Arizona Cardinals defeat the Memphis Blues 13 - 10. Curt Warner led a late scoring drive to pull the game out for Arizona. Mike has 64 teams in the SCPC. His San Francisco 49ers remain at #1 this week. Arizona, 4-3, moved up to #17 with this week's win. Their three losses have come to the #5 Giants, the #4 Knights, and the top ranked 49ers.

Chris LeMay took a different approach with his New York Jets this week. He played three games with this club in order to make them the third team to reach the SCPC ten game ceiling. The Jets won all three, defeating Dallas 16 - 15, Kansas City 14 - 12, and Buffalo 10 - 9, and in the process became the first 'perfect' SCPC team with a 10-0 record. They have now amassed 106 total SCPC points making them the new #2 team. The Jets trail the top ranked 49ers by 15 points, but have a lot more opportunities to earn additional QWBP than San Francisco. A breakdown of the two teams shows the 49ers have a slight edge in 'Points Scored' 28 - 24 and 'Points Allowed' 21 - 20. The 49ers are also ahead of New York in QWBP 62 - 52. It will all come down to who beats who as Mike and Chris play games with their other teams. Of course, a number of other coaches will have teams enter the mix at the top of the rankings very soon.

LeMay has 14 teams in the SCPC with the Jets leading the way. His Packers are out of contention at 5-5. His Chiefs, Blazers, and Bills also have five losses. The Cowboys and Vikings are both 4-3.

Ray Sugg's DREAM SEASON kept moving along with two more teams winning second round games. The '85 Bears beat the Bucs 24 - 21 making both teams 4-1 and the '89 49ers defeated the Cowboys 21 - 14, giving each of them a 3-2 record.

Of Sugg's 32 SCPC/Dream Season teams, two, the '72 Dolphins & '75 Steelers, are 5-0. The Packers at 4-0 have a chance to join them while the Raiders, Colts, Bears, and Bucs all sit at 4-1. Look for some Dream Teams to become bowl eligible and crack the top twenty as Ray completes the second round of play.

In Al's WMLMF the Ferries came flaming out of San Francisco and burned the Cadavers 38 - 35. Both teams are now 2-3. Of Al's 16 SCPC teams, That '70's Rams at 5-0 and the South Park Cows at 4-0 lead the way. Both will be looking to earn post season eligibility and enter the top twenty as Al wraps up his fantasy league in the coming weeks.

Another week of solitaire action around the MFCA is already underway, and the SCPC will continue to track it all and let you know whose teams are the 'best' out there. The only way your teams don't earn points is if you don't enter their games. I know there are lots more solitaire coaches out there. Why not find out how your league and teams stack up?

Note regarding the rankings: You may note that there are not ties in the rankings anymore. Teams are sorted and ranked 1 - 216. Teams with equal points, wins, and losses are ranked alphabetically. The new program I'm using only allows three sort criteria so I can no longer break ties based on previous rank. With that said, if you want your team ranked higher than the other equal teams you're going to have to change their name or play some games with them. Please don't change any team names; O).

Solitaire Coaches' Points Challenge Update Week 25

Sunday March 17 - Saturday March 23, 2013

SCPC Official Stats:
13 new games & 5 new teams this week
429 total games, 221 different teams, 19
owners/coaches
9 bowl eligible teams
14 Weeks Remaining

Brian Wittkop's NMEFL led the SCPC with 6 games this week.

Notre Dame 14 Michigan State 10 Indiana 21 North Carolina 10 Northwestern 21 Oklahoma 14 Michigan 28 Arkansas 0 Minnesota 19 Syracuse 11 Wisconsin 19 Arizona 7 Michigan is the top ranked NMEFL team at #119. As Brain finishes up week two of Big Ten play, and gets week three rolling, look for his undefeated teams to crack the top 100.

Chris LeMay's WLAPF Cleveland Browns moved to 4-2 with a win over the Chiefs. The loss dropped Kansas from postseason consideration. The Browns move up to #25 with the win. The game also earned New York two QWBP which breaks a tie giving them outright control of the #2 spot in our rankings.

Mike Veliky's NJLMFL have a new team flirting with the upper rankings. The Miami Dolphins unloaded on Denver 31 - 10. Miami, now 5-2, enter the top ten at #9. Velikey's 49ers continue in the #1 ranking for the eighth consecutive week.

In my Helmet Row Show NSIC conference my UM Golden Gophers suffered their first EVER loss! In state underdog UMD destroyed the Gophers 31 - 10. UM is #87 and UMD is #115.

Charles Angell's CAPEF saw the Houston Oilers defeat Buffalo 17 - 14. Houston may be the team to watch in the coming weeks at 2-1. A few more wins will give them a SB title and push them way up in the rankings.

Week five of the DREAM SEASON must be drawing to a close. Green Bay defeated Washington and St. Louis took care of New Orleans. The Packers are now Sugg's top ranked team at #19. With a number of teams at 5-0 week six of Dream Season play will really shake the SCPC rankings up!

Finally, the South Park Cows put up another 45 points in taking out the London Union Jacks. The Cows, 5-0, are Al Dunham's WMMFL's top ranked team at #28.

Solitaire Coaches' Points Challenge Update Week 26 Sunday March 24 - Saturday March 30, 2013

SCPC Official Stats:

12 new games & 2 new teams this week

441 total games, 223 different teams, 19 owners/coaches

10 bowl eligible teams

13 Weeks Remaining

Week 26 of Solitaire Coaches' Points Challenge competition is recorded and posted. With only twelve games entered this week I'll take some time to analyze the rankings and bowl picture a bit more in this week's update. Interestingly, although there were only twelve games this week, they came in from seven different owners making it a very active week in that regard.

I'll begin with CAPEF where Charles, still on the mend from several health issues, played a game between the Dallas Cowboys and Los Angeles Rams. Dallas came out on top 17 - 7. The Rams are 6-2 74 #10. I didn't look back to confirm it, but I think they won a SB title several tournaments ago. They are out of this one now though, and will have to hope Charles starts another so they can get their final two SCPC games in. The Rams have an outside chance at a SCBCS Bowl Game if they get all ten games in and win both remaining, but they'd likely need some help in the form of QWBP. The Cowboys are now 4-2 49 with the win and sit at #37. If they can win the current tournament and get deep into the next they too have an outside chance at BCS glory. CAPEF's Philadelphia Eagles are one place above the Rams in the rankings, but are also out of the current tournament. Watch for the Colts to make a move. They defeated the Eagles last week, are 5-1 69, and ranked #16. They are still alive in Charles' current tournament. If they can win it, they will not only become bowl eligible, but will surely challenge the top five and be sitting nicely in the BCS picture. Hope you continue to feel better Charles. Looking forward to more CAPEF action in the coming weeks.

Brian Wittkop Sr. kept his Big Ten non-conference schedule rolling. Illinois wrapped up week two with a 17 - 10 win over Georgia. The Illini even their mark at 1-1 with the win and the Bulldogs drop to 0-2. Three week three games were completed. Indiana and Northwestern jump to 3-0 with wins over UCLA and Florida. Big Ten killer Notre Dame took care of business as well with a win over Purdue. Michigan holds onto the honor of being the NMEFL's top ranked team with a 2-0 mark at #114. Indiana, Northwestern, and the Fighting Irish are ranked 120, 121, & 124. Look for Michigan, as well as Ohio State and Minnesota, both 2-0 too, to break into the top 100 when they play their week three games. If any of the three can win they will move way up. Unfortunately, we'll have to wait a few weeks to find out who will take control of the Big Ten as Brian will be away for a few weeks spending some time with his father who has Alzheimer's. Well wishes to you and your father Brian. We'll be here when you return.

In Nine-Man action my Caldwell Busties got their third win of the season-first SCPC win- with a 19 - 17 win over the Wildwood Woodsmen. The game was played following Velikey's 'short game' system. I really enjoy this format. It allows for exciting games in a fraction of the time it normally takes me to play one. I'll be using it a lot more. All my nine-man teams will be on the outside looking in if I don't get more games in. My Camp 53 Shays are in the best shape at 2-0 in SCPC games. I have two weeks of the regular season remaining. If I can get both, and the playoffs, completed the Shays have the best shot at reaching the six wins needed for bowl eligibility. I don't see a BCS birth for any of my nine-man teams.

Chris LeMay's WLAPF had the Chiefs doing battle with the Cowboys this week. The Cowboys drop to 4-4 after losing to Kansas City 10 - 12. The Chiefs become just the fourth SCPC team to play ten games -three of them LeMay's-, but like LeMay's Packers they will not see postseason play as they are just 4-6. Both teams are ranked in the top 20 however simply on the number of games they have played. SCPC points are earned win or lose so owners who play more games have more highly ranked teams. Winning teams get QWBP and will eventually rise to the top. As more teams reach the ten game plateau both the Cowboys and Chiefs will fade in the rankings, also Dallas can't be completely written off just yet.. Chris's Jets are the only 10-0 SCPC team. They sit at #4 waiting for Chris to play more games that will earn them QWBP. They have a lot of potential QWBP available, and may challenge for not only a BCS berth, but the regular season title as well. They are just 11 points back and need just 6 combined wins from the ten teams they defeated to take over the top spot.

A big upset set the stage for what's to come in Al's WMLMF playoffs. Since Lynn and myself are now eliminated from the fantasy league playoffs who really cares anymore though, right? The Toxic Waste, 3-2 put a pounding on Weirdwolf's Werewolf Wolf Pups, 2-3, shutting them out 24 - 0. Al said, 'This was a shocker and the first shutout in Toxic Waste team history. I also think it was the first shutout of the Werewolves too.' Neither team is looking like a factor in the WMLMF or the SCPC though. The South Park Cows, 5-0 55 #30, and That 70's Rams, 5-0 49 #36, appear to be on a collision course. Look for them to meet in the WMLMF playoffs with the survivor becoming Al's best chance at SCBCS glory.

The road to the SCPC regular season title and BCS Championship still appears to be headed down a road that runs right through the heart of North Jersey where Mike Veliky's Legends Miniature Football League resides. This week the surging Houston Texans, winners of seven consecutive games, stumbled at the worst possible time. They fell to the Baltimore Ravens, 13 - 15, when Flacco found an open Mason for a late 45 yard winning touchdown pass. The Ravens move to 4-2. Being as they are advancing in Mike's SB 56 tournament they still have a shot. Any team that advances in this epic tournament has a chance in the SCPC. The Texans however no longer do. Their amazing run comes to an end with them at 7-2 111 #2. It is possible they will still receive enough QWBP to see a BCS game, but with other teams coming on and them sitting out watching it is not likely. The top ranked San Francisco 49ers, now 9-3, helped themselves out mightily by advancing in the tournament with a 17 - 9 win over the Metros. The 49ers are relying solely on QWBP at this point to keep them on top. The 121 total SCPC points they have amassed is more and more beginning to look like the bar everyone else will be reaching for in the home stretch of the SCPC season 1. If they can win Mike's SB56 tournament they have a decent shot at the regular season title and BCS Championship. If the 49ers can't pull off a SB56 tournament championship, whoever does could be that team. Mike has been much more quiet than usual the last few weeks. I hope all is well with you Mike.

That leaves us with the Dream Season tournament of Ray Sugg where we finally get our tenth bowl eligible team. The Miami Dolphins move to 6-0 with a win over the slumping Ravens 17 - 7. Miami is leading the way for the Dream Season teams at #18, and they are the top ranked 4.0 Inclusive team. Not far behind are the Baltimore Colts, 5-1, whose only loss is to Miami. The Colts defeated Elway and the Broncos 21 - 14. The Dream Season still has eight teams with at least four wins to go with one or zero losses. As these teams go head-to-head in the Dream Season playoffs a ton of QWBP will be up for grabs. Whoever wins this amazing tournament is sure to be right there with Velikey's top teams contending for SCPC immortality.

If the SCPC were to end today.....

.......Velikey's 49ers would be the #1 team, winning the 3.3 Limited division, and the regular season title. They would square off against league rival Houston in the BCS 3.3 Limited Bowl sponsored by Tudor games. LeMay and Angell each have several teams in the mix in 3.3 Limited play.

......Ed Morgans would own the 3.3 Tweaked division with the Baylor Bears winning the regular season crown and facing league rival Arkansas in the 3.3 Tweaked BCS Bowl Game sponsored by Buzzball. No 3.3 Tweaked teams are actually bowl eligible yet however. Owen's Skulls, although ranked below a number of Morgans' three and four win teams lead the way with five wins. One more win for the Skulls puts them in the driver's seat at the 3.3 Tweaked level. Don't count out my Row Show teams here either if I can get enough games in to qualify.

....the 4.0 Division is owned by Ray Sugg with four teams still alive in the Dream Season tournament in that division, three of whom are unbeaten. The 1972 Dolphins would win as of now and face the 1966 Green Bay Packers in the 4.0 BCS Bowl. No one else in 4.0 is even close at this point with a few Postal League teams and a couple very quiet owners even registered. Beenutt has one game entered and Morgans' OSU Cowboys play here. I don't know if Ed is going to get to more Cowboy games this season. If Nutt enters more of his 126 team tournament games we have a sleeper on our hands. Until then 4.0 belongs to Sugg.

....Unlimited is also still looking for its first six win, bowl eligible team, but it's just a matter of time. At this time Sugg is in charge here as well with the 1976 Raiders on top followed by his '85 Bears. This is far from a one pony division though with Wittkop and Mantaraydre both competing. Wittkop's Big Ten schedule is sure to produce multiple bowl eligible teams and at least one regular season & BCS contender if he can get it all completed by the SCPC regular season deadline of June 30th. Dre is quiet but once he gets his Row Show conference going the Colorado Buffalos will be a factor here as well.

Remember, Tudor games is sponsoring the SCBCS and the 3.3 Limited Bowl. Buzz Ball is our 3.3 Tweaked Bowl sponsor. We are still looking for two more sponsors. With that said the SCPC isn't just for bragging rights. There are and will be prizes and awards up for grabs.

Of the 19 owner coaches participating xx are what I would call 'active'. The others have either registered just a few games and disappeared or were only registered because their team played a team owned by one of the active owner/coaches. I'd sure like to see a few of these 'inactive' coaches get involved. Postal League guys are encouraged to enter results of the games they play. Beenutt where are you? Batman, are you lost in the Bat Cave? I'd love to see at least one more coach come on board as well to put us at 20 for season 1. I know there are other solitaire coaches out there. It's not too late to join. There are 13 weeks remaining for you to register games. Don't be left out. The final thirteen weeks are going to be very entertaining, and the SCPCBCS, sponsored by Tudor Games, will be amazing.

20 four win teams still alive

12 Weeks Remaining

Brian Wittkop's NMEFL led the way again this week with seven games. I believe Brian completed week three of his Big Ten season, and will take a few weeks off now to take care of family matters. When Brian returns to action he should be getting into Big Ten play where teams will square off and the winners will start earning more QWBP, and rise even higher in the rankings. Brian's games this week were: Michigan 21 Kansas State 6, Michigan State 28 Penn State 21, Ohio State 16 Miami 10, Minnesota 28 Auburn 14, Iowa 14 Arkansas 7, Illinois 24 Wake Forest 18, & Colorado 14 Wisconsin 13.

Michigan broke the top 100. They are 3-0 #94. The Gophers, Buckeyes, Hoosiers, Wildcats, & Hawkeyes are all also 3-0 and ranked between #133 & #120.

Another upset took place in Helmet Row Show NSIC play. My Bemidji State Beavers defeated North Dakota State 17 - 10. With one more game to go in week two of my league BYU is the only team still undefeated. If UND can knock the Cougars off all six teams will be 1-1.

The DREAM SEASON rolled on in week six. Oakland moved to 5-1 with a shutout win over New England, 21 - 0. The Pats are now 3-3 and their dream is over. The Raiders look strong and could be a factor at #31. Pittsburgh looks even stronger though despite just a three point win, 17 - 14, over a feisty 2-4 Jacksonville Jaguars squad. The Steelers are now bowl eligible at 6-0 and move up thirteen spots to #21. I can't wait for week six of Dream Season play to wrap up so we can see who's still in the mix. Week seven will surely land a Dream Team in the top ten.

In Western Michigan, Al played the first round of his WMLMF playoffs. Yours truly correctly predicted the Zombies and '70's Rams as the winners. The Zombies beat the Ra in an uncharacteristically close and low scoring affair 22 - 21. That '70's Rams, in true WMLMF fashion, lit up the scoreboard, and the Bozos, 55-35. The Zombies, now 4-2, are #35, and the Rams, 6-0 and SCPC bowl eligible, are at #23. Coming up we will see the Rams take on the Cows in huge a WMLMF and SCPC contest.

The biggest action of the week took place in the world of CAPEF. First, the Baltimore Colts advanced to SB23 with a 20 - 14 win over Dallas. The win put Baltimore at 6-1, making them bowl eligible, and putting them in position to break the top ten. Next, the Kansas City Chiefs advanced to SB23 with a 20 - 17 win over Houston. In SB23 the Chiefs pulled off what I thought was a bit of an upset when they handily defeated the Colts 28 - 14. The Colts drop to 6-2 with the loss, but do break the top ten in the rankings, rising ten places all the way to #5. The Chiefs, now 5-1, are setting on the doorstep of SCPC postseason eligibility, and rose an amazing sixty-nine places to #37 in the rankings. Charles has also posted in the forum the teams for his next tournament, SB24, which will be a Hog Leg affair. Unfortunately, neither the Colts or Chiefs will be participating. They will have to wait and hope for a spot in another tournament before the end of June or see their SCPC Championship hopes go unrealized. Of the teams in the SB24 tourney, the New York Jets, 3-2 #48 in SCPC play, are the top ranked team. Good luck to Charles and all his teams.

Our top ten is still all 3.3 Limited teams. Mike Veliky, although entering no games this week, is still dominating with seven of the top ten.

Solitaire Coaches' Points Challenge Update Week 28 Sunday April 7 - Saturday April 13, 2013

SCPC Official Stats:

10 new games & 2 new teams this week

466 total games, 228 different teams, 19 owners/coaches

13 bowl eligible teams (six or more wins)

14 five win teams still alive

20 four win teams still alive

11 Weeks Remaining

It was another quiet week in the SCPC, but not an insignificant one. Ten games from five different leagues were entered in week 28. A couple of sleeping giants came out of hibernation, and look to be ready to make their move as the culmination of the first SCPC, the SCBCS, draws ever closer.

Up in Northern Michigan, the NMEFL will be taking a little break. One game that was previously missed in the SCPC standings has been entered. In that contest Purdue defeated Tennessee 17 - 10. The win put the Boilermakers at 2-1 in non-conference play. In what I have as the first game of Brian's fourth and final week of non-conference action, the Northwestern Wildcats became the Big Ten's first four win team with a 15 - 13 win over Alabama. Turnovers and a safety doomed the Tide. NWU is now 4-0 and sit at # 110. Michigan remains the NMEFL's top team at 3-0 # 96. Once Brain enters Big Ten play the top teams will make some noise at the top of the rankings and in the race for SCBCS bids.

To the West, in the WMLMF, the first of Al's two conference championships was played. The Zombies from New Zealand took care of the Canadians 17-14. The Zombies have been playing great defense lately, but will have to face either the Rams or Cows in the Gumbo Bowl. The New Zealand club is now Al's top ranked team at 5-2 #21. Both the Rams, #28, and Cows, #31, are 6-0 though. Look for the winner of that game to jump way up near the top ten. The Gumbo Bowl Champion is sure to be a top five team and contend for a SCBCS game.

Sugg's Dream Season had just one game this week. The 1989 San Francisco 49ers defeated the 2002 Tampa Bay Buccaneers 21 - 14. Both teams are now 4-2, but will struggle to compete against the top Dream Teams and move on in the tournament. The Dolphins, Steelers, and Packers are all still undefeated. The Raiders, Colts, Bears, and Rams all have just one loss. All seven of these teams remain in the running for a SCBCS bid.

Ed's College Football Association is back on track with two games this week. SMU defeated Texas Tech 17 - 14. The Mustangs are now 4-3. The Red Raiders drop to 3-4. The Baylor Bears got a narrow overtime win over the Rice Owls 22 - 21. RG3 ran for 116 and scored. Owl tight end, Howton, scored all three Rice touchdowns. Rice is 1-6. Baylor moves to 5-2 and remains Ed's top ranked team at #19. The Bears, along with Arkansas, 4-1, look to be ECFA's two best chances at SCBCS glory.

With the SCPC season one nearing its end, and the rankings heating up, the Rules Committee has been discussing the details of the postseason. We are working on trophies and/or prizes for the best solitaire teams in each division and the overall champion. At the end of the regular season, June 30th, the top overall team, and the top team in each division will be recognized. The SCPC Postseason will be comprised of four Solitaire Coaches Bowl Series Championship Games pairing the top teams in each of the four SCPC divisions. In addition, bowl eligible teams that do not qualify for one of the four BCS games will be allowed to play in a non-BCS bowl game as determined by their owner. Be on the lookout for the next edition of Solitaire Illustrated for more information

With only seven games reported in the SCPC this week there was not much movement in the rankings. A couple of the winning teams moved up, but not into the top ten. We did gain another bowl eligible team though, and three more teams reached the 4 or 5 win plateau. The stage is being set for an exciting final push for teams to make the SCPC post season and via for SCBCS bids.

Let's begin our recaps with some action from the Mail Order Football League. The Boston Stranglers (Chris Fields) had no problems at all with the Richmond Rebels (Brain Wittkop) as they rolled to 35 - 13 win in a game played under Mike Velikey's 'short game' rules. Keep an eye on the forum for a full recap and pics later this week. The loss is the first SCPC game for the Rebels. The Stranglers, one the MOFL's best teams, evens their SCPC record

Derrick Gross

Charles Angell 20 - 14

35 - 13

Two games in ECFA were entered. TCU moved to 4-3 with a third consecutive win, 17-0, over Texas who has lost three in row. It was a defensive battle all the way with the Frogs out gaining the Horns 195 - 141. In the second ECFA game the Texas A&M Aggies pulled off a come from behind upset win over the Arkansas Razorbacks. Arkansas dominated the game, out gaining the A&M 350 - 228, but turned the ball over four times allowing the Aggies to overcome a 17 - 7 fourth quarter deficit. Texas A&M evens their record at 3-3 while Arkansas, still in contention for the SWC title, is 4-2 and ranked #37. Baylor still leads the way in the SWC/ECFA.

The DREAM SEASON draws ever closer to its culmination with three games this week. Chicago put Dallas in a tough spot handing the Cowboys their third loss 17 - 14. Green Bay stayed undefeated, and became the SCPC's newest bowl eligible team at 6-0 with a 21 - 7 win over New Orleans. The loss stuck a fork in the Saint's Dream Season as they are now 2-4. Washington and St. Louis are now both 4-2 as the Redskins defeated the Rams 17 - 14. The Rams have lost two of three with their only win coming over lowly New Orleans while Washington has won four of five with their only loss at the hands of the mighty Packers. The Packers join the Dolphins and Steelers as bowl eligible Dream Season teams, and are now the top ranked Dream Team at #15. Oakland, Chicago, and Baltimore are all 5-1. The Redskins and Rams join the 49ers and Buccaneers at 4-2.

The final game this week was a thriller in WMLMF's second semi-final contest. In a mild upset That 70's Rams overcame an early 21 - 0 deficit to earn a 40 - 38 win over the South Park Cows. South Park squandered an opportunity to advance to the Gumbo Bowl and earn SCPC bowl eligibility. The Rams left themselves in excellent shape to be a factor in the SCBCS race with a Gumbo Bowl win over the New Zealand Zombies. Good luck to both teams in the Gumbo Bowl.

With just ten weeks of SCPC regular season play remaining there are a lot of questions to answer. Who else can get their top teams to the six win bar? Are there more solitaire coaches out there not even involved yet? Will Wittkops Big Ten season produce a top ranked team or will they just beat the crap out of each other? Will Veliky get SB56 completed? With the top ranked 49ers capped out and several other of his top teams eliminated we could see another Veliky team creep into the BCS chase. Will LeMay's Jets earn enough QWBP to catch Velikey's 49ers as the WLAPF schedule plays out? Can the ECFA produce a top ranked team? How many points can the top Dream Teams amass? Will CAPEF complete another tournament and get the top teams back on the board in time to make a push? Has Owen completely abandoned his Skulls season?

It should be fun!

Solitaire Coaches' Points Challenge Updates Weeks 30 & 31 Sunday April 21 - Saturday May 4, 2013

WEEK 30

SCPC Official Stats: 21 new games & 3 new teams this week 494 total games, 232 different teams, 19 owners/coaches 16 bowl eligible teams (six or more wins)

13 five win teams still alive

28 four win teams still alive

9 Weeks Remaining

Week thirty turned out to be one of the best weeks in SCPC competition so far. Several coaches played multiple games, several teams won league titles and made major moves up in the rankings. We gained two more bowl eligible teams, and the number of teams with either four or five wins increased greatly. If you've been following the SCPC you have to be transfixed. If you haven't been, or if you're not participating, you're missing solitaire history in the making. There is no doubt that the SCPC is going too far exceed the best case scenario the creators anticipated. There is no doubt the when the SCPC and SCBCS crown a national champion in three months that team will truly be the best solitaire team in the world!

CAPEF got the new season twenty-four tournament rolling. The Saints defeated the Falcons, the Steelers took care of the Raiders, Washington handily defeated San Francisco, and the New York Jets needed overtime to finish off Denver. Pittsburgh 2-1, # 129, & New York 4-2, # 47, look to be in the best shape SCPC wise after the first four games of the tournament. Charles has five teams ranked above the Jets right now, three of which are already bowl eligible, with the 6-2 Colts leading the way. None of the five are taking part in the current tournament however. The winner of the season 24 tournament should become Charles's sixth highly ranked team, and make for a potentially star studded season 25 in June as the SCPC wraps up.

The NMELF wrapped-up non-conference play on the Big Ten schedule. Michigan State (2-2), Illinois (2-2), and Wisconsin (1-3) were the only Big Ten teams to lose. Purdue won their game and now sit at 3-1. Ohio State, Minnesota, Indiana, Iowa, and Michigan all pushed their records to 4-0. Michigan is by far the most highly ranked at #74. Once these teams start squaring off next week several are bound to separate from the pack and become factors in the SCPC top ten.

DREAM SEASON dreams ended for the Raiders who lost to the still undefeated Dolphins. Czonka and crew did the 4.0 Inclusive division proud as they defeated the Raiders from the Unlimited ranks. Oakland missed their chance to become bowl eligible, and will have to hope for some exhibition wins to see post season play in the SCPC. Miami, now 7-0, looks to be in great shape for SCBCS bowl bid.

ECFA action in the SWC is drawing near the end. A late game winning drive attempt by SMU fell dead on the Arkansas six yard line allowing the Razorbacks to escape with a 17 - 10 win. Houston's Studstill found the end zone with just thirty seconds left in the game to give the Cougars a 17 - 13 win over Texas Tech. Texas A&M destroyed TCU 24 - 0 in as dominating a performance as you'll ever see. Texas continued to disappoint as they fell for the fourth consecutive time, 24 - 18 to Baylor. The Baylor win coupled with the Arkansas loss makes the Bears the SWC Champions. Baylor is now SCPC bowl eligible as well, and enters the top ten in our SCPC rankings. Ed may be looking for a home-and-home set up in order to get Baylor up to the ten game SCPC maximum, and make a push for a SCBCS game and the national championship.

The biggest news of the week comes out of Al's WMLMF where the Gumbo Bowl was played between That 70's Rams and the New Zealand Zombies. The Rams took home the WMLMF Championship with a 21 - 14 win over the Zombies. It was the second straight week the Rams kept their opponent from becoming SCPC bowl eligible. With the win the Rams go to 8-0, but they weren't done there. Both teams played exhibition games following the Gumbo Bowl. The Zombies defeated the Fairies, moving to 6-3 and thus becoming bowl eligible. The Rams meanwhile went to 9 - 0 with a win over the Union Jacks. The win pushed Al's Rams into the top five.

WEEK 31

SCPC Official Stats:

9 new games & 0 new teams this week

503 total games, 232 different teams, 19 owners/coaches

17 bowl eligible teams (six or more wins)

15 five win teams still alive

26 four win teams still alive

8 Weeks Remaining

Ray Sugg's DREAM SEASON is getting better and better. This week the Steelers knocked the Colts out of the playoffs. The Bears did the same to the Redskins, and the Packers, in doing the same to the 49ers, solidified themselves as the favorite in not only the Dream Season tournament, but in the SCPC Unlimited division as well. Plus, the Packers, who have clearly played the most difficult Dream Season schedule, announced their presence as a factor in both the SCPC regular season points champion race and the SCBCS. Title town looks to have a few more titles in their future.

Charles Angell played the second half of the lower bracket in his Season 24 tournament. The Giants defeated the Bears 17 - 14 and the Bills ran away from Boston 49 - 28. The Bills, now 4-2, join the Jets and Steelers as the top teams in Charles's current tournament.

Brain Wittkop's NMEFL's Big Ten schedule finally got into Big Ten games. Two undefeated teams, Ohio State and Minnesota, stayed undefeated. OSU got by Purdue 20 - 17 while UM survived 10 - 7 over their biggest rival in Wisconsin. Both winners are now 5-0, one win shy of SCPC bowl eligibility, and poised to make a run at the Big Ten title. The Buckeyes are now #68 and the Gophers are #88. Look for Michigan and Indiana to move past the Buckeyes if they can win their Big Ten openers.

Ed Morgan's ECFA crowned the Baylor Bears SWC champions last week. This week two high scoring affairs set all sorts of ECFA records. The Texas Longhorns finally got another win. The needed overtime to defeat Texas A&M, 34 - 28, on a 50 yard pass from Layne to Finley. Campbell (Tex) and Crow (A&M) each rushed for three touchdowns. Texas outgained A&M 408 to 379. In the second game, the highest scoring SWC game this season, Houston took care of Rice 45 - 30. Houston, now 5-4, became the first ECFA SWC team to score on every possession; 6 touchdowns and a field goal. Baylor, the ranked ECFA team, picked up some QWBP with these results and moved up a spot as well.

That was all the action in week 31. Here's a breakdown of where we stand in each division.

- 3.3 Limited teams no longer completely dominate the top ten. The division does still hold the top four spots and eight of the top ten however, and there are eleven bowl eligible 3.3 Limited teams. As of today's rankings the SCBCS 3.3 Limited bowl game would pit Mike Velikey's San Francisco 49ers (9-3, 121, #1) against Chris LeMay's New York Jets (10-0, 118, #2). Charles Angell and Al Dunham both have teams in contention as well.
- 3.3 Tweaked teams are starting to make some noise. Ed Morgans has landed four of his SWC teams in the top 25 now with Baylor leading the way as the only bowl eligible 3.3 Tweaked team at 6-2, 88, #7. Owen's Skulls are still taking an extended break, but are one win away from a bowl game at 5-1.

The 4.0 Inclusive division is all Ray Sugg. Ray has three 7-0 teams. Al Dunham's Pacific Sharks are the only other 4.0 Inclusive team with more than one win. The Sharks are 2-1.

The Unlimited division also has a pair of Ray Sugg teams at the top. The Bears are bowl eligible at 6-1. The Raiders are 5-2. Ray's teams are not alone in this division though. Brain Wittkop's Big Ten teams play Unlimited as well. With the Big Ten schedule underway, and six undefeated teams in the conference, Brian is almost assured of having a team in Unlimited championship SCBCS game.

Most of our SCPC owner/coaches do a very nice job of posting game/league results and updates on their own games and leagues. There is some very exciting action taking place in them all. For the sake of time, and a little different focus this week, I encourage you to check out all the action in each league's thread on the forum.

As for the SCPC and how the game results affected the overall rankings......here goes.

My NSIC teams are all now 1-1, and unless I really get going none will be bowl eligible - this is one of my busiest times of the year. Hence, this summary is two days overdue. Solitaire Illustrated page 35

Michigan and Indiana continue to be the top teams out of Wittkop's NMEFL. Michigan sits at #53 while Indiana is back at #72. OSU and UM join those two at 5-0. Brian will have bowl eligible, top ranked teams very soon. Northwestern and lowa both fell off the pace with losses. Michigan is out front due to wins that netted them QWBP over Northwestern and Notre Dame. Other's will catch-up as they get a shot at more QWBP too.

Charles Angell's St. Louis Cardinals are now 3-2, 33, #94. It will be fun to see who wins the current CAPEF tournament and how far they rise in the rankings. This will set the stage for what could be a HUGE tournament of champions in June from CAPEF.

The Dream Season is over for the Patriots and Buccaneers, but with their wins the two will face off in the 3.3 Dream Season Championship game. In regular Dream Season action the Dolphins stayed undefeated, while giving Pittsburgh their first loss, and entered the top 5 at #5. The Steelers sit at #12. We should see that epic rematch between Green Bay (#6) and Chicago (#28) soon. The winner of the Dream Season tournament could very well end the regular season in the top spot.

Finally, Al's WMLMF teams are now playing exhibition games in order to bolster their SCPC rankings. The Union Jacks, Mennonites, and Cadavers all won and are sitting around the .500 mark and ranked in the #50 - 60 range. The big move by Al - a brilliant move actually - was to pit his Gumbo Bowl Champion and undefeated Rams against David Roller's Cincinnati Bengals from the Mail Order Football League. The move brings Roller on as our 20th SCPC owner/coach. The Bengals not only are from a different owner than the Rams, but they play two divisions higher than the Rams in SCPC play besides. The Rams not only won the game, they dominated it! A 21 - 0 shutout alone earned the Rams 8 points. They got an additional 4 bonus points - 2 division and 2 game scenario - for defeating another owner's team from a higher division. In addition, the wins by the Union Jacks, and Cadavers, both of whom the Rams have defeated, earned them an additional 4 QWBP. All those points put the Rams in a spot no one but Mike Velikey and his San Francisco 49ers has been in since week 18. After a fourteen week stay at the top by the 49ers, Al Dunham's That 70's Rams are the SCPC's new number one team.

Congratulations Al, and thanks to your strategy of pairing the Rams against Rollers Bengals we now have 20 owner coaches. Awesome!

Now: Can the Rams build an even bigger points lead? Can Velikey and LeMay remain quite with Dunham on top? Will Dunham's strategizing continue? Rumor has it the Cows are traveling to Minnesota for some exhibition play (Sorry I haven't called you back Al. I'm looking forward to seeing the Cows in person.). Which of Sugg's Dream Teams will live the Dream, and can they unseed the Rams? How fast and far will Wittkop's Big Ten teams rise. Will the Skulls ever be heard from again?

In less than two months we'll know all of this and more. Most importantly, in less than two months, we'll know which teams earned SCBCS Bowl Games and who has a shot at the National Championship!

Solitaire Coaches' Points Challenge Update Week 33 Sunday May 12 - Saturday May 18, 2013

SCPC Official Stats:

11 new games this week

528 total games, 233 different teams, 20 owners/coaches

21 bowl eligible teams (six or more wins)

15 five win teams still alive

27 four win teams still alive

6 Weeks Remaining

With just eleven SCPC games this week there is not a whole lot to talk about.

Al played three games with the Cleveland Cadavers and they played like cadavers, losing all three 21 - 14 to Kansas City (this was the Sumos first win), 17 - 13 to the Fairies (the Fairies suck too), and 17 - 7 to the Toxic Waste. After all that the Cadavers sit at 3-6 with 60 SCPC points which is good for the #42 ranking. Despite the decent rank the Cadavers are no longer eligible for postseason play with six losses. Before beating the Cadavers the Fairies lost to David Roller's Bengals 10 - 7. The split puts the Fairies at 3-5, 53, #54. They also are eliminated from bowl contention. The Toxic Waste on the other hand are now 4-2, 53, #53 and may still be a factor as Al rounds out his teams' schedules.

Roller's Bengals are now 1-1, 17, #141 which is an amazing jump of 89.

Charles continued his tournament and is closer to determining who will rise to join his other top teams in one last CAPEF SCPC tournament of champions in June. The Cardinals defeated the Saints 23 - 21 and the Steelers got by the Bills 33 - 28. The Cardinals are now 4-2, 42, #73 and the Steelers are 3-1, 34, #97. Either team could come out on top.

The biggest news this week is from Brian's NMEFL where three of his Big Ten teams became SCPC Bowl eligible. Michigan, Ohio State, and Minnesota all moved to 6-0. Purdue and Northwestern also won and are now both 4-2. Michigan by far has the top ranking of the group at #29. They are followed by Ohio State at #50 and Minnesota at #67. This margin is the result of Michigan's 24 QWBP. They have a non-conference win over Notre Dame who has two wins, and have now defeated two consecutive previously undefeated teams. Minnesota on the other hand has just 6 QWBP due to their soft schedule thus far. This race will only tighten up if someone can knock off Michigan.

With just six weeks left the race to the finish will be exciting. Ray must have went fishing this week, but his Dream Teams will be heard from down the stretch. Chris will be back home soon. He has several WLAPF teams that can contend. Al, Brain, and Charles all have top tier teams battling for BCS spots.

I have not heard from Mike V. in a long time. Does anyone have his number? I hope his back is mending, and he'll be able to finish out.

Solitaire Coaches' Points Challenge Update Week 36

Sunday June 2 - Saturday June 8, 2013

SCPC Official Stats:

12 new games and 1 new team this week

551 total games, 236 different teams, 20 owners/coaches

25 bowl eligible teams (six or more wins)

14 five win teams still alive

25 four win teams still alive

3 Weeks and 1 Day Remaining

Week 36 of SCPC play was a good one with several champions being crowned, one each in the Dream Season and CAPEF. All other action came from Michigan where WMLMF exhibition games and late season action in the NMEFL took place. You can check out the league posts on the forum for all the action and details.

This update is going to focus on the SCPC rankings, divisions, bowl pictures, and the race for number one.

In the overall rankings Al's That 70's Rams maintain their top ranking for a fourth consecutive week. The Rams cannot rest easy though. There are now three 8-0 teams eyeing up the top spot. Sugg's Dolphins are keyed up for a Dream Season title run. If they pull it off they will be a factor. Wittkop has the other two. His Gophers are way down at number 30, but they have two big games left which, if won, will earn them a pile of bonus points. Brian's Wolverines have moved all the way up to number 5. They play Minnesota in one of their last two games. A win over the Gophers would give Michigan enough QWBP to pull within ten points of the top spot. Two wins, plus their other points, could put them over the top. I can't forget the '85 Bears who will play the Dolphins for Dream Season immortality. If they get the win they might be able to make a move. Mike Veliky has a few teams still in the mix as well. Is there another 'dark horse' I'm overlooking? With three weeks left anything can happen.

The 4.0 Inclusive division is all Ray Suggs. His Dolphins will probably play his Packers in this SCBCS match up unless Ray plays some more exhibition games to give his Steelers or Colts a shot. You just never know though.

Suggs used to own the Unlimited division as well. His Bears, who will be playing the Dolphins for the Dream Season title, are the only team he has left with a chance at BCS glory in this division though. Brain Wittkop's Big Ten has taken over. Michigan is leading the way. Minnesota and Indiana are also in good shape if they can win out. Any of these teams, especially Michigan, could make a run at the national championship.

We still have three weeks and one day to go in SCPC play. Anything can happen. It's not too late for a new coach to jump in and run a team to the top. Who's out there? We have a lot of coaches with teams entered that have sat inactive for many, many weeks. Will they come back for a big finish? In three weeks we'll know.

Solitaire Coaches' Points Challenge Update Week 38

Sunday June 17 - Saturday June 23, 2013

SCPC Official Stats:

7 new games, 3 new teams, and 1 new owner/coach this week 565 total games, 241 different teams, 21 owners/coaches

27 bowl eligible teams (six or more wins)

13 five win teams still alive

26 four win teams still alive

1 Week and 1 Day Remaining (5 days as of this posting)

The new rankings pretty much say it all and leave us with just questions.. Wittkop's Wolverines and Gophers are both right there, but will he get any more games in? Sugg has a few teams poised as well. Will he play any more games or go fishing? It's the same question over and over......will (fill in the blank) play any more games?

Welcome to Andy McLaughlin our newest owner/coach. With Andy coming we have 20+ participants. It's great to have you Andy. Thanks for jumping in even though it's very late in the season.

As of this posting there are just five days remaining in the SCPC regular season. All games must be entered by the end of the day on Monday, June 30th. This will be based on the time the game was entered, not the date the game was played, so make sure you get all your game entered on time.

Right now there are no week 39 games entered. It could be a big weekend. I'll update the rankings on Sunday as usual, but will not do an update. I will redo the rankings Tuesday morning, July 1, if any more are entered on Sunday or Monday, and do a final update complete with potential bowl match-ups.

Keep in mind that bowl match-ups will not be final until the rules committee consults with each other and all bowl eligible owners confirm their ability/willingness to make the necessary arrangements to participate such as sending or receiving teams via mail and/or traveling to Cleveland for the convention to play bowl games. This will hopefully all be done so that final bowl match-up can be announced on the 4th of July.

Good luck to all in the final weekend. It could be exciting!

Solitaire Coaches' Points Challenge Update REGULAR SEASON FINAL Sunday June 30

SCPC Official Stats:

565

6/27/2013

9 new games & 1 new team yesterday 578 total games, 242 different teams, 21 owners/coaches 29 bowl eligible teams (six or more wins)

4.0 Inclusive 1966 Packers Ray Sugg

Wow! What a run it's been. After a quite last few weeks nine games were entered at the wire on the last day of SCPC regular season competition. Many of them involved top ranked teams and had an impact on the top of the final rankings. This included a major upset that allowed our # 1 team going into the last week, Ray Sugg's 1972 Miami Dolphins - 4.0 Inclusive - to hold on and win the regular season championship. Congratulations to Ray and his Dream Season Champion Dolphins.

The nine games entered on the final day combined with the week 39 games accounted for a total of 13 games in the last eight days of the SCPC regular season. Here is how they broke down.

Ray Sugg played five games in the final stretch. The Bears shut out the Raiders making them Ray's top ranked Unlimited team. The Packers earned themselves the # 2 overall ranking with a pair of wins: 17 - 14 over Pittsburgh and 14 - 0 over Oakland. Meanwhile, the Dolphins did all they could for themselves with a 17 - 7 victory over the 3.3g Dream Season Champion Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Ray put a capper on the SCPC when he matched his Montreal Alouettes against the Steelers. Montreal won the game 17 - 14. Montreal also became the final 'new' team of the season on the last day of the season. That's cool Ray. We'll be looking for the Alouettes to be a factor in SCPC season II. Thank you for all your great participation, and congratulations.

Brian Wittkop joined the SCPC rather late in the season compared to other coaches, but had a huge impact down the stretch. In fact, except for a final week upset loss to Purdue his Michigan Wolverines may very well have been the # 1 team at the end of the regular season. Purdue upset Michigan 22 -21. Michigan, who had blown out multiple opponents, may have done the same to Purdue except for having two TD's called back and committing five turnovers. It's amazing the game was as close as it was. In other NMEFL action Northwestern won 21 - 20 over Michigan State. Iowa became bowl eligible with a 22 - 17 win over Wisconsin. Ohio State rolled Illinois 35 - 7. Last, and certainly not least, Minnesota moved to 10 - 0 with a 28 - 17 win over a tough Indiana squad. It has been awesome following your season Brain. Your teams really made the stretch run interesting to follow. Thank you for taking part.

In their second game in a swing though Minnesota Al Dunham's South Park Cows were corralled. After the Cows took it to the Gophers in their first game up north they ran into a dam when they faced the Beavers of Bemidji State. Bemidji, behind a new look pistol offense and a very stingy defense, took advantage of two interceptions by Stan to send the Cows to pasture 20 - 3. Thanks for sending your Cows up north to play Al. They went fishing, swimming, and had a few wild nights on the town while here. They'll arrive home for their bowl match-up soon.

The final two games of the final week were from Ed Morgans's ECFA. His OSU Cowboys played a double header against the two best teams from the SWC. OSU defeated the SWC Champion Baylor Bears 23 - 16 in four overtimes, but the game must have worn them out as they dropped the next contest to Arkansas, in four overtimes, 13 - 10.

With all 578 SCPC season one games entered here is how the 29 bowl eligible teams stacked up in their respective divisions.

As you can see, a lot of very good teams ended up sitting at four or five wins, just missing the postseason. This begs the first question for season II. Will owners do things differently to get more teams to the six win level? I will!

The top two teams from each division have paired up to play in a Solitaire Coaches Bowl Championship Series Division Championship Game. This includes, rightly so, the top six teams in the rankings as well as the # 11 & # 12 teams. Owners of these eight teams must determine when, where, and under what rules these games will be played as well as who will actually coach the games. Here are your SCBCS bowl match-ups.

3.3 Limited Championship Bowl Game

#3 That 70's Rams (Al Dunham) vs. #6 San Francisco 49ers (Mike Veliky)

4buzzball.com 3.3 Tweaked Championship Bowl Game

#11 Arkansas Razorbacks (Ed Morgans) vs #12 Baylor Bears (Ed Morgans).

4.0 Inclusive Championship Bowl Game

#1 1972 Miami Dolphins (Ray Sugg) vs. #2 1966 Green Bay Packers (Ray Sugg)

Unlimited Championship Bowl Game

#4 Michigan Wolverines (Brian Witkop, Sr.) vs #5 Minnesota Gophers (Brian Witkop Sr.)

Congratulations to Al, Mike, Ed, Ray, and Brian. Good luck to all of you and your teams.

Now, don't forget that all of the other 23 bowl eligible teams can be matched-up to play in a postseason bowl game as well. It is up to each owner to pair their teams up or challenge another bowl eligible team from a different owner to a game. Just like the SCBCS games it up to the bowl participants to determine when, where, and under what rules set to play their bowl game(s), as well as who will actually coach these bowl games.

Coaches should report the results of ALL bowl games just as they did regular season games. Please promote your own bowl matchups here on the forum and when reporting scores please leave me notes along with the final score so I know what bowl it was. As bowl games are reported rankings will be recalculated based on the results. Once all bowl games have been played the final rankings will be calculated. The #1 team at that point will be our first ever Solitaire National Champion.

If you have any questions on bowl games please email or PM me.

Know here are a few scenarios to peak everyone's interest.

Obviously Ray Sugg's Dolphins vs. Packers matchup will likely produce our champion. The Michigan vs. Minnesota matchup, both owned by Brian Witkop, in the Unlimited Division is intriguing as well. These teams did not play in the regular season. Save a week ten upset loss to Purdue, Michigan may well have been #1 or #2 right now. The Rams vs. 49ers matchup is next. The Rams have a long shot chance to jump up, but the 49ers are playing for pride at this point as are the Baylor Bears and Arkansas Razorbacks in the Inclusive Division.

The Dolphins at #1 have three point lead on the Packers. The Packers hold a three point lead over the Rams, and the Rams a three point lead over the Wolverines. That means the Packers are three back of the Dolphins. The Rams are six back and the Wolverines are nine out of the top spot. All four have a chance. The Gophers are 17 out and the 49ers 21. The other two BCS teams, Baylor and Arkansas are both 44 back.

Considering that each game is worth a possible 9 points plus bonuses it stands to reason that only the top four have a shot. If Miami wins they will have a minimum of 162 and a maximum of 169 unless Ray has someone else coach the game for some GSBP. That is a possible three additional points giving the Dolphins, if they win, a minimum total of 162 and a maximum of 172. Can anyone beat that?

Following the same thinking the Rams minimum possible if they win is 156. Their maximum, including GSBP if Mike coached the game would be 167. That may be enough.

If the Packers defeat Miami their minimum/maximum would be 151/161. If the Packers and Rams both win the Rams would likely jump both Miami and Green Bay.

Michigan could go 155/166 with a win over Minnesota. It is possible for Big Blue.

I don't see a scenario where Minnesota, San Francisco, Baylor, or Arkansas can come out on top.

Warning - my projections were done in my head without the use of scratch paper, calculator, or common sense for that matter. I think they are accurate, but I could be wrong. So, use them to plan your strategies at your own risk.

There is one other factor to consider however and that is QWBP. Each of the teams mentioned still have the potential to earn QWBP if team(s) they have defeated win bowl games; 2 points per. That could be enough to swing it. Who has the most teams they defeated playing in a bowl? How will their owners match them up? It could be a factor.

Perhaps I'll get some beers and figure things out in more detail tonight. Perhaps not.

NOTE: With an odd number of bowl eligible teams someone will end up with no team to play unless someone chooses not to take part. If this occurs, and you own the team that is the odd team out, please contact the rules committee with a proposal for an opponent.

Solitaire Coaches' Points Challenge Update SCPC Final Update Sunday, August 11, 2012

SCPC Official Stats:5 Bowl Games Played 583 total games, 242 different teams, 21 owners/coaches 29 bowl eligible teams (six or more wins)

Our first ever Solitaire Coaches Point Challenge National Champion is.....

With all four SCBCS Bowl games in the books and one challenge bowl game played the first season of the SCPC is officially completed and a huge success.

Four of the bowl games were played between the top two teams from each of our four divisions. The fifth was a challenge bowl between top ranked teams owned by Al and Chris.

I believe each of the bowls has a detailed post on the forum so I'll just give the scores and the final rankings. Check out the game summaries on the forum.

In the Challenge Bowl LeMay's Jets defeated Al's Zombies in a close one 17 - 14.

In the 3.3 Limited Bowl Al's 70's Rams defeated Mike Velikey's 49ers 28 - 3.

In the 3.3 Tweaked Bowl Ed Morgan's Arkansas Razorbacks avenged their previous loss to Baylor 21 - 17.

In the 4.0 Inclusive Bowl Brian Wittkop's Wolverines took it to the Gophers.

In the Unlimited Bowl Ray Suggs' Dolphins beat the Packers.

With all the scores and points updated the final ranking are calculated and posted below. I'm only posting the top twelve as I've had some computer issues. All bowl game participants are in the top twelve.

CONGRATULATIONS TO RAY SUGGS AND HIS 1972 MIAMI DOLPHINS THE FIRST EVER SOLITAIRE NATIONAL CHAMPIONS.

As you can see Al's Rams, with their convincing win over the 49ers, almost came up with enough points to catch the Dolphins.

It has been an amazing season. Thanks one last time to everyone who participated and followed along.
